 Pocahontas Evolution and Imagination in Victorian Children's Literature Jessica Straley,2016-06-06 Evolutionary theory sparked numerous speculations about human development and one of the most ardently embraced was the idea that children are animals recapitulating the ascent of the species After Darwin s Origin of Species scientific pedagogical and literary works featuring beastly babes and wild children interrogated how our ancestors evolved and what children must do in order to repeat this course to humanity Exploring fictions by Rudyard Kipling Lewis Carroll Frances Hodgson Burnett Charles Kingsley and Margaret Gatty Jessica Straley argues that Victorian children s literature not only adopted this new taxonomy of the animal child but also suggested ways to complete the child s evolution In the midst of debates about elementary education and the rising dominance of the sciences children s authors plotted miniaturized evolutions for their protagonists and readers and more pointedly proposed that the decisive evolutionary leap for both our ancestors and ourselves is the advent of the literary imagination In the Name of Sharks François Sarano,2023-10-17 Twenty metres below water the oceanographer Fran ois Sarano came face to face with a five and a half metre great white shark Seduced by the gentle elegance of this majestic creature Sarano experienced a profound sense of affinity with her as they swam side by side shoulder to shoulder eye to eye cutting a single figure through the ocean depths It was an experience which made him realize the depth of our ignorance of the lives of sharks leading him to become a passionate advocate for their protection Drawing on the latest scientific research on the biology and ethology of sharks and their exceptional characteristics this book aims to break through the barrier of prejudice and to pay homage to their true nature Representing a last vestige of wildness their populations are nevertheless under threat like so many species they have been hunted and exploited by humans Sarano argues for a change of mindset in which we lose ourselves in the world of the other so that each living entity human and non human can take their rightful place in the broader global ecosystem Also available as an audiobook The Greatest
