The Intellectual repository for the New Church. (July/Sept. 1817). [Continued as] The Intellectual repository and New Jerusalem magazine. Enlarged ser., vol.1-28 New Church gen. confer, How Would we Know what God is up to? Ernst M. Conradie, Cynthia D. Moe-Lobeda, 2023-06-22 Academic finite co-travellers who will dare to accept are invited in the ecotheological Anthropocene period to journey together without a roadmap exploring the probing and unnerving question: What is God up to? This question is exploringly posed and rigorously pursued in the book. The reader will find themselves enraptured by the breadth, depth, and height of a methodological approach to the uncharted landscape of the mystery of an infinite God, as well as sense-making narratives of our world contextually and receptively and constructively, as well as sensitively. Prof. Danie Veldsman, Department of Systematic and Historical Theology, Faculty of Theology and Religion, University of Pretoria, Pretoria, South Africa. Since we live on a planet in peril, this proposed ecotheology summa is both timely and significant. This book and the series as a whole engage the perennial themes of systematic Christian theology from the perspective of the multiple strands of ecological reflection. I look forward to reading all the volumes of the An Earthed Faith: Telling the Story amid the Anthropocene book series. Prof. Susan Rakoczy, St. Joseph's Theological Institute, Cedara, South Africa. A Walk to Remember Pasquale De Marco, 2025-08-16 A Walk to Remember is a celebration of the human spirit of exploration. Adorno, Politics, and the Aesthetic Animal Caleb J. Basnett,2021-07-30 Built upon the principle that divides and elevates humans above other animals humanism is the cornerstone of a worldview that sanctifies inequality and threatens all animal life Adorno Politics and the Aesthetic Animal analyses this state of affairs and suggests an alternative a way for humanity to make itself into a new kind of animal Theodor W Adorno has been accused of leading critical theory into a blind alley divorced from practical social and political concerns In Adorno Politics and the Aesthetic Animal Caleb J Basnett argues that by placing the problem of the human animal distinction at the centre of Adorno s thought we discover a new Adorno one whose critique of domination is in dialogue with classic concerns of political thought forged by Aristotle including questions of humanist political education and the role of art Through a close reading of primary sources Basnett identifies the principal conceptual structure entwined with the understanding of human life as antagonistic to other animals and outlines how forms of aesthetic experience disrupt this problematic concept in favour of a reconceptualization of what we call human His analysis displaces the centrality of the human and attempts to open up a space for its transformation both in terms of how humans relate to each other and in how humans relate to other animals

'Being Towards Death' Sylvie Avakian, 2021-04-19 This book draws the philosophical contribution of Martin Heidegger together with theological spiritual insights from the East especially that of Nikolai Berdyaev Thus it brings into dialogue the West with the East and philosophy with theology By doing so it offers Christian theology an existential spiritual language that is relevant and meaningful for the contemporary reader In particular the work explores Heidegger's being towards death Sein zum Tode as the basis for theological philosophical thinking Only the one who embraces being towards death has the courage to think and poetize This thinking in turn makes being towards death possible and in this circular movement of thinking and being the mystery of being reveals itself and yet remains hidden Since the work aims at demonstrating being towards death through language it transitions away from the common formulations and traditionally accepted ways of writing dogmatic theology towards an original philosophical reflection on faith and spirituality At different points however the work also retrieves the profound thoughts and theologies of the past the insightful creativity of which cannot be denied
