The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah L. Miles, 2001-08-23 In this constructive study Miles proposes a new feminist theological ethic drawing together the contributions of Reinhold Niebuhr Sharon Welch and Rosemary Ruether Seeking to critically reappropriate the Christian realism articulated by Niebuhr she reinterprets solutions to problems emergent from his theology Miles presents feminist Christian realism as an alternative that can reclaim a positive interpretation of divine transcendence and human self transcendence while maintaining newer emphases on human boundedness and divine immanence Theologians and ethicists will find her critical reassessment of the three authors distinctive and her challenging proposal for a positive creative transformation a significant contribution to the development of feminist ethics

Bible and Ethics in the Christian Life Bruce C. Birch, 1989-01-01 Among the topics treated are Christian ethics as community ethics Charting the moral life Elements of character formation Character and social structure Decision making The nature and role of biblical authority Uses of Scripture in Christian ethics

The Future of Christian Realism Dallas Gingles, Joshua Mauldin, Rebekah L. Miles, 2023-04-15 In the world's most developed democracies anxiety about the future of democracy is palpable The tension between moral aspiration and moral despair has reached a point of crisis Christian realism arose during a similar time of crisis when Reinhold Niebuhr used the insights of the Christian tradition to interpret the clash between democracy and totalitarianism Beginning with Robin Lovin's account of Christian realism as a nuanced blend of theological moral and political realisms The Future of Christian Realism addresses fundamental topics in theology ethics and politics The contributors come from different traditions span five continents and together present a case for the continuing relevance of Christian realism By paying close attention to many of the most pressing moral challenges facing societies today the authors illustrate and evaluate the enduring relevance of Christian realism

Love Your Enemies Lisa Sowle Cahill, 1994 The author examines the theological bases of just war theory and pacifism especially in the light of the concept of God as that motif illuminates Christian discipleship Differences between the theory of just war and the practice of pacifism are highlighted in the overview of the history of Christian thought on the subject and the inclusiveness of the ideal of the kingdom for pacifism is emphasized

Bonhoeffer's Reception of Luther Michael P. DeJonge, 2017-02-09 In Dietrich Bonhoeffer's writings Martin Luther is ubiquitous Too often however Bonhoeffer's Lutheranism has been set aside with much less argumentative work than is appropriate in light of his sustained engagement with Luther As a result Luther remains a largely untouched hermeneutic key in Bonhoeffer interpretation In Bonhoeffer's Reception of Luther Michael P DeJonge presents Bonhoeffer's Lutheran theology of justification focused on the interpersonal presence of Christ in word sacrament and church The bridge between this theology and Bonhoeffer's ethical political reflections is his two kingdoms thinking Arguing that the widespread failure to connect Bonhoeffer with the Lutheran two kingdoms tradition has presented a serious obstacle in interpretation DeJonge shows how this tradition informs Bonhoeffer's reflections on war and peace as well as his understanding of resistance to political authority In all of this DeJonge argues that an appreciation of Luther's ubiquity in Bonhoeffer's corpus sheds light on his thinking lends it coherence and makes sense of otherwise difficult interpretive problems What might otherwise appear as disparate even contradictory moments or themes in Bonhoeffer's theology can often be read in terms of a consistent commitment to a basic Lutheran theological framework deployed according to dramatically changing circumstances

Women and Pride Luping Huang, 2018-09-30 Reinhold Niebuhr is largely regarded as the leading twentieth century theologian of sin However many feminist theologians criticize Niebuhr's view of pride as the primary sin arguing that it fits only with men's experience In this detailed study Dr Luping Huang engages with Niebuhr and his feminist critics to provide a response to the feminist critique of Niebuhr's theology of sin Dr Huang provides a thorough analysis and examination of both the Niebuhrian and feminist understandings of sin highlighting the strengths and limitations of both arguments While some aspects of the feminists opposition to Niebuhr's doctrine of sin are valid there are weaknesses and limitations within its own framework Through her research and interaction with women's testimonies Huang's argument bridges these two competing views of women and sin resulting in a more accurate understanding and application of the theology of sin particularly in reference to women

Augustinian and Ecclesial Christian Ethics D. Stephen Long, 2018-08-15 What is the relationship between the command to love one's enemies and the use of violence and or other coercive political means This work examines this question by comparing and contrasting two important contemporary approaches to Christian ethics neoAugustinian and the ecclesial or neoAnabaptist It traces the complicated conversation that has taken place since John Howard Yoder took on Reinhold Niebuhr's interpretation of the Anabaptists in the 1940's It consists of three parts The first part traces the development of the Augustinian Niebuhrian approach to ethics from Niebuhr through those who have advanced his work including Paul Ramsey Timothy Jackson Charles Mathewes Eric Gregory and Jennifer Herdt It also examines the Augustinian ethics of Oliver O Donovan John Milbank and Nicholas Wolterstorff Along with tracing the Augustinian approach and its trajectories through agapism theology and the interpretation of Augustine it identifies fifteen criticisms that this approach brings against the neoAnabaptists The second part traces the origin of the ecclesial or neoAnabaptist approach and then examines its relationship to and criticism of agapism what theological doctrines are central and its interpretation of Augustine Its purpose is primarily constructive by explaining the role that ecclesiology Christology and eschatology have among the neoAnabaptists The third part addresses the criticisms levied by Augustinians against the neoAnabaptists by drawing on the constructive theology in the second part It intends to show where the Augustinian critics are correct where they have missed key theological teachings and where they misrepresent It also assesses the summons to the nationalist project the Augustinians put to the neoAnabaptists If this work is successful this third part will not be defensive It will instead illumine the reasons for the criticisms and suggest means by which the conversation that began between Yoder and Niebuhr can continue and possibly bear fruit for theological ethics in both its ecclesial and nationalist projects for generations to come

Virtue and Irony in American Democracy Daniel A. Morris, 2015-07-01 What virtues are necessary for democracy to succeed This book turns to John Dewey and Reinhold Niebuhr two of America's most influential theorists of democracy to answer this question Dewey and Niebuhr both implied although for very different reasons that humility and mutuality are important virtues for the success of people rule Not only do these virtues allow people to participate well in their own governance they also equip us to meet challenges to democracy generated by free market economic policy and practices Ironically though Dewey and Niebuhr quarreled with each other for twenty years and missed the opportunity to achieve political consensus In their discourse with each other they failed to become one out of many a task that is distilled in the democratic rallying cry e pluribus unum This failure itself reflects a deficiency in democratic virtue Thus exploring the Dewey Niebuhr debate with attention to their discursive failures reveals the importance of a third virtue democratic tolerance If democracy is to succeed we must cultivate a deeper hospitality toward difference than Dewey and Niebuhr were able to extend to each other

The Christian Witness in a Secular Age Donald G. Bloesch, 2002-01-02 This volume presents an evangelical appraisal of modern theological thinking It examines the views of nine leading theologians on the apologetic task today from Karl Barth and Reinhold Niebuhr to Harvey Cox and Thomas Altizer The strengths and weaknesses in the theology of each are set forth It is the author's contention that modern apologetics is often anchored in the spirit of the age and the values of the culture rather than in biblical revelation This book calls on Christians to place their trust not in imperfect human reason but in God's self-revelation in Christ which can be discerned only by faith

The Doctrine of Humanity in the Theology of Reinhold Niebuhr Kenneth Morris Hamilton, 2013-09-03 Reinhold Niebuhr was a twentieth century American theologian who was known for his commentary on public affairs One of his most influential ideas was the relating of his Christian faith to realism rather than idealism in foreign affairs His perspective influenced many liberals and is enjoying a resurgence today most recently Barack Obama has acknowledged Niebuhr's importance to his own thinking In this book Kenneth Hamilton makes a claim that no other work on Niebuhr has made that Niebuhr's chief and abiding preoccupation throughout his long career was the nature of humankind. Hamilton engages in a close reading of Niebuhr's entire oeuvre through this lens. He argues that this preoccupation remained consistent throughout Niebuhr's writings and that through his doctrine of humankind one gets a full sense of Niebuhr the theologian. Hamilton exposes not only the internal consistency of Niebuhr's project but also its aporia. Although Niebuhr's influence perhaps peaked in the mid twentieth century, enthusiasm for his approach to religion and politics has never waned from the North American public theology and this work remains relevant today. Although Hamilton wrote this thesis in the mid 1960s, it is published here for the first time. Jane Barter Moulaison, in her editorial gloss and introduction, demonstrates the abiding significance of Hamilton's work to the study of Niebuhr by bringing it into conversation with subsequent writings on Niebuhr, particularly as he is re-appropriated by twenty-first century American theology.

Basic Christian Doctrine

John H. Leith, 1993-01-01 John Leith provides a brief but comprehensive statement of Christian faith for contemporary Christians. He considers the theologians of the ancient church and affirms the faith of the ancient creeds.

Position and Responsibility

Ilsup Ahn, 2009-06-08 What is the moral criterion for those who hold power positions and authority in governments, corporations, and institutions? Ahn answers this question by presenting the concept of the positional imperative. The positional imperative is an executive moral norm for those who hold power positions in political and economic organizations. By critically integrating the Neo-Kantian reconstructionism of Jürgen Habermas with the Neo-Augustinian reconstructionism of Reinhold Niebuhr through the method of co-reconstruction, Ahn identifies the positional imperative as an executive moral norm embedded in all power positions. Act in such a way not only to abide by laws but also to come by the approvals of those affected by your positional actions. By uncovering this executive moral norm, Ahn argues that a position holder is not just a professional working for the system but a moral executive who is willing to take the responsibility of his or her positional actions.

A Journey Through Christian Theology William P. Anderson, A non-threatening entrance into texts from the Apostolic Fathers to Mary Daly

Remembering Faithfully Forward Barry K. Morris, 2022-06-08 Daily Meditation readers abound; some thankfully endure. Rare are spiritually grounded and contemplative invitations that feature four generations of earnest family teachers, preachers, activists, journalists, and controversial prophets. In various life conditions threatening and challenged by sickness and despair, herein are eight Niebuhr's faithful wrestlings. They bequeath bristling morsels and compelling insights creatively compacted into more than four hundred entries, and reference leads for further consideration. Thus deeply influenced by the patriarch and matriarch, Gustav Sr. and Lydia arise Reinhold's steadfast reflections on grace-grounded justice and its principles, the caring, layered meanings of the love of neighbor and God from his brother H. Richard, the dedication to render the faith intelligible to postmoderns held by his son Richard Reinhold, and the decisive and insightful journalism by in turn his son Gustav Jr. on Lincoln being duly lobbied for mercy to indigenous peoples. And that's not all the indispensable reminiscences of Reinhold's educator sister Hulda and his wife Ursula as well as the unearthed grace based Serenity Prayer of his daughter Elisabeth corporately express rare gleanings of the Niebuhr clan's virtual school of warm contemplative action

God and Human Dignity R. Kendall Soulen, Linda Woodhead, 2006-07-12 The concept of human dignity has been stripped from its traditional context in Christian thought becoming a moral trump frayed by heavy use but a compelling alternate vision has not yet emerged God and Human Dignity offers a fresh restatement of the nature and scope of human dignity in Christian perspective Theologians ethicists and biblical scholars from around the world here examine the dimensions of human worth in the light of sacred Scripture doctrine and ecclesial practice In contrast to modernity's often monochromatic accounts of human dignity in terms of freedom or rationality these essays argue that human dignity in Christian perspective is a many splendored thing reflecting humanity's participation in the divine drama of creation redemption and new creation Representing disciplines across the academic spectrum the essays in God and Human Dignity offer systematic and scriptural perspectives on human dignity that connect to a host of pressing contemporary issues Contributors C Clifton Black Russell Botman Don Browning J Kameron Carter Elaine Graham Robert W Jensen James L Mays M Douglas Meeks Esther Menn Peter Ochs John Polkinghorne Hans Reinders Gerhard Sauter Christoph Schwobel R Kendall Soulen Fraser Watts Michael Welker and Linda Woodhead D

AI and IA Ted Peters, 2019-09-01 Will advances in AI Artificial Intelligence or IA Intelligence Amplification lead to the extinction of the human race as we know it Or will superintelligence lead to utopia In this collection of thoughtful essays we must first get clear on the question is artificial intelligence actually intelligent or not Only with an affirmative answer could our techies proceed toward their goal the creation of a superintelligence that leads through transhumanism to a posthuman entity that would replace today's human Should today's moderately intelligent human species voluntarily go extinct to make way for a more intelligent species to succeed us in evolutionary history These scientific questions are addressed in this volume in light of their theological ethical and social implications
