Walking Nature Home Susan J. Tweit, 2023-01-06 Offers the reader a constellation of healing stories Powerful articulations of the human heart Overlaid with the stories of the natural world Denise Chavez author of A Taco Testimony Meditations on Family Food and Culture Without a map navigate by the stars Susan Tweit began learning this lesson as a young woman diagnosed with an autoimmune disease that was predicted to take her life in two to five years Offered no clear direction for getting well through conventional medicine Tweit turned to the natural world that was both her solace and her field of study as a plant ecologist Drawing intuitive connections between the natural processes and cycles she observed and the functions of her body Tweit not only learned healthier ways of living but also discovered a great truth love can heal In this beautifully written moving memoir she describes how love of the natural world of her husband and family and of life itself literally transformed and saved her own life In tracing the arc of her life from young womanhood to middle age Tweit tells stories about what silence and sagebrush bird bones and sheep dogs comets death and one crazy Englishman have to teach us about living She celebrates making healthy choices the inner voices she learned to hear on days alone in the wilderness the joys of growing and eating an organic kitchen garden and the surprising redemption in restoring a once blighted neighborhood creek Linking her life lessons to the stories she learned in childhood about the constellations Tweit shows how qualities such as courage compassion and inspiration draw us together and bind us into the community of the land and of all living things

Views of Nature and Dualism Thomas John Hastings,Knut-Willy Sæther,2024-01-19 In the face of the anthropogenic threats to the singular planetary habitat we share with other human beings and non human species humanities scholars feel a renewed sense of urgency 1 to acknowledge the ways our species has funded particular histories of environmental exploitation alienation and collapse 2 to unpack inherited assumptions that impact our views of nature and interspecies relations and 3 to suggest ways of thinking and acting that seek to repair the damage and promote mutual flourishing for all of earth inhabitants This volume brings together scholars in philosophy theology and religion who take up this urgent ethical task from a broad range of perspectives and locations Reports from Commissioners Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1870 Ethical Responses to Nature's Call James Magrini,2019-06-05 Arguing for a renewed view of objects and nature Ethical Responses to Nature's Call considers how it is possible to understand our ethical duties in the form of ethical intuitionism to nature and the planet by listening to and releasing ourselves over to the call or address of nature Blending several strands of philosophical thought such as Graham Harman's Object Oriented Ontology W D Ross's prima facie Alphonso Lingis's phenomenological ethics traceable to The Imperative and Michael Bonnett's ecophilosophy this book offers a unique rejoinder to the problems and issues that continue to haunt humans relationship to nature The origins of such problems and issues largely remain obscured from view due to the oppressive influence of the Cultural Framework which gives form and structure to the ways we understand discourse on and comport ourselves in relation to the natural world Through understanding this Cultural Framework we also come to know the responses we continue to offer in answer to nature's call and address and are then in a position to analyze and assess those responses in terms of their potential ethical weight Such a phenomenon is made possible through the descriptive and interpretive method of eco phenomenology This renewed vision of the human and nature provides direction for our interaction with and behavior toward nature in such a way that the ethical insight offers a diagnosis and provides a potentially compelling prescriptive for environmental ills
