The New Schelling Judith Norman, Alistair Welchman, 2004-04-01 Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph Von Schelling 1775-1854 was a colleague of Hegel, Holderlin, Fichte, Goethe, Schlegel and Schiller. Always a champion of Romanticism, Schelling advocated a philosophy which emphasized intuition over reason, which maintained aesthetics and the creative imagination to be of the highest value. At the same time, Schelling's concerns for the self and the rational make him a major precursor to existentialism and phenomenology. The New Schelling brings together a wide-ranging set of essays which elaborate the connections between Schelling and other thinkers such as Marx, Nietzsche, Freud, Sartre, Deleuze and Lacan, and argue for the unexpected modernity of Schelling's work. Contributors: Manfred Frank, Jürgen Habermas, Iain Hamilton Grant, Joseph Lawrence Odo Marquand, Judith Norman, Alberto Toscano, Michael Vater, Alistair Welchman, Slavoj Žižek. The Ethics of William Wollaston Clifford Griffeth Thompson, 1922

The Doctrinal Theology of the Evangelical Lutheran Church Heinrich F. E. Schmid, 2008-08-01 Economics Today Donald A. Hay, 2004 Economics has assumed a dominant role in shaping our modern world. In this book, Donald Hay develops a critique of economics today in the light of a Christian understanding of truth. The author's purpose is to equip the reader with arguments and principles with which to confront new economic problems as well as to analyse our present situation. Case studies take the arguments and apply them to particular areas of economic analysis. Amongst influential cases illuminated by Donald Hay's study are the free market of capitalism and the planned economy of socialism. He analyses macro-economic policy in the advanced industrial economies, the vexed question of relations between rich and poor nations and the consequences of economic growth. This book gives an exposition of economics as it is practised in the West. It also provides an insight into the underlying beliefs of economists when they pronounce on public policy issues which affect all of our lives. Donald Hay is a Fellow and Tutor in Economics at Jesus College, Oxford, and a Reader in the Church of England.

Map of Life F. J. Sheed, 1994-03-01 Considered one of Frank Sheed's best books, A Map of Life is also regarded as one of the best and most popular short summaries of the Catholic faith ever written. Focusing on the major truths of our existence and purpose in life, Sheed draws on God's revelation to show what the divine master plan is for us and how each part of the plan is related. Beginning with The Problem of Life's Purpose and The Problem of Life's Laws, he covers such important parts of the map of life as The Creation and Fall, The Incarnation, The Mystical Body, The Trinity, Law and Sin, The Supernatural Life and Heaven, Purgatory, Hell.

Jung, Irigaray, Individuation Frances Gray, 2007-11-23 How do philosophy and analytical psychology contribute to the refiguring of the feminine and women? Does Luce Irigaray's work represent the possibility of individuation for women, an escape from masculine projection and an affirming refiguring of women? And what would individuation for women entail? This work postulates a novel and unique relationship between Carl Jung and Luce Irigaray. Its central argument is that an ontologically different feminine identity situated in women's embodiment, women's genealogy and a women's divine is possible develops and refigures Jung's notion of individuation in terms of an Irigarayan woman-centred politics. Individuation is rethought as a politically charged issue centred around sex-gendered difference focussed on a critique of Jung's conception of the feminine. The book outlines Plato's conception of the feminine as disorder and argues that this conception is found in Jung's notion of the anima feminine. It then argues that Luce Irigaray's work challenges the notion of the feminine as disorder. Her mimetic adoption of this figuring of the feminine is a direct assault on what can be understood as a culturally dominant Western understanding. Luce Irigaray argues for a feminine divine which will model an ideal feminine just as the masculine divine models a masculine ideal. In making her claims, Luce Irigaray's book argues is expanding and elaborating Jung's idea of individuation. Jung Irigaray Individuation brings together philosophy, analytical psychology and psychoanalysis in suggesting that Luce Irigaray's conception of the feminine is a critical re-visioning of the open-ended possibilities for human being expressed in Jung's idea of individuation. This fresh insight will intrigue academics and analysts alike in its exploration of the different traditions from which Carl Jung and Luce Irigaray speak.

Worldview David K. Naugle, 2002-07-16. Conceiving of Christianity as a worldview has been one of the most significant events in the church in the last 150 years. In this new book, David Naugle provides the best discussion yet of the history and contemporary use of worldview as a totalizing approach to faith and life. This informative volume first locates the origin of worldview in the writings of Immanuel Kant and surveys the rapid proliferation of its use throughout the English-speaking world. Naugle then provides the first study ever undertaken of the insights of major Western philosophers on the subject of worldview and offers an original examination of the role this concept has played in the natural and social sciences. Finally, Naugle gives the concept biblical and theological grounding, exploring the unique ways that worldview has been used in the Evangelical, Orthodox and Catholic traditions. This clear presentation of the concept of worldview will be valuable to a wide range of readers.
