Nature Of A Sistuh:

Nature of a Sistuh Trevy Ann McDonald, T. Ford-Ahmed, 1999 The twentieth century has been an era of perpetual growth and development for Black women in American society Black women today are continuing to move from being predefined objects to becoming self defining subjects Books by cultural critics bell hooks Patricia Hill Collins and Paula Giddings are the order of discussion in academic settings across the U S At the same time Black women s fiction by authors including Alice Walker Toni Morrison and Terry McMillan are the focus of paper presentations articles and feature films which explore self definition Compiling some of the best scholarship and qualitative methodologies since Black Women in America in 1990 Nature of a Sistuh reconsiders some of the constructions made of Black women by others in higher education corporate offices organized religions television and other mass media Written by and about women of color this book examines and chronicles their struggle to become subjects who chart their own successes and futures This collection of seventeen essays is edited by McDonald and Ford Ahmed and is arranged into four parts providing stirring personal testimony theoretical frameworks and an array of methods for resisting the oppression of limited and one dimensional representations of themselves by others Introducing Womanist Theology Stephanie Y. Mitchem ,2014-07-30

Intersectional Approach Guidroz Kathleen, Berger Michele Tracy, 2010-05-07 Inter sectionality or the consideration of race class and gender is one of the prominent contemporary theoretical contributions made by scholars in the field of women s studies that now broadly extends across the humanities social sciences and natural sciences Taking stock of this transformative paradigm The Intersectional Approach guide Black Womanist Leadership Toni C. King, S. Alease Ferguson, 2011-06-01 Featuring the stories of fourteen Black women scholars Black Womanist Leadership Tracing the Motherline offers a culturally based model of Black women s leadership practices and examines the mother daughter transmission of these skills The personal narratives fit into a storytelling tradition that reveals the ways Black mothers and women of the community the Motherline teach girls the ways women lead The essays present a range of different practical and theoretical issues of leadership and development including mother nurture emulation of and divergence from core values internalized oppression self determination representation of the physical self guardianship governance of the body cooperative economics activism contentiousness with or differentiation from the mother and negotiation of leadership across public and private spheres Together they make a compelling argument for the necessity of continuing to teach the cultural and gender specific resistance to oppression that has been passed along the Motherline and to adapt this Motherline tradition to the lives and needs of women and girls in the 21st century Black Scholars in White Space Anthony B. Bradley, 2015-01-19 Never before in American history have we seen the number of African Americans teaching at Christian Colleges as we see today Black Scholars in White Space highlights the recent research and scholarly contributions to various academic disciplines by some of America s history making African American scholars working in Christian Higher Education

Many are the first African Americans or only African Americans teaching at their respective institutions Moreover never before have this many African American female scholars in Christian Higher Education had their research presented in a single cross disciplinary volume The scholars in this book spanning the humanities and social sciences examine the issues in public policy church state relations health care women s issues in higher education theological anthropology affirmative action and black history that need to be addressed in America as we move forward in the 21st century For these reasons and more Black Scholars in White Space offers timely and historic contributions to the discourse about making the black community a place where men and women thrive and make contributions to the common good Leading Lessons Jeanne Porter,2004-12-01 A sequel to Porter s first book Leading Ladies which explored how the Bible supports women in leadership this volume delves deeper providing insights into growing into leadership leading through adversity challenging the status quo and seeing leadership potential in unexpected people Nine scripturally based studies examine lessons of leadership from specific women of the Bible From Eve we discover how to unlock our leadership potential from Esther we learn about leadership formation from within Each chapter includes a summary page of empowerment principles as well as a series of questions for personal reflection or groups

TV Female Foursomes and Their Fans Wendy A. Burns-Ardolino,2015-12-07 The Golden Girls Designing Women Living Single Sex and the City Girlfriends Cashmere Mafia and Hot in Cleveland stand out as some of America s favorite television series Their lovable female foursome characters engage in witty banter as they challenge American stereotypes about sex love family work and community These sitcoms and comedy dramas live on as cable TV re runs and through online fan communities demonstrating mass appeal across generations of women and men Connecting fan commentary with analysis by television scholars this book explores the development of these series from the 1980s on with a focus on the role of fan cultures in reproducing these popular American shows

Leading Well Jeanne Porter King,2023-08-15 A Black Woman s Guide to Effective Barrier Breaking Leadership Black women in leadership positions often experience resistance both from external forces and from within If you are a leader in your profession community or church you may have been made to feel like an outsider someone who must prove herself again and again to be worthy of following Maybe you re tired resentful or beaten down by the sense that you ll just never be good enough for some people Take heart and take a seat at the table with Jeanne Porter King Drawing from the biblical account of the Samaritan woman at the well King shows how this outsider and outcast has been reduced to a stereotype by the same racist and sexist forces that attempt to reduce you to a stereotype and hinder your God given call to leadership She then shows how God uniquely positioned and equipped her to lead her people to the truth despite attempts to keep her silent and small If you long to lead from a strong spiritual core rather than a set of expectations you had no part in setting this book offers you the inspiration encouragement and practical tools to make leading well a reality in your life
