Copyright Office, 1976 A Natural Sense of Wonder Rick Van Noy, 2010-09-15 The technology boom of recent years has given kids numerous reasons to stay inside and play while parents increasing safety concerns make it tempting to keep children close to home But what is being lost as fewer kids spend their free time outdoors Deprived of meaningful contact with nature children often fail to develop a significant relationship with the natural world much less a sense of reverence and respect for the world outside their doors A Natural Sense of Wonder is one father's attempt to seek alternatives to the flickering waves of TV and the electrifying boing of video games and get kids outside and into nature In the spirit of Rachel Carson's The Sense of Wonder Rick Van Noy journeys out of his suburban home with his children and describes the pleasures of walking in a creek digging for salamanders and learning to appreciate vultures Through these and other walks to school the Van Noy's discover what lives nearby what nature has to teach and why this matters From the backyard to the hiking trail in a tide pool and a tree house in the wild and in town these narrative essays explore the terrain of childhood threatened by the lure of computers and television by fear and the loss of play habitat showing how kids thrive in their special places In chronicling one parent's determination and at times frustration to get his kids outside A Natural Sense of Wonder suggests ways kids both young and old can experience the wonder found only in the natural world Flesh Flies Emma

What You Won't Do For Love: A Conversation David Suzuki, Tara Cullis, Miriam Fernandes, Ravi Jain, 2022-06-07 What if we could love the planet as much as we love one another Warm wise and overflowing with generosity this is a love story so epic it embraces all of creation Yet another reminder of how blessed we are to be in the struggle with elders like David and Tara Naomi Klein and Avi Lewis What You Won't Do for Love is an inspiring conversation about love and the environment

When artist Miriam Fernandes approached the legendary eco pioneer David Suzuki to create a theatre piece about climate change she expected to write about David's perspective as a scientist. Instead she discovered the boundless vision and efforts of Tara Cullis, a literature scholar, climate organizer, and David's life partner. Miriam realized that David and Tara's decades-long love for each other and for family and friends has only clarified and strengthened their resolve to fight for the planet. What You Won't Do for Love transforms real-life conversations between David, Tara, Miriam, and her husband Sturla into a charmingly novel and poetic work. Over one idyllic day in British Columbia, Miriam and Sturla take in a lifetime of David and Tara's adventures, inspiration, and love, and in turn reflect on their own relationships to each other and the planet. Revealing David Suzuki and Tara Cullis in an affable conversational and often comedic light, What You Won't Do for Love asks if we can love our planet the same way we love one another. Flying Magazine, 1980-04 Children's Book Review Index, 1985

The Fox and the Flies Charles van Onselen, 2010-08-09 A chance encounter with Silver's career in South Africa set Charles van Onselen on a twenty-five year obsession, a journey to reconstruct the shadowy life and times of, in some ways to match wits with a devious master criminal. From Russian Poland in the 1860s where Silver was born Joseph Lis to London in the 1880s, turn of the century New York, Argentina, and Africa, van Onselen recaptures the dangerous demimonde of the Atlantic world. Silver's notoriety was found among the most confidential correspondence of a dozen countries, what those in law enforcement kept to themselves; however, was how their officers had attempted to use Silver as an informer to infiltrate syndicates built on vice, only to have him outwit them as he moved in the risky space between police and prostitutes. Such is the meticulousness of van Onselen's research that The Fox and the Flies is as rich in history as it is in the detail and drama of Silver's career, as layer after layer of his life and times are revealed. And it has an extraordinary payoff for van Onselen contends that Joseph Silver's darkest secret of all lay in London in the autumn of 1888 when, before he embarked on his legendary life of crime, he was indeed Jack the Ripper. Birds and all Nature, Vol. V, No. 5, May 1899 Various, 2021-03-16
