The Spirit of Praise Monique M. Ingalls,Amos Yong,2015-06-18 In The Spirit of Praise Monique Ingalls and Amos Yong bring together a multidisciplinary scholarly exploration of music and worship in global pentecostal charismatic Christianity at the beginning of the twenty first century The Spirit of Praise contends that gaining a full understanding of this influential religious movement requires close listening to its songs and careful attention to its patterns of worship The essays in this volume place ethnomusicological theological historical and sociological perspectives into dialogue By engaging with these disciplines and exploring themes of interconnection interface and identity within musical and ritual practices the essays illuminate larger social processes such as globalization sacralization and secularization as well as the role of religion in social and cultural change Aside from the editors the contributors are Peter Althouse Will Boone Mark Evans Ryan R Gladwin Birgitta J Johnson Jean Ngoya Kidula Miranda Klaver Andrew Mall Kimberly Jenkins Marshall Andrew M McCoy Martijn Oosterbaan Dave Perkins Wen Reagan Tanya Riches Michael Webb and Michael Wilkinson Alien Visions Margaret Ziolkowski,2005 There are many parallels and some revealing differences in the encounter between on the one hand the Americans and various Indian tribes and on the other the Russians and some of the peoples of the Caucasus and Siberia The enduring cultural consequences of these encounters provide a fruitful area of inquiry for the comparative examination of national images in literatures The major focus on this study is the perceptions and literary portrayal of the Chechens by the Russians and the Navajos by the Americans Both the Chechen in Russian literature and the Navajo in American literature are often constructs images derived from a potent combination of prejudices and received assumptions In each case a relatively sizable corpus of writings produced over a century or longer exemplifies or attempts to counter persistent and influential modes of cultural stereotyping The diachronic analysis of the portrayal of either the Chechens or the Navajos illuminates patterns of prejudice that have immense implications for both popular and high culture The juxtaposition of the discussion of the two groups as they have been treated in Russian and American literature can deepen our understanding of the commonalities present in attempted cultural domination or ethnic idealization Margaret Ziolkowski is Professor of Russian at Miami University Ohio Songs of Life Gill,2023-09-20 Scholarly monographs on the iconography of indigenous North American religions Living in the Borderland Jerome S.
