Simonelli,2008-03-07 The Navajo people of Canyon de Chelly must negotiate a delicate balance between the old and the new as they struggle to maintain their traditional ways of life in the midst of archaeologists U S Park Service employees and the increasing numbers of tourists who come to visit this hauntingly beautiful part of northeastern Arizona Anthropologist writer Jeanne Simonelli who worked at Canyon de Chelly as a seasonal park ranger interweaves stories of her personal experiences and friendships with canyon residents with discussions of native history and culture in the region Focusing on the members of one extended Navajo family Simonelli describes the small moments of their daily lives shearing goats baking bread attending a solemn all night health ceremony washing clothes at the local laundromat playing traditional games and contemporary sports talking about the history of the Dinthe Navajo people and pondering the changes they have witnessed in the canyon and the difficulties they confront Crossing Between Worlds is sumptuously illustrated with insightful black and white photographs that document the everyday activities of Navajo families in one of the most spectacular corners of the American Southwest The Arts of the North American Indian Philbrook Art Center, 1986 Fourteen authorities explore sociology anthropology art history of Native American creativity History of World Dress and Fashion, Second Edition Daniel Delis Hill, 2022-01-13 The History of World Dress and Fashion presents a comprehensive survey of dress from around the world including China Japan India Africa the Islamic Empire and the Ancient Americas This extensive study features descriptions and analysis of men s women s and children s clothing accessories and cultural styles from prehistory into the twenty first century Lavishly illustrated in color throughout it features more than 1600 images and is a valuable resource for fashion designers theater costumers textile researchers costume collectors and curators and anyone interest in clothing and style customs of the world Historicizing Canadian Anthropology Julia Harrison, Regna Darnell, 2011-11-01 Historicizing Canadian Anthropology is the first significant examination of the historical development of anthropological study in this country It addresses key issues in the evolution of the discipline the shaping influence of Aboriginal anthropological encounters the challenge of compiling a history for the Canadian context and the place of international and institutional relations The contributors to this collection reflect on the definition and scope of the discipline and explore the degree to which a uniquely Canadian tradition affects anthropological theory practice and reflexivity Historicizing Canadian Anthropology is a watershed that will revitalize critical reflexivity within the field With contributions from a broad cross section of anthropologists from senior scholars to doctoral students this book is essential reading for practising Canadian anthropologists their students and others who seek to understand the historical contours of the field Catalog of the Robert Goldwater Library, the Metropolitan Museum of Art Robert Goldwater Library, 1982 The Stratigraphy and Archaeology of Ventana Cave, Arizona Emil Walter Haury, 1975 Re edition with new Preface offering recent insights of the classic archaeological study which produced valuable findings on Hohokam perishable culture DEcolonial Heritage Aníbal Arregui, Gesa Mackenthun, Stephanie Wodianka, 2018 The volume attempts to triangulate three vibrant discourses of our times It combines postcolonial and decolonial readings of cultural conflicts with assessments of ecological dimensions of those conflicts as well as their significance within discourses on natural and cultural world heritage The examples from four continents range from the medieval Middle East already shaken by a convergence of ecological and social disaster to modern imaginary constructions of medieval Vikings the persistence of Indigenous knowledge in the Arctic literary poetics of patrimony and the heritage politics of Mediterranean urban architecture Authors ask which strategies societies in developing countries use to defend their cultural and ecological uniqueness and integrity while being penetrated by environmental hazards and hegemonizing Western forms of heritage culture or how western societies construct their own past in ways that are sometimes reminiscent of traditional imaginations of a pre modern past petrified eternally in an ideal moment of time Colonial and historical forms of heritagization of human and non human environments the essays show answer to pressing emotional needs for a sense of stability But the desire for nostalgia frequently commodified tends to collide with the similarly pressing need for political and economic survival in a rapidly changing world and in the face of accelerating extraction practices Without being able to solve this dilemma the volume makes an interdisciplinary contribution to taking intellectual stake of the asymmetrical politics and poetics of heritage and collective cultural memory

In Defense of Wyam Katrine Barber, 2018-06-05 When the US Army Corps of Engineers began planning construction of The Dalles Dam at Celilo Village in the mid twentieth century it was clear that this traditional fishing commerce and social site of immense importance to Native tribes would be changed forever Controversy surrounded the project with local Native communities anticipating the devastation of their way of life and white settler descended advocates of the dam envisioning a future of thriving infrastructure and industry In In Defense of Wyam having secured access to hundreds of previously unknown and unexamined letters Katrine Barber revisits the subject of Death of Celilo Falls her first book She presents a remarkable alliance across the opposed Native and settler descended groups chronicling how the lives of two women leaders converged in a shared struggle to protect the Indian homes of Celilo Village Flora Thompson member of the Warm Springs Tribe and wife of the Wyam chief and Martha McKeown daughter of an affluent white farming family became lifelong allies as they worked together to protect Oregon's oldest continuously inhabited site As a Native woman Flora wielded significant power within her community yet outside of it was dismissed for her race and her gender Martha although privileged due to her settler origins turned to women's clubs to expand her political authority beyond the conventional domestic sphere Flora's and Martha's coordinated efforts offer readers meaningful insight into a time and place where the rhetoric of Native sovereignty the aims of environmental movements in the American West and women's political strategies intersected A Helen Marie Ryan Wyman Book

Beauty in Context Wilfried van Damme, 2021-11-01 This is the first study to survey the field of the anthropology of aesthetics which during the last few decades has emerged on the cross roads between anthropology and non Western art scholarship While critically examining the available literature thereby addressing such basic issues as the existence of aesthetic universals the author elaborates on a central thesis which concerns the relationship between aesthetic preference and sociocultural ideals Drawing on empirical data from several African cultures he demonstrates that varying notions of beauty are inspired by varying sociocultural ideals thus shedding light on the phenomenon of cultural relativism in aesthetic preference Emphasizing unity within diversity the systematic anthropological approach offered in this volume invites the reader to reconsider aesthetic preference from an empirical cross cultural and contextual perspective The New York Times Practical Guide to Practically Everything, Second Edition Amy D. Bernstein, Peter W. Bernstein, 2009-11-24 All the wisdom of The New York Times experts in every field is packed into one comprehensive volume that has been completely revised and updated Illustrations throughout Catalogue Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology.
