Naval Power And Trade In The Mediterranean AD 500-1100 Princeton Studies In History:

Naval Power and Trade in the Mediterranean Archibald Ross Lewis, 1951 Naval Power and Trade in the Mediterranean AD 500-1100 Archibald Ross Lewis, 1951 Medieval Trade in the Mediterranean World, 2001-09-18

This collection of merchant documents is essential reading for any student of economic developments in the Middle Ages who wishes to go beyond the level of textbook summaries. Different aspects of economic life in the Mediterranean world are delineated in the light of a rich variety of articles and other contemporary writings drawn from Muslim and Christian sources. From commercial contracts, promissory notes and judicial acts to working manuals of practical geography and philology, this volume of documents provides an unparalleled portrait of the world of medieval commerce. Trade and Institutions in the Medieval Mediterranean Jessica Goldberg, 2012-08-23

This book reconstructs the business world of the eleventh century Geniza merchants and in doing so rewrites medieval Islamic and Mediterranean economic history. War at Sea in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance John B. Hattendorf, Richard W. Unger, 2003

Wide ranging in place and time yet tightly focused on particular concerns, these new and original specialist articles show how observations on the early history of warfare based on the relatively stable conditions of the late seventeenth century ignore the realities of war at sea in the middle ages and renaissance. In these studies, naval historians firmly grounded in the best current understanding of the period take account of developments in ships, guns and the language of public policy on war at sea and in so doing give a stimulating introduction to five hundred years of maritime violence in Europe. BOOK JACKET The Mediterranean in History David Abulafia, 2003

What is the Mediterranean? Physical setting, Trading empires, Sea routes, Mare Nostrum, Christian Mediterranean, Resurgent Islam, Battleground of the European powers, Globalized Mediterranean. Medieval Naval Warfare, 1000-1500 Susan Rose, 2002

How were medieval navies organised and how did powerful rulers use them? This fascinating account brings vividly to life the dangers and difficulties of medieval seafaring. Early Medieval Europe 300-1050 David Rollason, 2018-03-29

Early Medieval Europe 300-1050: A Guide for Studying and Teaching empowers students by providing them with the conceptual and methodological tools to investigate the period. Throughout the book, major research questions and historiographical debates are identified and guidance is given on how to engage with and evaluate key documentary sources as well as artistic and archaeological evidence. The book's aim is to engender confidence in creative and independent historical thought. This second edition has been fully revised and expanded and now includes coverage of both Islamic and Byzantine history, surveying and critically examining the often radically different scholarly interpretations relating to them. Also new to this edition is an extensively updated and closely integrated companion website which has been carefully designed to provide practical guidance to teachers and students, offering a wealth of reference materials and aids to mastering the period and lighting the way for further exploration of written and non-written sources. Accessibly written and containing over 70 carefully selected maps and images, Early Medieval Europe 300-1050 is an essential resource for students studying this period for the first time as well as an invaluable aid to university teachers devising and delivering courses and modules on the period Lingua Franca in the Mediterranean J. E.

Wansborough, 2013-12-16 The subject of this study is the language of commerce and diplomacy during the period from 1500 BCE to 1500 CE Based on texts of chancery provenance its aim is the identification of a linguistic sub system that effected and informed the major channel of international relations The standard procedures of contact and exchange generated a format that facilitated inter lingual transfer of concepts and terms Lingua Franca refers to the several natural languages that served as vehicle in the transfer but also to the format itself Nomads and Crusaders, A.D. 1000-1368 Archibald Ross Lewis, 1988 A fine arresting book with a clear and novel thesis and a firm grasp of geography Good stuff in short strongly recommended William H McNeill
