The Poetics of Difference Mecca Jamilah Sullivan, 2021-10-19 Winner of the Modern Language Association MLA s William Sanders Scarborough Prize From Audre Lorde Ntozake Shange and Bessie Head to Zanele Muholi Suzan Lori Parks and Missy Elliott Black women writers and artists across the African Diaspora have developed nuanced and complex creative forms Mecca Jamilah Sullivan ventures into the unexplored spaces of black women's queer creative theorizing to learn its languages and read the textures of its forms Moving beyond fixed notions Sullivan points to a space of queer imagination where black women invent new languages spaces and genres to speak the many names of difference Black women's literary cultures have long theorized the complexities surrounding nation and class the indeterminacy of gender and race and the multiple meanings of sexuality Yet their ideas and work remain obscure in the face of indifference from Western scholarship Innovative and timely The Poetics of Difference illuminates understudied queer contours of black women's writing

Oja, 2021-08-16 Sounding Together Collaborative Perspectives on U S Music in the Twenty 21st Century is a multi authored collaboratively conceived book of essays that tackles key challenges facing scholars studying music of the United States in the early twenty first century This book encourages scholars in music circles and beyond to explore the intersections between social responsibility community engagement and academic practices through the simple act of working together The book's essays written by a diverse and cross generational group of scholars performers and practitioners demonstrate how collaboration can harness complementary skills and nourish comparative boundary crossing through interdisciplinary research The chapters of the volume address issues of race nationalism mobility cultural domination and identity as well as the crisis of the Trump era and the political power of music Each contribution to the volume is written collaboratively by two scholars bringing together contributors who represent a mix of career stages and positions Through the practice of and reflection on collaboration Sounding Together breaks out of long established paradigms of solitude in humanities scholarship and works toward social justice in the study of music

Experiencing Design Jeanne Liedtka, Karen Hold, Jessica Eldridge, 2021-07-20 In daylong hackathons design thinking seems deceptively easy On the surface it involves a set of seemingly simple activities such as gathering data identifying insights generating ideas prototyping and experimentation But practiced at a superficial level even great design tools don't go deep enough to create the shifts in mindset and skillset that are required to achieve transformational impact Going deep with design requires more than changing the activities of innovators it involves creating the conditions that shape who they become Individuals become design thinkers by experiencing design Drawing on decades of researching design thinking and teaching it to people not trained in design Jeanne Liedtka Karen Hold and Jessica Eldridge offer a guide for how to create these deep experiences at each stage of the design thinking journey whether for an individual a team or an organization For each experience phase they specify the mindset shifts and competencies that need to be achieved describe how different personality types experience different kinds of journeys and show how to fully leverage the diversity of teams Experiencing Design explores both the science and practicalities of design and includes two assessment instruments for individual and organizational development Ultimately innovators need to be someone new to create something new This book shows you how to use design thinking to make this happen

Cross-Cultural Harlem

Sandhya Shukla,2024-06-04 Over the course of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Harlem has been the capital of both Black America and a global African diaspora an early home for Italian and Jewish immigrant communities an important Puerto Rican neighborhood and a representative site of gentrification How do we understand the power of a place with so many claims and identifications Drawing on fiction sociology political speech autobiography and performance Sandhya Shukla develops a living theory of Harlem in which peoples of different backgrounds collide interact and borrow from each other even while Blackness remains crucial Cross Cultural Harlem reveals a dynamic of exchange that provokes a rethinking of spaces such as Black Harlem El Barrio and Italian Harlem Cross cultural encounters among African Americans West Indians Puerto Ricans Jews and Italians provide a story of multiplicity that challenges the framework of territorial enclaves Shukla illuminates the historical processes that have shaped the diversity of Harlem examining the many dimensions of its Blackness Southern African Caribbean Puerto Rican and more as well as how white ethnicities have been constructed Considering literary and historical examples such as Langston Hughes s short story Spanish Blood the career of the Italian American left wing Harlem congressman Vito Marcantonio and the autobiography of Puerto Rican Cuban writer Piri Thomas Shukla argues that cosmopolitanism and racial belonging need not be seen as contradictory Cross Cultural Harlem offers a vision of sustained dialogue to respond to the challenges of urban transformations and to affirm the future of Harlem as actual place and global symbol

Everyday Multiculturalism in/across Asia Jessica Walton, Anita Harris, Koichi Iwabuchi,2021-05-13 What does it mean to bring Asia into conversation with current literature on everyday multiculturalism This book focuses on the empirical theoretical and methodological considerations of using an everyday multiculturalism approach to explore the ordinary ways people live together in difference in the Asian region while also drawing attention to increasing trans Asian mobilities The chapters in this collection encompass inter disciplinary research undertaken in Australia Hong Kong Malaysia Singapore and South Korea that explores some core aspects of everyday multiculturalism as it plays out in and across Asia These include an increase in intraregional movements and especially labour mobility which demands regard for the experiences of migrants from Burma China Nepal The Philippines and India negotiations of cultural diversity in nations where a multi ethnic citizenry is formally recognised through predominantly pluralist models and or where national belonging is highly racialized and intercultural contestation against in some cases the backdrop of a newly emergent multicultural policy environment The book challenges and reinvigorates discussions around the relative transferability of an everyday multiculturalism framework to Asia including concepts such as super diversity conviviality and everyday racism and the importance of close attention to how people navigate differences and commonalities in local and trans local contexts This book will be of interest to academics and researchers studying migration multiculturalism ethnic and racial studies and to advanced students of Sociology Political Science and Public Policy It was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Infrastructure, Morality, Food and Clothing, and New Developments in Latin America Donald C. Wood, 2021-12-13 Volume 41 of Research in Economic Anthropology explores a wide range of topics of interest to economic anthropology including the roles of money in social ties between people and moral concerns regarding these and other roles and uses of money in society

Moving Abroad Kerstin Tomiak, Ruairidh J Brown, 2024-07-16 This book investigates a different way to gain academic job experience and start an academic career With universities training more PhD candidates than there are academic jobs the academic job market particularly in the social sciences and humanities is somewhat broken A possibility for young PhD graduates and early career researchers to gain job experience in an ever more competitive job market is leaving their home countries and taking a job far from home Academics move from the countries of the so named global South to Europe and the USA from the USA to Europe and vice versa and increasingly also from the so called western World to Asia Africa and the Middle East Grounded in the personal experience of the editors and the chapter contributors the book argues that there are more ways into academia and than the traditional route Gathering the experiences of academics who have been moving to work in foreign places among them Pakistan Poland China the United Kingdom Afghanistan Portugal and New Zealand the book offers diverse and rich perspectives on academic mobility What awaits the moving academic abroad how to prepare for this move and what are the challenges and rewards in the foreign classrooms are questions the chapter contributors and editors reflect upon ultimately wishing to help others decide whether to take this jump into the unknown
