Navy Board Ship Models, 1650-1750 John Franklin, 1989 Gives a description of the warships by giving the use and background of model building and by detailing and scrutinizing specific warships Historic Ship Models Arnold Kriegstein, Henry Kriegstein, 2022-10-04 In terms of quality historical significance and sheer numbers the Kriegstein family's ship model collection in the United States is the finest in private hands anywhere in the world Principally made up of official 17th and 18th century models in the Admiralty or Navy Board style the collection is unrivalled by any museum outside the British national collection at Greenwich As the models are not on public display this book fills the need for a detailed catalogue and visual reference with superb colour photos of all the models both overall portraits and multiple close ups Apart from lengthy descriptions of these magnificent artefacts space is devoted to how they were identified and the valuable research done by Arnold and Henry Kriegstein the identical twins whose shared passion brought this all together Beyond the technicalities of the ships the story has a human dimension in the brothers' adventures in pursuit of every model and their dogged determination to secure them against official obstruction and dubious antiques trade practices This is an entirely new and revised edition of Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Ship Models first published in 2007 now expanded to include the additions to the collection since that date Pepys's Navy J. D. Davies, 2008-11-20 This new reference book describes every aspect of the English navy in the second half of the seventeenth century from the time when the Fleet Royal was taken into Parliamentary control after the defeat of Charles I until the accession of William and Mary in 1689 when the long period of war with the Dutch came to an end This is a crucial era which witnessed the creation of a permanent naval service in essence the birth of the Royal Navy Every aspect of the navy is covered naval administration ship types and shipbuilding naval recruitment and crews seamanship and gunnery shipboard life dockyards and bases the foreign navies of the period and the three major wars which were fought against the Dutch in the Channel and the North Sea Samuel Pepys whose thirty years of service did so much to replace the ad hoc processes of the past with systems for construction and administration is one of the most significant players and the navy which was by 1690 ready for the 100 years of global struggle with the French owed much to his tireless work This book is destined to become a major work for historians naval enthusiasts and indeed anyone with an interest in this colourful era of the seventeenth century The Mariner's Mirror Leonard George Carr Laughton, Roger Charles Anderson, William Gordon Perrin, 1927 Nautical Research Journal, 1996

deals with some of the most dramatic events in English history Pepys witnessed the London Fire the Great Plague the Restoration of Charles II and the Dutch Wars He was a patron of the arts having himself composed many delightful songs and participated in the artistic life of London His flair for gossip and detail reveals a portrait of the times that rivals the most swashbuckling and romantic historical novels In none of the earlier versions was there a reliable full text with commentary and notation with any claim to completeness This edition first published in 1970 is the first in which the entire diary is printed with systematic comment This is the only complete edition available it is as close to Pepys s original as possible
