Developing Learning Skills Through Children's Literature Mildred Laughlin, Letty S. Watt, 1986 This book suggests ideas for sharing literature that may be utilized in developing a scope and sequence of literature experiences for children in grades K 5 For primary grades K 2 the activities are primarily arranged through sharing the works of a particular author or illustrator Through this deliberate exploration the child begins to know that person as a friend S he is excited about new books by that same author or illustrator and discusses books on a level not often achieved if authors are approached only haphazardly Those included represent a variety of classic and current authors and illustrators too good to miss who have made a particular contribution to literature for young people
