Old Buildings Of The Cape:

The Old Buildings of the Cape Hans Fransen, Mary Alexander Cook, 1980 A Guide to the Old Buildings of the Cape Mary Alexander Cook, 2004 The book features over 5000 buildings sumptuously illustrated with over 700 photographs by Arthur Elliot Andre Pretorius and the author himself as well as some 200 house site and town plans Lavishly illustrated and generously laid out this guide is both the ultimate reference work in its field and a sumptuous coffee table book for admirers of the remarkable architecture of this region The Historical Overberg Chris Schoeman, 2017-05-18 Situated between the Hottentots Holland Mountains and the Breede River the Overberg is a fertile agricultural region and a popular holiday destination for tourists and nature lovers who delight in the beauty of its mountainous landscape abundant plant species and long sandy beaches This area also has a rich history going back thousands of years when the indigenous Khoi people originally thrived there and when the first European settlers left their own indelible imprint on the culture architecture and character of the region The Overberg has been a home or point of interest for explorers innovators artists and writers for figures as varied as Bartolomeu Dias Sir David de Villiers Graaff Uys Krige and Audrey Blignault Some of South Africa's oldest towns houses and missionary stations can be found here and its treacherous coastline has been the cause of hundreds of shipwrecks for centuries The Historical Overberg provides a detailed account of this past by pointing out the many places buildings events and personalities that have made the Overberg the diverse and unique place that it is today Enlivened by historical and current photographs and informative panels this book is a collector's item Building Apartheid Nicholas Coetzer, 2016-04-22 Through a specific architectural lens this book exposes the role the British Empire played in the development of apartheid Through reference to previously unexamined archival material the book uncovers a myriad of mechanisms through which Empire laid the foundations onto which the edifice of apartheid was built It unearths the significant role British architects and British architectural ideas played in facilitating white dominance and racial segregation in pre apartheid Cape Town To achieve this the book follows the progenitor of the Garden City Movement Ebenezer Howard in its tripartite structure of Country Town Suburb acknowledging the Garden City Movement's dominance at the Cape at the time This tripartite structure also provides a significant match to postcolonial schemas of Self Other Same which underpin the three parts to the book Much is owed to Edward Said's discursive analytical approach in Orientalism and the work of Homi Bhabha in the definition and interpretation of archival material This material ranges across written and visual representations in journals and newspapers through exhibitions and events to legislative acts as well as the physicality of the various architectural objects studied The book concludes by drawing attention to the ideological potency of architecture which tends to be veiled more so through its ubiquitous presence and in doing so it presents not only a story peculiar to Imperial Cape Town but one inherent to architecture more broadly The concluding chapter also provides a timely mirror for the machinations currently at play in establishing a post apartheid architecture and urbanity in the new South
