Crossing Paths...Cultural Surprises in a Global World. Jean-Yves Rosaye, 2008-02-01 If there are lots of models in business only a few are useful as they must stretch to core human values With cultural differences quality in society for example becomes prodigiously versatile as it embraces many shades of meaning As an image if two railroads seem to join on the horizon this is only but an illusion However this is possible to shift from one culture to the other From many path crossings surprises arise and this is about a journey in Europe America Asia and above all Japan to unravel truths of a global world

The Culture and Development Manifesto Robert Klitgaard,2021 With fascinating examples from around the world this inspiring manifesto shows how to account for cultural diversity in reshaping economic and political development Around the world the realities of underdevelopment are harsh and galling and current strategies are not working well enough or quickly enough One reason Robert Klitgaard argues in this pathbreaking book is that the strategies don t take cultural diversity into account Gently but firmly he shows how and why anthropology and cultural studies have not been effectively applied But it need not be so The Culture and Development Manifesto shows how to mobilize knowledge from and for the disadvantaged the indigenous and the voiceless Looking beyond interactions between cultural contexts and particular projects Klitgaard seeks new ways to think about goals new kinds of alternatives new and perhaps hybrid ways to implement or resist and as a result new kinds of politics In short this remarkable book fundamentally re envisions what development policy can be and inclusive experience for both in person and remote participants The Theosophical Path Katherine Augusta Westcott Tingley, Gottfried Purucker, 1921 The Young East, 1925 Modernity's Mist Emily Rohrbach, 2015-12-01

Modernity's Mist explores an understudied aspect of Romanticism its future oriented poetics Whereas Romanticism is well known for its relation to the past Emily Rohrbach situates Romantic epistemological uncertainties in relation to historiographical debates that opened up a radically unpredictable and fast approaching future As the rise of periodization made the project of defining the spirit of the age increasingly urgent the changing sense of futurity rendered the historical dimensions of the present deeply elusive While historicist critics often are interested in what Romantic writers and their readers would have known Rohrbach draws attention to moments when these writers felt they could not know the historical dimensions of their own age Illuminating the poetic strategies Keats Austen Byron and Hazlitt used to convey that sense of mystery Rohrbach describes a poetic grammar of future anteriority of uncertainty concerning what will have been Romantic writers she shows do not simply reflect the history of their time their works make imaginable a new way of thinking the historical present when faced with the temporalities of modernity

Intentional Transformative Experiences Sarah Perez, Bastiaan van Rijn, Jens Schlieter, 2024-09-23 This book offers new theoretical insights into religious esoteric and philosophical practices and narratives that deal with intentional transformative experiences Exceptional life changing experiences are often believed to be beyond the individual's control they are thought to simply happen However many individuals actively and self reflectively search for transformative experiences Intentional Transformative Experiences provides analyses of such intentionally sought experiences in different spiritual religious and esoteric milieus Case studies range from South and Central Asian traditions to Western esoteric practices compare autobiographical narratives of self cultivation and explore attempts to systematize intentional transformative experiences Next to applying established theoretical frameworks such as the cognitive science of religion and philosophy this volume also includes considerations on subsets of transformative experiences such as the dichotomy of intentionality and unintentionality risk and failure as well as the transformation of others instead of one's own self The result is an important contribution for researchers who deal with narratives or practices that include transformative experiences
