Pathways Fostering Spiritual Growth Among Atrisk Youth:

Passing on the Faith Merton P. Strommen, Dick Harde, 2008 From the Introduction This book is about passing on the faith from generation to generation throughout the milestones of a person's life Faith is created and nurtured by the Holy Spirit through the Gospels The vision underlying the RADICAL model was developed in light of the theological principle that faith is formed by the Holy Spirit through personal trusted relationships often but not always in our own homes A youth and family ministry for the 21st century connects all the generations in the total ministry of the congregation and through the cross of Christ recognizes the work of the Holy Spirit shaping faith in all the circles of relationships This revised edition expands on the authors original model in an all new chapter on the circle of creation This edition has also been updated throughout in light of new ideas and research that have emerged during the past decade Pathways Thomas J. Everson, 1993-01-01 Reaching troubled or at risk youth on a spiritual level is gaining ground as an effective approach in youth care This wealth of material gathered in a three ring binder was developed for workshops delivered to dozens of churches and youth ministry programs in recent years Topics covered include at risk youth who they are the question of suffering spiritual and more development methodologies and techniques for promoting spiritual growth Lost Boys James Garbarino, 2000-08-15 Remarkable What sets Lost Boys apart from the ordinary lament is the author's palpable sense of care and compassion The Washington Post Book World Our national consciousness has been altered by haunting images of mass slaughters in American high schools carried out by troubled young boys with guns It's now clear that no matter where we live or how hard we try as parents our children are likely to be going to school with boys who are capable of getting guns and pulling triggers What has caused teen violence to spread from the urban war zones of large cities right into the country's heartland And what can we do to stop this terrifying trend James Garbarino Ph D Cornell University professor and nationally noted psychologist insists that there are things that we both as individuals and as a society can do In a richly anecdotal style he outlines warning signs that parents and teachers can recognize and suggests steps that can be taken to turn angry and unhappy boys away from violent action Full of insight vivid individual portraits practical advice and considered hope this is one of the most important and original books ever written about boys Practicing Passion Kenda Creasy Dean, 2004-04-26 Youth and the Quest for a Passionate Church Creating A Safe harbor , Building Skills in High-risk Families Jane L. Peterson, 1995 This six phase approach guides workers and families through the process of building family strengths and developing skills By focusing on family skill acquisition and goal attainment this program helps both the worker and the family plot the course toward more effective and satisfying family life Working with Aggressive Youth in Open Settings Father Flanagan's Boys' Home, 1989 This manual is designed to provide basic information to child care staff who work with aggressive youth in open settings such as schools clinics group homes foster homes etc Child care staff who work with youth in closed settings eg detention or locked psychiatric facilities also will find the principles and procedures offered in this training useful in reducing the frequency and intensity of aggressive behaviour in their programs
