The New Creation Robert P. Vande Kappelle,2018-08-17 Christianity is essentially a historical religion It cannot be understood merely through a set of dogmas a moral code or a view of the universe Through the stories of Israel Jesus and the developing church Christianity acknowledges the revelation of God in action Augustine the great medieval theologian envisioned human society as composed of two cities distinguished by two loves the love of God and the love of Self He viewed these cities as universal in scope and operative throughout human history This perspective raises questions about the church s nature its role in society and whether the church has lived up to its nature and destiny as God s new creation The New Creation defines the church as the people of God related but not equivalent to Israel or the institutional church This text provides a clear and concise survey of the church as God's instrument for the providential care of the earth and its human family The story of the church begins with Abraham in the second millennium BCE long before Jesus or the birth of Christianity and it proceeds through three epochs 1 Formation c 1850 4 BCE 2 Transformation 4 BCE 1500 CE and 3 Reformation 1500 CE present Ideal for individual or group study The New Creation divides church history into nine units each discussed as a phase in the church's organic growth and development In addition to the narrative each chapter includes three features for that epoch of church history 1 a significant event 2 a turning point or decisive moment and 3 study questions
