Parliamentary debates, legislative council and legislative assembly Australia Western parl,1903 Parliamentary Debates, Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly ,1902 Capital and Labour on the Kimberley Diamond Fields, 1871-1890 Robert Vicat Turrell,1987-09-17 Based on new documentary sources this history of diamond mining in Kimberley is a major study of South Africa s mineral revolution and the formation of De Beers Consolidated Mines one of the most successful African mining companies Taste of War Lizzie Collingham,2012-03-29 A New York Times Notable Book of 2012 Food and in particular the lack of it was central to the experience of World War II In this richly detailed and engaging history Lizzie Collingham establishes how control of food and its production is crucial to total war How were the imperial ambitions of Germany and Japan ambitions which sowed the seeds of war informed by a desire for self sufficiency in food production How was the outcome of the war affected by the decisions that the Allies and the Axis took over how to feed their troops And how did the distinctive ideologies of the different combatant countries determine their attitudes towards those they had to feed Tracing the interaction between food and strategy on both the military and home fronts this gripping original account demonstrates how the issue of access to food was a driving force within Nazi policy and contributed to the decision to murder hundreds of thousands of useless eaters in Europe Focusing on both the winners and losers in the battle for food The Taste of War brings to light the striking fact that war related hunger and famine was not only caused by Nazi Germany and Imperial Japan but was also the result of Allied mismanagement and neglect particularly in India Africa and China American dominance both during and after the war was not only a result of the United States immense industrial production but also of its abundance of food This book traces the establishment of a global pattern of food production and distribution and shows how the war subsequently promoted the pervasive influence of American food habits and tastes in the post war world A work of great scope The Taste of War connects the broad sweep of history to its intimate impact upon the lives of individuals

Patrol to the Kimberleys Frederick A. Lane,1955 'Every Mother's Son is Guilty' Chris Owen,2016 This is a marvellous contribution by Chris Owen to the understanding of the role the Western Australian police force played in the colonial expansion into the Kimberley district of Western Australia Senator Patrick Dodson Yawuru Elder Chris Owen provides a compelling account of policing in the Kimberley district from 1882 when police were established in the district until 1905 when Dr Walter Roth's controversial Royal Commission into the treatment of Aboriginal people was released Owen's achievement is to take elements of all the pre-existing historiography and test them against a rigorous archival investigation In doing so a fuller understanding of the complex social economic and political changes occurring in Western Australia during the period are exposed The policing of Aboriginal people changed from one of protection under law to one of punishment and control The subsequent violence of colonial settlement and the associated
