Patterns of Modernity Beyond the West: The West Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt, 1987 Liberal World Order and Its Critics Adrian Pabst, 2018-12-07 Liberals blame the retreat of the liberal world order on populists at home and authoritarian leaders abroad Only liberalism so they claim can defend the rules based international system against demagoguery corruption and nationalism This provocative book contends that the liberal world order is illiberal and undemocratic intolerant about the cultural values of ordinary people in the West and elsewhere while concentrating power in the hands of unaccountable Western elites and Western dominated institutions Under the influence of contemporary liberalism the international system is fuelling economic injustice social fragmentation and a worldwide culture war between globalists and nativists Liberals far from defending rules have broken international law and imposed their version of market fundamentalism and democracy promotion by military means Liberal civilisation has fuelled resentment across the world by imposing a narrow worldview that pits cultures against one another To avoid a descent into a violent culture clash this book proposes radical ideas for international order that take the form of cultural commonwealths social bonds and crossborder cultural ties on which international trust and cooperation depends The book's defence of an older order against both liberals and nationalists will speak to all readers trying to understand our age of anger This book will be of key interest to scholars students and readers of liberalism political theory and democracy and more broadly to comparative politics and international relations

Political Modernization in the Gulf Shahid Jamal Ansari, 1998 The entire Gulf is passing through a transitional phase The member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC are witnessing change in varying degrees The change has become too evident from the 1960s It was oil more than any other factor which was responsible for a rapid transition Control over oil production and marketing have led to the strengthening of governmental role as owner and distributor of oil income The regions tribal society is being transformed into a modern society Political modernization is a recent phenomenon if the nature and extent of structural and informal transformations are taken into account Three broadly defined phases of political change can be discerned in the Arabian Peninsula the traditional the neo traditional and the modernizing or post traditional The modernizing phase was initiated by radical policies of socio economic development including the necessary restructuring of replacement of regimes and a redefinition or expansion of the scope and role of the state However the pace and direction of change is not clear enough The coming few decades are crucial in this regard Sociological Knowledge and Collective Identity Stavits Sinai, 2019-03-28 Sociology emerging in the 19th century as the study of national societies is the intellectual product of its time power relations and social imaginaries As a discursive practice that was enmeshed in the meta narratives of modernity the discipline of sociology bears the inherent capacity to shape socially shared concepts and construct collective identities This book examines the relationships between sociology and projects of national identity construction and presents a critique of Shmuel N Eisenstadt the prominent Israeli sociologist known as the father of Israeli sociology The book focuses on Eisenstadt s sociology of Israel as a case of knowledge construction within an ideological system and examines the relationships between his various sociological analyses of Israeli society and the Zionist imaginary namely the deeply entrenched political myths and historiographical narratives that constitute Israel s hegemonic national identity By emphasizing the interrelation between textuality identity and loaded language the volume seeks to demythologize Eisenstadt s sociology of Israel Three major concepts in Eisenstadt s scholarship are specifically thematized integration civilization and modernities In each of these foci the author shows how Eisenstadt s sociological conjectures reproduce dominant Zionist historiographical representations of the past rationalize prevalent social hierarchies reify the boundaries of a national collective Self and render legitimacy to Israel s governing ethnocratic tendencies underlying the premises of the Zionist settler colonial project Sociological Knowledge and Collective Identity will appeal to those interested in the interconnectedness of sociology and political memory as well as in a radical postcolonial reconstruction of sociology

Communicating in the Third Space Karin Ikas,Gerhard Wagner,2008-10-05 Communicating in the Third Space aims to clarify Homi K Bhabha s theory of the third space of enunciation by reconstructing its philosophical sociological geographical and political meaning with attention to the special advantages and ambiguities that arise as it is applied in practical as well as theoretical contexts The idea of third space conceives the encounter of two distinct and unequal social groups as taking place in a special third space of enunciation where culture is disseminated and displaced from the interacting groups making way for the invention of a hybrid identity whereby these two groups conceive themselves to partake in a common identity relating to shared space and common dialogue The essays collected in Communicating in the Third Space including a preface by Bhabha himself brilliantly introduce readers to this exciting topic in Cultural and Post Colonial theory and offers insightful elaboration and critique of the meaning and relevance of life in the third space With a preface by Homi K Bhabha

Patterns of Thought in Africa and the West Robin Horton, 1997-07-13 Robin Horton's critical and creative writings on African religious thought have influenced anthropologists philosophers and all those interested in the comparative study of religion and thought This selection of some of his classic papers with a new introduction and postscript by the author traces Horton's theoretical ideas over thirty years. In attempting to understand African religious thought, he also tackles broader issues in the history and sociology of thought such as secularisation and modernisation. Part I is a critical assessment of two established interpretive approaches: the Symbolist and the Theological. Part II proposes an alternative Intellectualist approach that emphasises the structural and processual similarities between religious and scientific thinking. The postscript appraises the Intellectualist approach in the light of theorising about religion and world views. Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009. The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio-political consequences of the migrants' insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe. While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia, little critical consideration has been given to African migrants' modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators' transcultural realities. Transcultural Modernities: Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro-African affiliations in their narratives. The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism, cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro-African literatures, the visual arts and cinema, as well as offering ethnographic case studies. The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists, writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and/or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro-African life worlds. A Fascist Century Roger Griffin, 2008-08-20. Essays by Roger Griffin on the evolution of fascism since 1919, covering a range of key case studies and historiographical themes. The Future That Failed Johann P. Arnason, 2005-08-02. This outstanding book analyses the Soviet model as a distinctive pattern of modernity, examining its historical background and institutional structure and challenging many of the assumptions and judgements made about the Soviet road.
