

Paul Tillich

"Religion is the encounter with the Holy, which expresses our ultimate concern.

It can only be expressed by symbols and symbolic actions and cannot be reduced to ordinary words.

If taken literally, symbols become absurd."

Latin American Perspectives on Science and Religion Ignacio Silva, 2015-10-06 Latin America plays an increasingly important role in the development of modern Christianity yet it has been underrepresented in current scholarship on religion and science In this first book on the subject contributors explore the different ways that religion and science relate to each other

The Cambridge Companion to Paul Tillich Russell Re Manning, 2009-02-12 The complex philosophical theology of Paul Tillich 1886 1965 increasingly studied today was influenced by thinkers as diverse as the Romantics and Existentialists Hegel and Heidegger A Lutheran pastor who served as a military chaplain in World War I he was dismissed from his university post at Frankfurt when the Nazis came to power in 1933 and emigrated to the United States where he continued his distinguished career This authoritative Companion provides accessible accounts of the major themes of Tillich's diverse theological writings and draws upon the very best of contemporary Tillich scholarship Each chapter introduces and evaluates its topic and includes suggestions for further reading The authors assess Tillich's place in the history of twentieth century Christian thought as well as his significance for current constructive theology Of interest to both students and researchers this Companion reaffirms Tillich as a major figure in today's theological landscape

Paul Tillich and His System of Paradoxical Correlation Charles Amarkwei, 2020-05-05 This book shows the paradoxical mode by which Christians keep their faith in the Christian message as they relate with science It reveals how Paul Tillich's method of correlation helps us to understand how Christians interact with science without necessarily conflicting separating and dialoguing and synthesizing with each other It rules out natural theology but provides a non eclectic theology of nature that frees Christians to be involved in science meaningfully and without undermining their faith

Paul Tillich Wilhelm Pauck, Marion Pauck, 2015-02-27 This book offers a moving tribute to one of the twentieth century's most seminal philosophers and theologians Paul Tillich In fact it is widely accepted as the standard biography for Tillich A soberly objective portrait it was supported by Tillich himself who hoped that the full telling of his story would set in context its unconventional aspects as told in books by Hannah Tillich and Rollo May Wilhelm and Marion Pauck have recreated the many sided Paulus in all his greatness and humanness Tracing the development of Tillich's thought alongside the unfolding of his life in Germany and the United States the authors have provided an excellent model of biographical research

Social Democracy in the Making Gary Dorrien, 2019-04-23 An expansive and ambitious intellectual history of democratic socialism from one of the world's leading intellectual historians and social ethicists The fallout from twenty years of neoliberal economic globalism has sparked a surge of interest in the old idea of democratic socialism a democracy in which the people control the economy and government no group dominates any other and every citizen is free equal and included With a focus on the intertwined legacies of Christian socialism and Social Democratic politics in Britain and Germany this book traces the story of democratic socialism from its birth in the nineteenth century through the mid 1960s Examining the tenets on which the movement was founded and how it adapted to different cultural religious and economic contexts from its beginnings through the social and political traumas of the twentieth century Gary Dorrien reminds us that Christian socialism paved the way for all liberation theologies that make the struggles of oppressed peoples the subject of redemption He argues for a decentralized economic democracy and anti imperial internationalism The Paradoxical Breakthrough of Revelation Uwe Carsten Scharf,2015-02-06 No detailed description available for The Paradoxical Breakthrough of Revelation Tillich Donald W. Musser,Joseph Price,2010-02-01 Abingdon Pillars of Theology is a series for the college and seminary classroom designed to help students grasp the basic and necessary facts influence and significance of major theologians Written by major scholars these books will outline the context methodology organizing principles primary contributions and major writings of people who have shaped theology as we know it today Tillich served as a theological pioneer exploring boundaries and traversing creatively between the territories of philosophy and theology between the faith and culture between Christianity and Buddhism between the academy and the public He was a thinker who theorized about everything and who attempted to show what matters and why from the book The Concept of Nature in Science and Theology Niels Henrik Gregersen,1997 Faith and Human Transformation James Forsyth,1997 This book proposes the parallel concept that authentic faith development both presupposes and facilitates authentic human development Thomas Aquinas posited a reciprocal relationship between nature and grace grace both presupposes or builds on nature and perfects nature Translated into developmental terms this would mean that religious and spiritual growth takes place on the foundation of healthy human growth and reciprically the authentic religious development facilitates development towards the goals of authentic human growth This study attempts to investigate the validity of this reciprocal relationship as it applies to human and religious growth A dialogue is constructed between the views of four Christian thinkers Kierkegaard Barth Bultmann and Tillich on the dynamics of the Christian faith experience and four psychological theorists Alsler Fromm Allport and Frankl on the dynamics of human growth Theology at the End of Culture Russell Re Manning,2005 This book is a reconsideration of Paul Tillich s 1886 1965 project of a theology of culture and art Concentrating on Tillich s widely neglected pre emigration writings 1910 1933 Re Manning reconstructs and defends Tillich s proposals for theology of culture as a philosophically sophisticated programme of theological engagement with culture and art On the boundary between the extremes of liberal Christian humanism and neo orthodox isolationism Tillich s project is shown to be a powerful continuation of the mediatory intentions of the Schleiermacher Troeltsch line of modern Protestant theology to overcome the intolerable gap between religion and culture Drawing heavily on Tillich s incorporation of Schelling s positive philosophy into the deep structure of this theology Re Manning argues that Tillich s Idealistic Romantic theology of mediation provides a way through the entrenched oppositions of the divided mind of twentieth century theology to a constructive theology of cultural engagement Further this book offers an assessment of the continued relevance of Tillich's project in the situation of contemporary philosophical theology Beyond the dominant antithetical types of postmodern theology Mark C Taylor's a theology and the radical orthodoxy of John Milbank Re Manning argues for the possibility of a Tillichian postmodern theology of culture able to engage with the spiritual situation at the end of culture

Dialogues of Paul Tillich Mary Ann Stenger, Ronald H. Stone, 2002 The broad impact of Paul Tillich on present day philosophical theological thoughtforms especially of Protestant Christianity continues unabated into the new century Dialogues of Paul Tillich presents Tillich's conversations with past religious thinkers basic to Tillich's thought but also carries the dialogue beyond Tillich's own formulations into conversations with current issues regarding feminism liberation theology fundamentalism world religions and Christian realism BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

Tillich J. Heywood Thomas, 2000-12-13 Paul Tillich 1886 1965 was a remarkable and a singular theologian who was as much at home in a philosophical discussion as he was in the pulpit and seemed as keenly interested in art and politics as he was in his work as a professional theologian His attacks on Nazism led to the banning of his books his dismissal from Frankfurt University and ultimately his departure for the United States in November 1933 He continued to live and work in America after the war engaging in many lecture tours around the world Professor Heywood Thomas reviews critically the philosophical background to Tillich's theology including his debts to Schelling Kant and Husserl He surveys Tillich's achievement as a philosophical theologian examining his ontological approach to Christology and salvation and his understanding of the Church as a spiritual community He concludes with an exploration of Tillich's contribution to the changed situation of theology today Tillich's many points of contact with key thinkers in theology and philosophy including Heidegger Otto Bultmann Adorno and Barth make him a compelling figure for those interested in the history of ideas in the twentieth century important Canadian novelists before 1960 Yet both were religious writers during the period when Canada entered the modern non religious era and both greatly influenced the development of our literature MacLennan s journey from Calvinism to Christian existentialism is documented in his essays and seven novels most fully in The Watch that Ends the Night Callaghan s fourteen novels are marked by tensions in his theology of Catholic humanism with his later novels defining his theological themes in increasingly secular terms This tension between narrative and metanarrative has produced both the artistic strengths and the moral ambiguities that characterize his work Faith and Fiction A Theological Critique of the Narrative Strategies of Hugh MacLennan and Morley Callaghan is a significant contribution to the relatively new field studying the relation between religion and literature in Canada
