The Four Visitations of Berkshire Made and Taken by Thomas Benolte, Clarenceux, Anno 1532 Thomas Benolt,1908

The Four Visitations of Berkshire Thomas Benolt,1908 Gardeners' Chronicle ,1867 A Concise Companion to the Study of Manuscripts, Printed Books, and the Production of Early Modern Texts Edward Jones,2015-08-14

Bringing together a broad range of case studies written by a team of international scholars this Concise Companion establishes how manuscripts and printed books met the needs of two different approaches to literacy in the early modern period. Features essays illustrating the particular ways a manuscript and a printed book reflect the different emphases of an elite private and an egalitarian public culture both of which account for the literary achievements of the Renaissance. Includes wide ranging essays from printing the Gospels in Arabic to a contemporary reconceptualization of Shakespeare's Titus Andronicus. Increases accessibility through a rubric organized around archival and manuscript studies, the provenance of texts and the authority of editions and studies of genre, religion and literary history. Announces the recovery of archival documents which in some instances are over four hundred years old. Places translations of Milton's Latin Greek and Italian alongside the original texts to increase accessibility for a wide audience of students and scholars. Provides an invaluable platform for highlighting on going attention to the history of the book and its corollary subjects of reading and writing practices in the 1500s and 1600s.

St. Paul's Lecturer in Modern British History Arthur Burns,2004-01-01 The present St Paul's Cathedral Christopher Wren's masterpiece is the fourth religious building to occupy the site. Its location in the heart of the capital reflects its importance in the English church while the photographs of it burning during the Blitz forms one of the most powerful and familiar images of London during recent times. This substantial and richly illustrated study published to mark the 1400th anniversary of St Paul's presents 42 scholarly contributions which approach the cathedral from a range of perspectives. All are supported by photographs, illustrations and plans of the exterior and interior of St Paul's both past and present. Eight essays discuss the history of St Paul's demonstrating the role of the cathedral in the formation of England's church and state from the 7th century onwards. Nine essays examine the organisation and function of the cathedral during the Middle Ages looking at for example the arrangement of the precinct, the tombs, the Dean's household during the 15th century, the liturgy and the archaeology. The remaining papers examine many aspects of Wren's cathedral including its construction, fittings and embellishments, its estates and income, music and rituals, its place in London, its library, its role in the book trade and its reputation.
