slowly almost hesitantly His work formed organically Undogmatic and open to all graphic life he let himself be inspired by the art of the past and the present Fairytale lyrics and grotesque satire tender jesting and real demonism profound mysticism and sober romanticism live in Klee s work which always radiates his personal sphere with all its variety In this monograph an immensely compressed picture of the artistic as well as the human side of his career evolves by way of the extensive pictorial material and accompanying essays a picture which gives information about Klee s contribution to the expansion of artistic articulation Jacket Paul Klee Oliver Kase,Régine Bonnefoit,2018 The works of Paul Klee 1879 1940 charm the viewer with their inventiveness delight in experimentation subtle humour and brilliant colour schemes He contrasts the technical and rational tendencies of the 1920s with the significance of playfulness intuition and artistic genius Subdivided according to pictorial subjects of transcendental longing like ladders mountains and stars as well as Bauhaus aspects of architecture and construction of space the lavishly illustrated volume covering the period from 1905 until 1940 draws an impressive picture of Klee as an original thinking artist who confronts the challenges facing man in the modern age and brilliantly permits rational methods of picture construction to be transformed into the open and mysterious Exhibition Pinakothek der Moderne Munich Germany 01 03 10 06 2018 In the Beginning - Childhood drawings by eminent artists Gerd Presler,2021-08-26 This study takes up the lost thread and continues it to the present I asked artists who are crucial in shaping today s art world with their works for drawings from their childhood and adolescence in order to get to the roots the origin and the conditions of their work in other words to those conditions under which a talent starts out evolves and builds its initial foundations What happens there is precious and well worth our attention It is no less than the attempt to find the building blocks of creativity

The Art of Mechanical Reproduction Tamara Trodd, 2015-09-25 The Art of Mechanical Reproduction presents a striking new approach to how traditional art mediums painting sculpture and drawing changed in the twentieth century in response to photography film and other technologies Countering the modernist view that the medium provides advanced art with resistance against technological pressures Tamara Trodd argues that we should view art and its practices as imaginatively responding to the potential that artists glimpsed in mechanical reproduction putting art into dialogue with the commercial cultures of its time The Art of Mechanical Reproduction weaves a rich history of the experimental networks in which artists as diverse as Paul Klee Hans Bellmer Ellsworth Kelly Robert Rauschenberg Gerhard Richter Chris Marker and Tacita Dean have worked and it shows for the first time how extensively technological innovations of the moment have affected their work Original and broad ranging The Art of Mechanical Reproduction challenges some of the most respected and entrenched criticism of the past several decades and allows us to think about these artists anew

Discovery of El Greco Eric Storm, 2016-05-24 Originally published in Dutch and translated to Spanish for the fourth centenary celebration of the death of El Greco in 2014 this book is a comprehensive study of the rediscovery of El Greco seen as one of the most important events of its kind in art history The Nationalization of Culture versus the Rise of Modern Art analyses how changes in artistic taste in the second half of the nineteenth century caused a profound revision of the place of El Greco in the artistic canon As a result El Greco was transformed from an extravagant outsider and a secondary painter into the founder of the Spanish School and one of the principle predecessors of modern art increasingly related to that of the Impressionists due primarily to the German critic Julius Meier Graefe's influential History of Modern Art 1914 This shift in artistic preference has been attributed to the rise of modern art but Eric Storm a cultural historian shows that in the case of El Greco nationalist motives were even more important This study examines the work of painters art critics writers scholars and philosophers from France Germany and Spain and the role of exhibitions auctions monuments and commemorations Paintings and associated anecdotes are discussed and historical debates such as El Greco's supposed astigmatism are addressed in a highly readable and engaging style This book will be of interest to both specialists and the interested art public Volume 9: Aesthetics and Philosophy of Art Guttorm Fløistad, 2007-03-16

The present volume is a continuation of the series Contemporary Philosophy As with the earlier volumes in the series the present chronicles purport to give a survey of significant trends in contemporary philosophy The need for such surveys has I believe increased rather than decreased over the years The philosophical scene appears for various reasons more complex than ever before The continuing process of specialization in most branches the increasing contact between philosophers from various cultures the emergence of new schools of thought particularly in philosophical logic and in the philosophy of language and ethics and the increasing attention being paid to the history of philosophy in discussions of contemporary problems are the most important contributing factors Surveys of the present kind are a valuable source of knowledge of this complexity The surveys may therefore help to strengthen the Socratic element of modern philosophy the intercultural dialogue or Kommunikationsgemeinschaft So far eight volumes are published in this series viz Philosophy of Language and Philosophical Logic Volume 1 Philosophy of Science Volume 2 Philosophy of Action Volume 3 Philosophy of Mind Volume 4 African Philosophy Volume 5 Medieval Age Philosophy Volume 6 1 and Volume 6 2 Asian Philosophy Volume 7 and Philosophy of Latin America Volume 8 Fodor's See It Fodor's Travel Publications, Inc.

The End of Expressionism Joan Weinstein, 1990-06-08 Weinstein explores the attitudes and organizations of artists and architects in Berlin Munich and Dresden in response to the tumultuous events associated with the end of WWI and the failed Revolution She traces the initial excitement and zeal and then the disillusionment as utopian dreams were dimmed by social political and military realities as well as by inherent contradiction within the arts movements itself The accompanying b w illustrations fascinating in themselves directly depict textual themes Booknews Neurological Disorders in Famous Artists Julien Bogousslavsky, M. G. Hennerici, H. Baezner, C. Bassetti, 2010-01-01 The third part of Neurological Disorders in Famous Artists presents painters musicians and writers who had to fight against an acute or chronic neurological disease Sometimes this fight was without success e g Shostakovich Schumann Wolf Pascal but often a dynamic and paradoxical creativity of the clinical disorder was integrated into their artistic production e.g. Klee, Ramuz. Occasionally some even wrote the first report of a medical condition they observed in themselves like Stendhal who made a detailed report of aphasic transient ischemic attacks before dying of stroke shortly thereafter. In rarer instances a neurological disease was inaccurately attributed to an artist in order to explain certain features of his work, e.g. de Chirico, Schiele. Some chapters in this publication focus on neurological conditions reported in artistic work including descriptions by Shakespeare and Dumas. Bringing new light to both artists and neurological conditions, this book serves as a valuable and entertaining read for neurologists, psychiatrists, physicians, and anybody interested in arts, literature, and music.

The Blue Rider Matthias Mühling, Annegret Hoberg, Anna Straetmans, 2021-01-01. Das ganze Werk Kunst genannt kennt keine Grenzen und Völker sondern die Menschheit. So schrieben es Franz Marc und Wassily Kandinsky 1911 für ihren Almanach Der Blaue Reiter. Dieses programmatische Jahrbuch etablierte den Blauen Reiter ca. 1911-1914 als einen der ersten transnationalen Künstlerinnenkreise. Und dieses Credo inspirierte das Lenbachhaus dazu, das Werk der beteiligten Künstlerinnen unter ihnen Gabriele Münter, Alfred Kubin, Maria Marc und Elisabeth Epstein nicht nur ästhetisch und historisch sondern in seinen geistigen, sozioökonomischen sowie politischen Zusammenhängen zu betrachten. Denn nicht nur mit Worten sondern auch mit Bildern und Taten setzte sich der Kreis des Blauen Reiters für ein globales gleichberechtigtes Kunstverständnis ein. Gefangen in der Zeit der kolonialen Weltordnung vor dem Ersten Weltkrieg gelang es allerdings auch ihnen nicht eine emanzipatorische Praxis von Kunst jenseits nationaler Zugehörigkeit sowie tradierter Hierarchien und Gattungen umzusetzen.
