Paul Verlaine Stefan Zweig, 2015-12-27 The works of great artists are silent books of eternal truths And thus it is indelibly written in the face of Balzac as Rodin has graven it that the beauty of the creative gesture is wild unwilling and painful He has shown that great creative gifts do not mean fulness and giving out of abundance On the contrary the expression is that of one who seeks help and strives to emancipate himself A child when afraid thrusts out his arms and those that are falling hold out the hand to passers by for aid similarly creative artists project their sorrows and joys and all their sudden pain which is greater than their own strength They hold them out like a net with which to ensnare like a rope by which to escape Like beggars on the street weighed down with misery and want they give their words to passers by Each syllable gives relief because they thus project their own life into that of strangers Their fortune and misfortune their rejoicing and complaint too heavy for them are sown in the destiny of others man and woman The fertilizing germ is planted at this moment which is simultaneously painful Paul Verlaine Stefan Zweig,2021-04-25 In Paul Verlaine Stefan Zweig presents a compelling biographical exploration of the French poet whose tumultuous life mirrored the very essence of his art Zweig employs a lyrical and introspective style that evokes the emotional depth of Verlaine's poetry while situating it within the broader literary context of the Symbolist movement The book intricately weaves together personal anecdotes critical analysis and historical references illuminating Verlaine's struggles with mental health tumultuous relationships and his complex views on love and art all against the rich backdrop of 19th century France Stefan Zweig an Austrian writer renowned for his psychological acuity and humane insights draws upon his own existential inquiries and experiences of social upheaval to dissect Verlaine's life The author's fascination with the frailty of human nature and the interplay between genius and madness resonates throughout providing readers with an intimate portrait of Verlaine's artistic spirit As a contemporary of Verlaine's literary legacy Zweig's perspective is both relevant and deeply empathetic This book is a must read for anyone interested in the dynamic interplay between life and art as well as those who appreciate the nuances of poetic expression Zweig's masterful narrative not only enriches our understanding of Verlaine the poet but also serves as a poignant reflection on the costs of creativity and the fragility of the human condition Paul Verlaine, His Life--his Work Edmond Lepelletier,1909 Paul Verlaine and the Decadence, 1882-90 Philip Stephan,1974 One Hundred and One Poems by Paul Verlaine Paul Verlaine,2008-11-03 French poet Paul Verlaine a major representative of the Symbolist Movement during the latter half of the nineteenth century was one of the most gifted and prolific poets of his time Norman Shapiro's superb translations display Verlaine's ability to transform into timeless verse the essence of everyday life and make evident the reasons for his renown in France and throughout the Western world Shapiro's skillfully rhymed formal translations are outstanding St Louis Post Dispatch Best Book of 1999 Paul Verlaine's rich stylized widely variable oeuvre can now be traced through his thirty years of published volumes from 1866 to 1896 in a set of luminous new translations by Norman Shapiro His unique translations of this whimsical agonized music are more than adequate to bring the multifarious Verlaine to a new generation of English speakers Genevieve Abravanel Harvard Review Shapiro demonstrates his phenomenal ability to find new rhymes and always follows Verlaine's rhyme schemes Carrol F Coates ATA Chronicle Women/Men Paul Verlaine,2004 Echoes the vigour good humour and skill of Paul Verlaine's poems about carnal love Paul Verlaine Paul Verlaine,1916 Paul Verlaine Wilfrid Charles Thorley,1914 Poems of Paul Verlaine Paul Verlaine,2014-04-15 Your soul is as a moonlit landscape fair Peopled with maskers delicate and dim That play on lutes and dance and have an air Of being sad in their fantastic trim The while they celebrate in minor strain Triumphant love effective enterprise They have an air of knowing all is vain And through the quiet moonlight their songs rise The melancholy moonlight sweet and lone That makes to dream the birds upon the tree And in their polished basins of white stone The fountains tall to sob with ecstasy
