Presents* Irish Players Theatre Co. (New York, N.Y.),Leonard L. Milberg Irish Theater Collection,1956 Chaplin in the Sound Era Eric L. Flom,1997-01-01 Though Charles Chaplin is commonly remembered as a silent film comedian it is not widely recalled that he continued to make movies long after the introduction of sound His sound films have often been overlooked by historians despite the fact that in these films the essential character of Chaplin more overtly asserted itself in his screen images than in his earlier silent work Each of Chaplin s seven sound films City Lights 1931 Modern Times 1936 The Great Dictator 1940 Monsieur Verdoux 1947 Limelight 1952 A King in New York 1957 and A Countess from Hong Kong 1967 is covered in a chapter length essay here The comedian s inspiration for the film is given along with a narrative that describes the film and offers details on behind the scenes activities There is also a full discussion of the movie s themes and contemporary critical reaction to it Modern Irish Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez,1997-08-26 While the Irish Literary Revival began around 1885 and ended somewhere between 1925 and 1940 the Irish Renaissance has continued to the present day and shows no sign of abating The period has produced some of the most important and influential figures in Irish literature some of whom are counted among the world s greatest authors The Revival saw a reestablishment of Ireland s literary connections with its Celtic heritage and writers such as William Butler Yeats and Lady Gregory drew heavily on the myths and legends of the past James Joyce boldly reshaped the novel and wrote short fiction of enduring value Contemporary Irish writers continue to be leading figures and include such authors as Brian Frigl Seamus Heaney and Eavan Boland Included in this reference book are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 modern Irish writers including Samuel Beckett William Trevor Patrick Kavanagh Medbh McGuckian Sean O Casey J M Synge

and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Entries are written by expert contributors and reflect a broad range of perspectives Each entry contains a brief biography that summarizes the author s career a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author s critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works An introductory essay reviews the large and growing body of scholarship on modern Irish literature while an extensive bibliography concludes the volume After the Irish Renaissance Robert Goode Hogan,1968 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Masculinities and Manhood in Contemporary Irish Drama Cormac O'Brien,2021-12-10 This book charts the journey in terms of both stasis and change that masculinities and manhood have made in Irish drama and by extension in the broader culture and society from the 1960s to the present Examining a diverse corpus of drama and theatre events both mainstream and on the fringe this study critically elaborates a seismic shift in Irish masculinities This book argues then that Irish manhood has shifted from embodying and enacting post colonial concerns of nationalism and national identity to performing models of masculinity that are driven and moulded by the political and cultural practices of neoliberal capitalism Masculinities and Manhood in Contemporary Irish Drama charts this shift through chapters on performing masculinity in plays set in both the Irish Republic and Northern Ireland and through several chapters that focus on Women s and Queer drama It thus takes its readers on a journey a journey that begins with an overtly patriarchal nationalist manhood that often made direct comment on the state of the nation and ultimately arrives at several arguably regressive forms of globalised masculinity which are couched in misaligned notions of individualism and free choice and that frequently perceive themselves as being in crisis
