Principles and Best Practices Nursing Research Using Life History Mary De Chesnay, 2014-07-28 This is an excellent book for researchers who want to conduct nursing research using life history. It contains worthwhile basic information about the design and many good examples of its use. Doody's Book Review Service Life history is a qualitative research method used to tell the story of an individual through the eyes of a researcher who frames the story within the context of the culture in which the person lived. In this book experienced scholars in qualitative life history research discuss the theoretical rationale for using this design, describe its components, and delineate a practical plan to conduct studies including a focus on appropriate methods, ethical considerations, and potential pitfalls. Examples from published nursing research with author commentary help to support new researchers in making decisions and facing challenges. This concise how-to guide to conducting ethnography research is part of the seven-book nursing series Qualitative Designs and Methods, which focuses on qualitative methodologies. The series will be of direct aid to novice nurse researchers and specialists seeking to develop or enhance their competency in a particular design. Graduate educators and students in qualitative research courses, research sections in larger hospitals, and in-service educators and students. The book describes traditional and focused life history phases of research and methodology from sample and setting to dissemination and follow-up. Case studies follow a template that includes a description of the study, data collection, and analysis, and dissemination. The book also discusses techniques whereby researchers can ensure high standards of rigor. With a focus on practical problem-solving throughout, the book will be of value to novice and experienced nurse researchers, graduate teachers and students, in-service educators and students, and nursing research staff at health care institutions. Key Features: Includes examples of state-of-the-art life history nursing research with content analysis. Describes types of life history phases of research and methodology. Provides case studies including description, data collection, and analysis, and dissemination. Written by international scholars of qualitative life history.

The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History Ivor Goodson, Ari Antikainen, Pat Sikes, Molly Andrews, 2016-10-04 In recent decades there has been a substantial turn towards narrative and life history study. The embrace of narrative and life history work has accompanied the move to postmodernism and post-structuralism across a wide range of disciplines: sociological studies, gender studies, cultural studies, social history, literary theory, and most recently psychology. Written by leading international scholars from the main contributing perspectives and disciplines, The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History seeks to capture the range and scope as well as the considerable complexity of the field of narrative study and life history work by situating these fields of study within the historical and contemporary context. Topics covered include: The historical emergences of life history and narrative study; Techniques for conducting life history and narrative study; Identity and politics; Generational history; Social and psycho-social approaches to narrative history. With chapters from expert contributors, this volume will prove a comprehensive and authoritative resource to students, researchers, and educators interested in narrative theory, analysis, and interpretation.

Research Methodologies for Auto/biography Studies Kate Douglas, Ashley Barnwell, 2019-06-03 This collection of short essays provides a rigorous rich collaborative space in which scholars and practitioners debate the value of different methodological approaches to the study of life narratives and explore a diverse range of interdisciplinary methods Auto biography studies has been one of the most vibrant sub disciplines to emerge in the humanities and social sciences in the past decade providing significant links between disciplines including literary studies languages linguistics digital humanities medical humanities creative writing history gender studies education sociology and anthropology The essays in this collection position auto biography as a key discipline for modelling interdisciplinary approaches to methodology and ask what original and important thinking can auto biography studies bring to discussions of methodology for literary studies and beyond And how does the diversity of methodological interventions in auto biography studies build a strong and diverse research discipline In including some of auto biography s leading international scholars alongside emerging scholars and exploring key subgenres and practices this collection showcases knowledge about what we do when engaging in auto biographical research Research Methodologies for Auto biography Studies offers a series of case studies that explore the research practices reflective behaviours and ethical considerations that inform auto biographical research The SAGE Handbook of Social Research Methods Pertti Alasuutari, Leonard Bickman, Julia

Brannen, 2008-02-25 The SAGE Handbook of Social Research Methods is a must for every social science researcher It charts the new and evolving terrain of social research methodology covering qualitative quantitative and mixed methods in one volume The Handbook includes chapters on each phase of the research process research design methods of data collection and the processes of analyzing and interpreting data The volume maintains that there is much more to research than learning skills and techniques methodology involves the fit between theory research questions research design and analysis The book also includes several chapters that describe historical and current directions in social research debating crucial subjects such as qualitative versus quantitative paradigms how to judge the credibility of types of research and the increasingly topical issue of research ethics The Handbook serves as an invaluable resource for approaching research with an open mind This volume maps the field of social research methods using an approach that will prove valuable for both students and researchers Narrative Research Now Ashley Barnwell, Signe Ravn, 2023-12 Supported by the editors popular podcast Narrative Now this interdisciplinary volume explores the capacities and limitations of narrative research It maps out new directions for the field while honouring its legacy The Voice of the Past Paul Thompson, 2017-02-24 Oral history gives history back to the people in their own words And in giving a past it also helps them towards a future of their own making Oral history and life stories help to create a truer picture of the past and the changing present documenting the lives and feelings of all kinds of people many otherwise hidden from history It explores personal and family relationships and uncovers the secret cultures of work It connects public and private experience and it highlights the experiences of migrating between cultures At the same time it can bring courage to the old meaning to communities and contact between generations Sometimes it can offer a path for healing divided communities and those with traumatic memories Without it the history and sociology of our time would be poor and narrow In this fourth edition of his pioneering work fully revised with Joanna Bornat Paul Thompson challenges the accepted myths of historical scholarship He discusses the reliability of oral evidence in comparison with other sources and considers the social context of its development He looks at the relationship between memory the self and identity He traces oral history through its own past and weighs up the recent achievements of a movement which has become international with notably strong developments in North America Europe Australia Latin America South Africa and the Far East despite resistance from more conservative academics This new edition combines the classic text of The Voice of the Past with many new sections including especially the worldwide development of different forms of oral history and the parallel memory boom as well as discussions of theory in oral history and of memory trauma and reconciliation It offers a deep social and historical interpretation along with succinct practical advice on designing and carrying out a project The Voice of the Past remains an invaluable tool for anyone setting out to use oral history and life stories to construct a more authentic and balanced record of the past and the present

Documents of Life 2 Ken Plummer, Kenneth Plummer, 2001-03-20 This study champions the use of life stories and other personal documents in social research It considers recent developments in the humanist approach to social research looking at writing and narrative memory and the auto biographical society

Baltic Biographies at Historical Crossroads Aili Aarelaid-Tart, Li Bennich-Björkman, 2012-06-12 This book brings together life stories from five generations of Balts living through the diverse and recurring transformations of the twentieth century occupations war independence totalitarianism and democratic rule and market economy The twentieth century history of the Baltic countries has often been deeply tragic Lying on the coastline of the Baltic Sea these rather small but strategically well located territories have historically found themselves in the middle of many power struggles between larger states empires and other power holders the Teutonic Knights Swedish kings Tsarist Russia Nazi Germany the Soviet Union Today they are once again forced to stand up to the Russian Federation Biographical interviewing is a field focused on individuals and on how those individuals choose to re create and present their lived lives make meaning of it through the narratives they tell To interpret the biographical narrations of Lithuanians Latvians and Estonians shaped by complex and controversial historical background the authors use Pierre Bourdieu's concept of social and cultural capitals the principles of Erving Goffman's framing analysis and Alessandro Portelli's distinction of private and public spheres Anton Steen's investigations of post Socialist elites and Piotr Sztompka's theory of cultural trauma etc Given analyses of particular biographical narrations are supplemented by brief historical and sociological overviews which allow the reader to better understand the contexts of lived lives and the mental atmosphere in which the interviews were conducted
