Mawudor's grandparents also tried and failed in their own way to stop Mordibor from sending their beloved grandson away. While Mordibor wanted to send his sons away to acquire Islamic and Tukulor values instead of Western education, his son Mawudor, on the other hand, liked and dreamed about attending the white man's school and he also admired the customs and practices of his maternal relatives. Even fate, it seemed, was not on his father's side. After just two years in that Koranic school in Futa Mawudor and his brother Baba had an accident, a fall in which Mawudor broke his leg. When Mawudor was sent home following the accident and his father saw his broken leg, he was devastated. Mawudor's life, it seemed, had been changed. Even the region of Dubayabia's most famous herbalist, Mawudor's grandmother, couldn't fix his broken leg to its original form. Mordibor, realizing how handicapped his son Mawudor had become, changed his original plan and finally decided to send him to a white man's school together with his younger brothers.

It Took a Broken Leg is a family story in which this author chronicles the eventful experiences of the main character Mawudor back in time through a maze of raw African tribal beliefs, customs, and practices characterizing his people practicing Muslims with keen interests and beliefs in secret societies, spiritual devils, and witchcraft.

Pagan and Witch Elders of the World Tamara Von Forslun, 2020-10-07. The Pagan or Witch Elder is a leader who has led by example and teaches their wisdom to those that will listen; they have cleared the path for those to follow. We must remember and know who these Spiritual and Magical Warriors were and are, some who are still fighting in the world for our acceptance and understanding. This book is filled with hundreds of Elders, some known and some not well known, who stood tall and fought the establishment with compassion and strength, endurance and wisdom, courage and determination to share an ancient knowledge that has been awakened by them in the 21st century. I write this book so that our Pagan community remembers and knows who these brave Spiritual Earth Warriors were and are, and what they have given, sacrificed, and shared for the future of our world. This book is to honour all our Elders so they are never forgotten and always honoured.
