Resisting The Threats To Life Covenanting For Justice Peace And The Integrity:

Resisting the Threats to Life D. Preman Niles,1989 Theology for Earth Community Dieter T. Hessel,2003-08-18 This volume brings together original essays by both seasoned professionals and emerging scholars who examine state of the art scholarship and pedagogy in ecologically alert theology Authors assess what various theologians have to offer and draw implications for reshaping religious and environmental studies as well as preparing the next generations of church leaders or pastoral workers What needs to be done these authors ask to bring biblical studies systematics social ethics practical theology spiritual formation and liturgy up to speed with eco justice thought and action on environmental questions Tao te Ching Lao Tzu,2021-04-06 Although translations and interpretations of the Tao te Ching abound and new editions are released yearly few accomplish the hard work of linking and bridging the Tao s profound message to the needs of modern readers There may be a profusion of versions but our lives and our world reflect little of the deep transformative potential of this important text Marc S Mullinax s new translation grows from extensive teaching experience and combines a deep understanding of the Tao s fourth century BCE Chinese context with an exciting two part application of that text to contemporary life First each of the eighty one verses is joined by a richly curated array of quotes sayings poems and stories from wisdom traditions around the globe With quotes ranging from Emerson to Pink Floyd and from the apostle Paul to Margaret Atwood the Tao s meaning comes alive in conversation with others Second a brief reflection puts the verse in historical context and highlights the transformative power of Wu Wei the non interfering action perfectly timed to promote peace and prevent injury to bring joy and justice to a hurting world Handbook of African Catholicism Ilo, Stan Chu,2022-07-13 A disciplinary map for understanding African Catholicism today by engaging some of the most pressing and pertinent issues topics and conversations in diverse fields of studies in African Catholicism Justice Unbound Patrizia Longo,2018-12-17 This important anthology provides students and teachers with voices of social and global justice that have been marginalized or forgotten by history It gives thought leaders from the Global South a platform and engages the voices of oppressed communities including Charles Mills and Franz Fanon and Ella Baker This text is a comprehensive analysis of modern and contemporary theories of justice Since the publication in 1971 of John Rawls s A Theory of Justice there has been much debate on his views from both the right and the left of the political spectrum But there is a lack of textbooks that provide not only a compilation of substantial selections on challenges to Rawls s theory from feminist and postcolonial scholars but that also include writings by non white and non Western authors on different aspects of justice This book fills this huge gap and brings together many influential writings on the topic of justice that are often omitted in philosophy and political theory collections This work addresses complex issues in an increasingly diverse society The Rhythm of Discipleship Luther D. Ivory,2008-01-01 In this volume Luther Ivory reflects on how to live the call to discipleship as an individual and as a community He describes the significance of active listening in the invitational rhythm of call and response and clarifies the biblical mandate for individuals and the church to respond to the call to join God in the struggle against evil and to establish righteousness in the world Ultimately he demonstrates for readers how to live a life of engaged piety which links reverence for God to the act of confronting injustice The Foundations of Christian Faith series enables readers to learn about contemporary theology in ways that are clear enjoyable and meaningful It examines the doctrines of the Christian faith and stimulates readers not only to think more deeply about their faith but also to understand their faith in relationship to contemporary challenges and questions Individuals and study groups alike will find these guides invaluable in their search for depth and integrity in their Christian faith

A Way of Transformation Geraldine S. Smyth,1995 The book provides a lively contribution to the ecumenical task of correlating theology and culture ethics and ecclesiology Focussing on the World Council of Churches conciliar process of justice peace and the integrity of creation between the assemblies of Vancouver 1983 and Canberra 1991 the author combines historical analysis theological critique and renewal and a sensitivity to the role of symbol in seeking a way of transformation in today s church and world

Pathways in Ethics Piet Naud,,2016-10-01 The public rationality of Christian faith is demonstrated in the way that Christian convictions make contributions to the contents and substance of intellectual pluralistic public discourses on themes like economic justice and human rights The impact of Christian faith for all walks of life from the most intimate individual life to the most social global and cosmic life are dealt with in this great work of Public Theology from the African soil Prof Nico Koopman

Is It Too Late? John B. Cobb Jr.,2021-04-20 In the fifty years since its initial publication Is It Too Late has proven its prescience in ways both significant and dire As the first book length philosophical and theological analysis of the environmental crisis this work introduced a generation to the key elements of crisis while suggesting ways that religion can be a force for hope rather than an instrument of despair Covering an ambitious range of issues from deforestation to abortion from religious views of the natural world to the need for technological innovation to avoid nature s destruction John Cobb moves deftly from philosophical to theological to scientific learning and integrates these interdisciplinary insights into a compelling vision for what he calls a new Christianity Comprehensive in scope non technical in expression and concise in length Is It Too Late provides the scholar and the student alike with a readable and compelling orientation to the philosophical and theological stakes of ecology This Fortress edition includes a new preface in which Cobb reflects on the current situation the specific promises and perils we now face and how his own thinking on matters theological and ecological has evolved in the last half century

Ideals and Ideologies Terence Ball,Richard Dagger,Daniel I. O'Neill,2016-01-08 Ideals and Ideologies A Reader 9 e is a comprehensive compilation of original readings representing all of the major isms It offers students a generous sampling of key thinkers in different ideological traditions and places them in their historical and political contexts Used on its own or with Political Ideologies and the Democratic Ideal the title accounts for the different ways people use ideology and conveys the ongoing importance of ideas in politics

Blurbs What is Mission? J. Andrew Kirk, How should today's Church shape its response to the Gospel? How can we set about making disciples of all nations in our post-Christian, multi-faith world? What does mission mean in our times? Here is a book that addresses these issues and many more with honesty and openness. It strips mission of its old associations with colonialism and militarism. It looks anew at the underlying theology, reminding us that our task is God's mission, not a human construct. It explores key aspects of contemporary mission from the familiar, such as the relation of mission to evangelism and to people of other faiths, to the unusual and thought-provoking, such as mission and the environment, justice for the poor and the overcoming of violence. Students of mission and Christians who wish to engage with today's world to integrate faith and life will find here an inclusive, comprehensive and lucid presentation of all the relevant discussions. Historical Dictionary of Ecumenical Christianity Ans Joachim van der Bent, 1994-12-01 This historical dictionary covers the major trends in the 20th-century ecumenical movement until today. It deals with developments in the realms of church unity, mission and evangelism, lay women in church and society and many other ecumenical subjects. It also covers many programs and activities of the World Council of Churches since its inception in 1948. The longer articles survey important theological themes, while short articles provide quick reference on a precise question. The bibliography is not exhaustive; some 50,000 titles have been published since the beginning of this century, but very helpful for major bibliographical information. The dictionary is particularly strong in American subjects and includes a great number of ecumenical personalities which cannot be found in other reference works. This publication is not only an indispensable tool of research for university and seminary libraries but also for individual persons belonging to whatever Christian church who are interested in knowing more about reflections, relations and activities in the several regions of the ecumenical world. A helpful description of the most important ecumenical assemblies and conferences is provided. To take stock of the past to interpret the present and to look forward into the third millennium of Christian existence are exciting and challenging enterprises. How Would We Know What God is Up To? Ernst M. Conradie, Cynthia Moe-Lobeda, 2023-03-01 This second volume in the series on An Earthed Faith will address the following question: Given what we know about the Anthropocene, how does one even begin to answer the question: What is this God up to, and how ought humans respond? This is a question of theological method, including the sources and interlocutors of Christian theology, its aims and starting points, social theories shaping it and presuppositions grounding it. Addressing this question is the classic task of doing contextual theology, namely describing and analysing a particular context and considering how this context may best be addressed theologically and practically. The question highlights the need for prophetic theology to discern the signs of the time, to recognise a moment of truth, Kairos, and to discern counter-movements of the Spirit. The question of method opens the door to constructive critique of how theology has been done and should be done. Hope for the Earth Ernst M. Conradie, 2005-05-18 Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology, spirituality and praxis in the South African context. The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope. Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation. Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found? The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament: namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space.

Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction.

Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly.

Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology, ecological theology, cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself.

Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life amidst death and destruction, life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God.

Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos, spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated.

Part F Wounded Visions Jonas Jonson, 2013-01-07 Jonas Jonson who was directly involved with the ecumenical movement for forty years offers in this book an inside perspective on an ever changing global Christianity. Reviewing developments in ecumenism from the 1960s to the present, Jonson discusses the decolonization of mission, interreligious relations, God's preferential option for the poor and unity in diversity. He also maps the global ecumenical landscape and presents the Fourth Church comprising charismatic, Pentecostal and evangelical movements of the twentieth century. How did the ecumenical movement respond to the fall of communism, the opening of China and the globalization of financial markets? Why did so many big churches caught in the whirlwind of change retreat from their ecumenical commitments in order to promote and protect their own interests? Jonson addresses these questions and more in this comprehensive review of global Christianity and the ecumenical movement.

Preaching in and Out of Season Thomas G. Long, Neely Dixon McCarter, 1990-01-01 This excellent resource provides help for ministers who must plan their sermons not only according to the liturgical church year but also in response to the secular calendar of national holidays and public ceremonies and in response to the program calendar of local and denominational emphases. Individual chapters discuss preaching about racial relations, family, church and nation, the global witness of the church, work, evangelism, stewardship and giving thanks. Suggestions for sermons on each theme are provided as well.

Creation and Complexity Christine Ledger, Stephen Pickard, 2004 Creation and Complexity are two themes that draw the sciences and theology together. The remarkable advances of science in the modern period have opened up new knowledge and revealed ever deepening layers of complexity in the world from the cosmic macro level to the micro world of quantum. There seems no end to the rich tapestry of the cosmic order and process. A science of complexity has been spawned. The discoveries of the sciences have been matched in the twentieth century by a renewal in the doctrine of creation. Behind this lies a renaissance in trinitarian thinking which offers fresh insight into the dynamic of God in creation.

past present and future The complexity of the triune God in creation find echoes in the rich complexity of the world uncovered by the contemporary sciences This book explores the nature of complexity in God s creation Hearing Many Voices Dale T. Irvin,1994 The ecumenical movement is by definition a complex multifaceted project that encompasses a diverse agenda and resists any singular definition By examining the various aspects of ecumenical history this book charts the search for diversity and dialogue in world Christianity Contents A DIALOGICAL AFFAIR Ecumenical Unity Ecumenical Diversity Understanding Dialogue The Multiplicity of Meaning Focus on the WCC COMMUNITY AND DIVERSITY IN FAITH AND ORDER Intending to Stay Together Faith and Order and the Quest for Visible Unity The Solidarity of Reconciled Diversity ECUMENICAL PRAXIS IN A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE The Search for Ecumenical Coherence The Search for Coherence through Reconstruction of Christendom Toward a Praxis of Solidarity RENEWING MISSION Missions and Ecumenics Missions Christendom and the Non European Other Defining the Boundaries of Christendom Re Marking the Boundaries of Christian Mission CONTINUING THE DIALOGUE Multiple Trajectories within the World Council Multiple Trajectories beyond the World Council Ecumenical Memories and the Ecumenical Future Christianity and Earthkeeping Ernst Marais Conradie,2011-04-01 Why should Christians engage in earthkeeping as Christians and from within Christian communities What is the underlying theological rationale for that In this book some 19 reasons why Christians may be encouraged to engage in earthkeeping are identified juxtaposed and assessed in order to call for clarity to invite discussion and to elicit creative tensions No single position is advocated it would be helpful if Christians could engage in earthkeeping on the basis of any of these motivations
