Resisting Writings Smu Studies In Composition And Rhetoric:

Resisting Writings (and the Boundaries of Composition) Derek Owens, 1994 A pragmatic work that begins with analyses of experimental expository prose avant garde feminist poetics African American discourse hypertext and other innovative discourse influences and goes on to present a series of proposals intended for teachers theorists graduate students and administrators Teaching Writing Christina Russell McDonald, Robert L. McDonald, 2002 Teaching Writing Landmarks and Horizons edited by Christina Russell McDonald and Robert L McDonald is designed to present an overview of some of the major developments in the establishment of composition studies as a field during the past thirty five years The essays are theoretically grounded but are focused on pedagogy as well Divided into two parts the first presents nine landmark essays selected and introduced by distinguished composition scholars and the second brings together eight new essays by emerging scholars Resisting Writings (and the Boundaries of Composition) Derek Owens, 1994 A pragmatic work that begins with analyses of experimental expository prose avant garde feminist poetics African American discourse hypertext and other innovative discourse influences and goes on to present a series of proposals intended for teachers theorists graduate students and administrators Resources in Education, 1994 Design Discourse David Franke, Alex Reid, 2010-10-06 Design Discourse Composing and Revising Programs in Professional and Technical Writing addresses the complexities of developing professional and technical writing programs The essays in the collection offer reflections on efforts to bridge two cultures what the editors characterize as the art and science of writing often by addressing explicitly the tensions between them Design Discourse offers insights into the high stakes decisions made by program designers as they seek to function at the intersection of the practical and the abstract the human and the technical Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1993 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993 Directory of American Scholars: English speech and drama, 1999 Rhetoric and Composition As Intellectual Work Gary A. Olson, 2002 In response to those who insist that rhetoric and composition should remain only a service discipline editor Gary A Olson's Rhetoric and Composition as Intellectual Work demonstrates that it already is an intellectual discipline that for at least a quarter of a century the field has developed an impressive tradition of intellectual work in a remarkable assortment of subject areas Rhetoric and Composition as Intellectual Work suggests the diversity of intellectual projects that have and will continue to make rhetoric and composition more than a service to the university more than a field devoted solely to improving writing pedagogy and more than a preliminary to literary studies This collection of nineteen essays by some of the most distinguished scholars in the discipline illustrates that rhetoric and composition has much to contribute to the intellectual milieu of the contemporary university as the field continues to push its disciplinary borders and discover new sites of investigation Publisher's description The Longman Anthology of British Literature David Damrosch, 2003 The goal of this anthology is to present a wealth of poetry prose and drama from the full sweep of the literary history of the British Isles and to do so in ways that will bring out both the works original cultural contexts and their lasting aesthetic power     Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,1993     The Longman Anthology of British Literature: The Middle Ages David Damrosch,2003

The Longman Anthology of British Literature is the most comprehensive and thoughtfully arranged book on the market Approaching literature from a broad cultural perspective the anthology offers a rich selection of fiction drama and poetry by major British authors The second edition of The Longman Anthology of British Literature includes key major additions of important works an expanded illustration program and new translation of Beowulf Fresh and up to date introductions and notes are written by an editorial team whose members are all actively engaged in teaching and in current scholarship and one hundred illustrations show both artistic and cultural developments from the medieval period through the 18th Century Perspectives sections shed light on individual periods but are also positioned to link with surrounding works Companion readings provide additional context for and special insight into key readings For avid readers of British Literature     The Power to Persuade Sally De Witt Spurgin,1989     The Writer's Market ,1998     1999 Writer's Market Mark Garvey,Holm,1998-09 Does everything but stamp your self addressed envelopes St Paul PioneerPress IBM compatible CD ROM     1999 Writer's Market Kirsten Holm,Don Prues,Donya Dickerson,1998 Even bigger and better Writer s Market as always is every bit as essential to a writer s tool kit as a good dictionary and a good word processor James Rettig Rettig on Reference at GALE COM     South Central Newsletter South-Central Modern Language Association,2001     Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1998     Paperbound Books in Print ,1984     Rhetoric at the Margins David Gold,2008-03-06

Rhetoric at the Margins Revising the History of Writing Instruction in American Colleges 1873 1947 examines the rhetorical education of African American female and working class college students in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The rich case studies in this work encourage a reconceptualization of both the history of rhetoric and composition and the ways we make use of it Author David Gold uses archival materials to study three types of institutions historically underrepresented in disciplinary histories a black liberal arts college in rural East Texas Wiley College a public women s college Texas Woman s University and an independent teacher training school East Texas Normal College The case studies complement and challenge previous disciplinary histories and suggest that the epistemological schema that have long applied to pedagogical practices may actually limit our understanding of those practices Gold argues that each of these schools championed intellectual and pedagogical traditions that differed from the Eastern liberal arts model a model that often serves as the standard bearer for rhetorical education He demonstrates that by emphasizing community uplift and civic participation and attending to local needs these schools created contexts in which otherwise moribund curricular features of the era such as strict classroom discipline and an emphasis on prescription took on new possibilities Rhetoric at the Margins describes the recent revisionist turn in rhetoric and composition historiography argues for the importance of diverse institutional microhistories and argues that the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries offer rich lessons for contemporary classroom practice The study brings alive the voices of black female rural Southern and first generation college students and their instructors effectively linking these histories to the history of rhetoric and writing Appendices include excerpts of important and rarely seen primary source material allowing readers to experience in fuller detail the voices captured in this work
