Resolution Of International Water Disputes Permanent Court Of Arbitration Peace Palace Papers Paperback:

Resolution of International Water Disputes Permanent Court of Arbitration. International Bureau, Permanent Court of Arbitration, 2003-01-01 This fifth volume in the Permanent Court of Arbitration Peace Palace Papers series reproduces the work of the 6th International Law Seminar held at the Peace Palace on November 8 2002 The Seminar's distinguished panelists and participants focused on the settlement of international disputes over that most essential of natural resources water They explored a range of questions Which settlement mechanisms are most promising in the field of transboundary freshwater disputes Is adjudication a suitable method of apportioning water rights which are vital not only to human life but to the agriculture and industry of every nation on the planet Given the need for win win solutions to most water disputes are negotiation and regional cooperation the only realistic and viable methods for settling them What is the potential role of conciliation mediation good offices and other ad hoc mechanisms This volume also contains the 1997 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Non Navigational Uses of International Watercourses a multilateral framework treaty dealing with transboundary freshwater which provides a variety of tools such as the submission of disputes to fact finding commissions for the peaceful resolution of water disputes

A 'Stepped Approach' to Disputes on International Watercourses Riley T. Denoon, 2025-07-10 With increasing global pressure on scarce international water resources the importance of dispute avoidance and resolution at the international level cannot be understated A Stepped Approach to Disputes on International Watercourses explores a conceptual and practical framework for addressing these complex challenges presenting a structured multi faceted approach that integrates technical expertise diplomatic negotiations and when necessary binding adjudication Drawing on a broad analysis of 225 international watercourse agreements it puts forward a stepped approach as an important tool that can foster cooperation prevent conflicts and ensure the equitable and sustainable use of our shared water resources

International Law and Dispute Settlement Duncan French, Matthew Saul, Nigel D White, 2010-03-04 International dispute settlement plays a fundamental role in maintaining the fabric of the international legal order reflecting the desire of States and increasingly non State actors to resolve their differences through international dispute procedures and other legal mechanisms This edited collection focuses upon the growth and complexity of such legal methods which includes judicial settlement courts and tribunals arbitration and other legal or what might be termed extra legal means international organisations committees inspection panels and ombudsmen In this important collection such mechanisms are compared and evaluated side by side to provide in one volume a detailed and analytical account of the current framework Ranging from key conceptual issues of proliferation of legal mechanisms and the associated risks of fragmentation through to innovations in dispute settlement mechanisms in many topical areas of international law including international trade law collective security law and regional law this collection written by leading international lawyers provides a major study in the ongoing trends and emerging problems in this crucial area of international law This edited collection is published to mark the retirement of Professor John Merrills Emeritus Professor of International Law University of Sheffield who has written widely on international law and human rights law but is probably best known for his work on the settlement of international disputes evidenced by the enduring appeal of his leading text International Dispute Settlement now in its fourth edition Water and Peace for the People Jon Martin

Trondalen,2008-01-01 This book proposes practical and objective solutions to the entrenched water conflicts in the Middle East The author reveals and clarifies the complexity of the water conflicts drawing on years of experience facilitating and chairing water negotiations in the region The bottom line is Unless the countries involved co operate the consequences will be devastating The lack of plentiful and clean water for the people will not only result in severe human suffering but could also have grave geopolitical consequences The book covers four critical areas the Euphrates and Tigris Rivers where new documentation reveals alarming trends the politically sensitive Golan Heights with its water disputed by Israel and Syria the Hasbani water dispute between Lebanon and Israel the longstanding water resource dispute between the Israelis and Palestinians

International Law of Underwater Cultural Heritage Kim Browne,Murray Raff,2023-01-01 This book brings together three distinct areas of International Law namely Environmental Heritage and Ocean Law to address the international legal protection of historically significant wrecks with particular focus on the environmental hazards they may pose The confluence of Heritage Law and the Law of the Sea with International Environmental Law represents an important development in international governance strategies for the twenty first century in particular those legal and administrative regimes that concern the world s oceans and underwater cultural heritage protection Importantly connections between international legal regimes such as the 1982 Law of the Sea and institutions like the International Maritime Organisation IMO and United Nations Education Scientific Cultural Organisation UNESCO can play a crucial part in governance strategies that involve the regulation of marine pollution and historic shipwrecks Rethinking Development Challenges for Public Policy K. Hanson,G. Kararach,T. Shaw,2012-04-05 Covers topical issues for Africa s development economics and politics of climate change water management public service delivery and delivering aid The authors argue that these issues should be included in the post MDG paradigm and add an important voice to recent moves by academics and practitioners to engage with each other

German Yearbook of International Law ,2002 Resolution of International Water Disputes Professor Surya P. Subedi,2011 This fifth volume in the Permanent Court of Arbitration Peace Palace Papers series reproduces the work of the 6th International Law Seminar held at the Peace Palace on November 8 2002 The Seminar s distinguished panelists and participants focused on the settlement of international disputes over that most essential of natural resources water They explored a range of questions Which settlement mechanisms are most promising in the field of transboundary freshwater disputes Is adjudication a suitable method of apportioning water rights which are vital not only to human life but to the agriculture and industry of every nation on the planet Given the need for win win solutions to most water disputes are negotiation and regional cooperation the only realistic and viable methods for settling them What is the potential role of conciliation mediation good offices and other ad hoc mechanisms This volume also contains the 1997 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Non Navigational Uses of International Watercourses a multilateral framework treaty dealing with transboundary freshwater which provides a variety of tools such as the submission of disputes to fact finding commissions for the peaceful resolution of water disputes
