

The background of the book cover is a black and white photograph of a forest path. The path is covered in fallen leaves and branches, leading towards a bright, glowing light source in the distance, possibly the sun or moon, which creates a strong lens flare effect. The trees on either side of the path are silhouetted against the light.

Resource Management And Development Addressing Conflict And Uncertainty:

Resource Management and Development Bruce Mitchell, 1991 Spatial Diversity and Dynamics in Resources and Urban Development Ashok K. Dutt, Allen G. Noble, Frank J. Costa, Sudhir K. Thakur, Rajiv Thakur, Hari S. Sharma, 2015-10-15

This double volume work focuses on socio demographics and the use of such data to support strategic resource management and planning initiatives. Papers go beyond explanations of methods technique and traditional applications to explore new intersections in the dynamic relationship between the utilization and management of resources and urban development. International authors explore numerous experiences characteristics of development and decision making influences from across Asia and Southeast Asia as well as recounting examples from America and Africa. Papers propound techniques and methods used in geographical research such as support vector machines socio economic correlates and travel behaviour analysis. In this volume the contributions examine issues such as natural resource and environmental management livelihoods issues in the context of climate change land markets and land trusts adaptive management of wildlife sanctuaries ground water scarcity flood hazards and flood plain management non conventional energy resources community forestry and management and land use and land cover change. The significance of these topics lie in the pace and volume of change as is reflected through continued development within established fields of inquiry and the introduction of significantly new approaches during the last decade. Readers are invited to consider the dynamics of spatial expansion of urban areas and economic development and to explore conceptual discussion of the innovations in and challenges on urbanization processes urban spaces themselves and both resource management and environmental management. Together the two volumes contribute to the interdisciplinary literature on regional resources and urban development by collating recent research with geography at its core. Scholars of urban geography human geography urbanism and sustainable development will be particularly interested in this book.

A Stake in the Future Mary Louise McAllister, Cynthia Alexander, 2011-11-01. A Stake in the Future is a comprehensive study of the Whitehorse Mining Initiative which was first conceived by the leaders in the Canadian mining industry. The goal was to revitalize the mining industry attract new investment and forge an alliance with major stakeholders such as government environmental groups First Nations the mining industry and labour. The book examines the political cultural and policy issues involved in developing a new consensus based approach to resolving land and resource use disputes with particular focus on a national multi stakeholder initiative in the mineral sector. The authors discuss the changing public policy environment the growing use of alternative dispute resolution the challenges posed by consensus based processes in developing a common vision and the implications of such processes for representative democracy.
