Restitution In Criminal Justice A Critical Assessment Of Sanctions:

Restitution in Criminal Justice: a Critical Assessment of Sanctions ,1977

Confiscation of the Proceeds of Crime Ariadna H. Ochnio,2025-05-30 The book provides a critical analysis of EU law making policy on the confiscation of the proceeds of crime using a minimalist restorative approach to justice focused on the rights of victims and communities and more proactive roles for all participants in confiscation procedures This book shows how the examined policy has been translated into the EU law standards adopted as its realisation and whether the gaps identified in these standards are reflected in the domestic law of the comparator EU jurisdictions Poland Germany and France The post conviction confiscation regime in England and Wales is also explored as an example of an alternative non EU model of value based confiscation Considering the complex juridical nature of confiscation which challenges the applicability of the civil criminal dichotomy this book recommends a twofold approach when shaping EU confiscation mechanisms focused on linking policy objectives with a restorative approach to justice and making the appropriate choice of criminal or civil routes for confiscation This book will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners in EU policy and law criminal law EU and national law on confiscation EU criminal justice policy and more broadly to European studies criminology and international organisations

Civilising Criminal Justice David J. Cornwell, John R. Blad, Martin Wright, 2013

Probably the best collection there is Civilizing Criminal Justice is an inescapable resource for anyone interested in restorative justice truly international and packed with experience while combining history theory developments and practical advice This volume of specially commissioned contributions by widely respected commentators on crime and punishment from various countries is a break through in bringing together some of the best arguments for long overdue penal reform An increasingly urgent need to change outmoded criminal processes even in advanced democracies demands an end to those penal excesses driven by political expediency and damaging notions of retribution deterrence and punishment for its own sake Civilising criminal justice will make it fairer more consistent understandable and considerate towards victims of crime currently largely excluded from participation Principles of reparative and restorative justice have become increasingly influential in the quest to provide justice which tackles harm compensates victims repairs relationships resolves debilitating conflicts and calls offenders to account And in any case what real justification is there for subjecting more and more people to the expensive but hollow experience of prison especially at a time of economic stringency Civil justice in its various forms can be swifter cheaper and more effective in court or through mediated processes focusing on the harmful consequences of offences rather than inflicting punishment that may satisfy a baying media but come home to haunt the community This brave and generous book 600 pages illustrates the many different ways in which criminal justice can be civilised and how lessons can be learned from practical experience across the world and shared expertise It is a volume that every politician should read every criminal justice professional should possess and that every student of criminology and penology will find invaluable David Cornwell John Blad and Martin Wright are three of the leading international experts on this topic with many publications to their names individually Contributors Serge Gutwirth and Paul De Hert Belgium Federico Reggio Italy Bas van Stokkom The Netherlands Lode Walgrave Belgium Susan Easton and Christine Piper UK Louis Blom Cooper QC UK Tapio Lappi Seppä Finland Thomas Trenczek Germany Jean Pierre Bonaf Schmitt France Per Andersen Norway Claire Spivakovsky Australia Ann Skelton Republic of South Africa Borb la Fellegi Hungary Judge Fred McElrea New Zealand and the editors John Braithwaite is a Distinguished Professor at the Australian National University author of ground breaking works on restorative justice and recipient of various awards

Justice for Victims and Offenders Martin Wright, 1996-05-31 This work charts issues and developments affecting victims of crime from the earliest times to the modern day including in particular reparation compensation and the evolution of restorative justice It takes account of the changes in the 1990s

Restoring Justice Daniel W. Van Ness, Karen Heetderks Strong, Jonathan Derby, L. Lynette Parker, 2022-05-30 Restoring Justice An Introduction to Restorative Justice Sixth Edition offers a clear and convincing explanation of restorative justice a movement within criminal justice with ongoing worldwide influence The book explores the broad appeal of this vision and offers a brief history of its roots and development as an alternative to an impersonal justice system focused narrowly on the conviction and punishment of those who break the law Instead restorative justice emphasizes repairing the harm caused or revealed by criminal behavior using cooperative processes that include all the stakeholders The book presents the theory and principles of restorative justice and discusses its four cornerpost ideas Inclusion Encounter Repair and Cohesion Multiple models for how restorative justice may be incorporated into criminal justice are explored and the book proposes an approach to assessing the extent to which programs or systems are actually restorative in practice The authors also suggest six strategic objectives to significantly expand the use and reach of restorative justice and recommended tactics to make progress towards the acceptance and adoption of restorative programs and systems

Errors of Justice Brian Forst, 2004 In this book Brian Forst takes a fresh new perspective on the assessment of criminal justice policy examining the prospect of assessing policies based on their impact on errors of justice the error of failing to bring offenders to justice on the one hand and the error of imposing costs on innocent people and excessive costs on offenders on the other Noting that we have sophisticated systems for managing errors in statistical inference and quality control processes and no parallel system for managing errors of a more socially costly variety on matters of guilt and innocence the author lays the foundation for a common sense approach to the management of errors in the criminal justice system from policing and prosecution to sentencing and corrections He examines the sources of error in each sector the harms they impose on society and frameworks for analyzing and reducing them

Rehabilitation, Crime and Justice P. Raynor, G. Robinson, 2005-10-11 Can offenders be rehabilitated Can this be done in ways that benefit the community as a whole as well as offenders This book is about the history theory practice and effectiveness of rehabilitation It shows how different beliefs about the value of rehabilitation and about what works have influenced criminal justice policy and practice at different times and it identifies a number of promising approaches for the future Everyone interested in the rehabilitation of offenders should read this book Encouraging Study of Foreign Languages United States. Justice in Young Adult Speculative Fiction Marek C. Oziewicz,2015-04-17 This book is the first to offer a justice focused cognitive reading of modern YA speculative fiction in its narrative and filmic forms It links the expansion of YA speculative fiction in the 20th century with the emergence of human and civil rights movements with the communitarian revolution in conceptualizations of justice and with spectacular advances in cognitive sciences as applied to the examination of narrative fiction Oziewicz argues that complex ideas such as justice are processed by the human mind as cognitive scripts that scripts when narrated take the form of multiply indexable stories and that YA speculative fiction is currently the largest conceptual testing ground in the forging of justice consciousness for the 21st century world Drawing on recent research in the cognitive and evolutionary sciences Oziewicz explains how poetic retributive restorative environmental social and global types of justice have been represented in narrative fiction from 19th century folk and fairy tales through 21st century fantasy dystopia and science fiction Suggesting that the appeal of these and other nonmimetic genres is largely predicated on the dream of justice Oziewicz theorizes new justice scripts as conceptual tools essential to help humanity survive the qualitative leap toward an environmentally conscious culturally diversified global world This book is an important contribution to studies of children s and YA speculative fiction adding a new perspective to discussions about the educational as well as social potential of nonmimetic genres It demonstrates that the justice imperative is very much alive in YA speculative fiction creating new visions of justice relevant to contemporary challenges The Palgrave Handbook of Australian and New Zealand Criminology, Crime and Justice Antje Deckert,Rick Sarre,2017-11-03 This handbook engages key debates in Australian and New Zealand criminology over the last 50 years In six sections containing 56 original chapters leading researchers and practitioners investigate topics such as the history of criminology crime and justice data law reform gangs youth crime violent white collar and rural crime cybercrime terrorism sentencing Indigenous courts child witnesses and children of prisoners police complaints processes gun laws alcohol policies and criminal profiling Key sections highlight criminological theory and crucially Indigenous issues and perspectives on criminal justice Contributors examine the implications of past and current trends in official data collection crime policy and academic investigation to build up an understanding of under researched and emerging problem areas for future research An authoritative and comprehensive text this handbook constitutes a long awaited and necessary resource for dedicated academics public policy analysts and university students Alternatives to Institutionalization Marjorie Kravitz,1979 Nordic Mediation Research Anna

Nylund, Kaijus Ervasti, Lin Adrian, 2018-04-03 This open access book presents twelve unique studies on mediation from researchers in Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden respectively Each study highlights important aspects of mediation including the role of children in family mediation the evolution and ambivalent application of restorative justice in the Nordic countries the confusion of roles in court connected mediation and the challenges in dispute systems Over the past 20 30 years mediation has gained in popularity in many countries around the world and is often heralded as a suitable and cost effective mode of conflict resolution However as the studies in this volumes show mediation also has a number of potential drawbacks Parties self determination may be jeopardized affected third parties are involved in an inadequate way and the legal regulations may be flawed The publication can inspire research help professionals and policymakers in the field and be used as a textbook

Religion Matters Paul Babie, Rick Sarre, 2020-03-02 This book draws together leaders in science the health sciences the humanities and the social sciences to investigate the role of religion its meaning and relevance for their area of specialization It provides a much needed fresh perspective on the way in which religion operates within the modern neo liberal world The book approaches the topic by way of a critical engagement between religion broadly defined and the individual disciplines in which each of the contributors is expert Rather than simply taking the dogmatic position that religion offers something to every possible discipline each of the chapters in this collection addresses the question is there something that religion can offer to the discipline in question That is the value of the book it takes a truly critical stance on the place of religion in contemporary society
