

OVERVIEW OF THE RESTITUTION PROGRAMME

- The mandate for restitution emanates from s25(7) of the Constitution.
- Land restitution is one of the four elements of land reform, the others being land redistribution, land tenure reform, and development.
- The Restitution of Land Rights Act, 1994 regulates the restitution process. It provides for the establishment of the Commission (to solicit, investigate and attempt to resolve claims through mediation and negotiation) and the Land Claims Court (which adjudicates disputes arising from the process).

Ecological Revolutions Carolyn Merchant, 2010-11-08 With the arrival of European explorers and settlers during the seventeenth century Native American ways of life and the environment itself underwent radical alterations as human relationships to the land and ways of thinking about nature all changed This colonial ecological revolution held sway until the nineteenth century when New England s industrial production brought on a capitalist revolution that again remade the ecology economy and conceptions of nature in the region In Ecological Revolutions Carolyn Merchant analyzes these two major transformations in the New England environment between 1600 and 1860 In a preface to the second edition Merchant introduces new ideas about narrating environmental change based on gender and the dialectics of transformation while the revised epilogue situates New England in the context of twenty first century globalization and climate change Merchant argues that past ways of relating to the land could become an inspiration for renewing resources and achieving sustainability in the future

Redressing Injustices Through Mass Claims Processes Permanent Court of Arbitration. International Bureau, 2006 This volume from the International Bureau of the PCA presents a collection of studies on innovative responses to the unique challenges of resolving large numbers of claims arising from common often tragic circumstances mass claims The mass claims processes discussed in this volume were created in the aftermath of war or other atrocities and redress is often an important component of settlement for the victims The authors consider mass claims processes both from a conceptual and a practical perspective through lessons learned over twenty five years This book covers innovations to speed mass claims processes by means of new standards of proof and the use of information technology as well as specific mass claims processes the United Nations Compensation Commission the Austrian General Settlement Fund the French Commission for the Compensation of Victims of

Spoliation the German Forced Labour Compensation Programme and the reparations provisions of the Statute of the International Criminal Court From a North American perspective authors address the litigation of mass claims involving slavery under United States law the United States Indian Claims Commission and the successful completion of the September 11th Victim Compensation Fund In addition Volume 1 of the Final Report of the Special Master of the September 11th Victim Compensation Fund is reprinted in its entirety The responses of the international community to current issues of compensation and reparations the role of civil society actors in reparations legislation and recent instruments adopted by the Council of Europe and the United Nations Commission on Human Rights are also reviewed Eastern and Southern Africa Debby Potts,T.A.S. Bowyer-Bower,2016-02-04 A unique and comprehensive introduction to contemporary development issues in East and Southern Africa and represents a significant departure from the often descriptive approach adopted by existing regional and development texts on African regions Each contribution is carefully chosen to highlight the theoretical basis to development issues and the practical problems of implementing development plans in this vital subregion Overall this produces comprehensive and balanced coverage of historical economic political and social issues The twin issues of globalisation and modernisation give the book a clear focus Indigenous Peoples' Rights in Southern Africa Robert

K. Hitchcock,Diana Vinding,2004 This book is concerned with the first peoples those people who are considered indigenous by themselves and others of southern Africa such as the San the Nama and the Khoi and their rights Although living in democratic countries like Namibia South Africa Zimbabwe and Botswana and in principle sharing the same rights and responsibilities as the rest of the population practice shows that these peoples more often than not are at the margins of the societies in which they live they often face extreme poverty and they frequently are subjected to discriminatory treatment and exposed to all kinds of human rights abuses Robert K Hitchcock is professor of anthropology and geography at the University of Nebraska Lincoln USA He has done extensive research and development work in southern Africa in general and among San peoples in particular Diana Vinding is an anthropologist working with the International Work Group for Indigenous Affairs IWGIA in Copenhagen Politics and the Past John Torpey,2004-09-01 Politics and the Past offers an original multidisciplinary exploration of the growing public controversy over reparations for historical injustices Demonstrating that reparations politics has become one of the most important features of international politics in recent years the authors analyze why this is the case and show that reparations politics can be expected to be a major aspect of international affairs in coming years In addition to broad theoretical and philosophical reflection the book includes discussions of the politics of reparations in specific countries and regions including the United States France Latin America Japan Canada and Rwanda The volume presents a nuanced historically grounded and critical perspective on the many campaigns for reparations currently afoot in a variety of contexts around the world All readers working or teaching in the fields of transitional justice the politics of memory and social movements will find this book a rich and provocative contribution to this complex debate

20 Years of South African Democracy: So Where to now? MISTRA

MISTRA, 2015-06-09 This publication is the outcome of a conference marking the beginning of South Africa's third decade of democracy hosted in November 2014 by the Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA and the Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute TMALI at the University of South Africa Unisa. The conference was entitled 20 Years of South African Democracy So Where to Now. The main focus of the conference was projective reflections into the next two decades of democracy. It aimed to deal with the theoretical perspectives underpinning the state of South Africa in two decades of democracy and most importantly prospects for the future.
