The Restoration and Eighteenth Century
George Wiley SHERBURN, 1660 Restoration and Eighteenth Century, 1963 The Literary History of England
Donald F. Bond, G. Sherburn, 2003-09-02 English historians in the Middle Ages is an overview of the history of English historians and their works in the Middle Ages English historians helped lay the groundwork for modern historical methodology provided vital accounts of the early history of England its culture and revelations about the historians themselves The most remarkable period of historical writing was during the High Middle Ages in the 12th and 13th centuries when English chronicles produced works with a variety of interest wealth of information and amplitude of range However one might choose to view the reliability Restoration and Eighteenth-Century Poetry, 1660-1780 Eric Rothstein, 1981 The Culture of Equity in Restoration and Eighteenth-Century Britain and America Mark Fortier, 2016-03-16 Drawing on politics religion law literature and philosophy this interdisciplinary study is a sequel to Mark Fortier's book The Culture of Equity in Early Modern England Ashgate 2006 The earlier volume traced the meanings and usage of equity in broad cultural terms including but not limited to law to position equity as a keyword of valuation persuasion and understanding the present volume carries that work through the Restoration and eighteenth century in Britain and America Fortier argues that equity continued to be a keyword used and contested in many of the major social and political events of the period Further he argues that equity needs to be seen in this period largely outside the Aristotelian parameters that have generally been assumed in scholarship on equity English Drama of the Restoration and Eighteenth Century (1642-1780) George Henry Nettleton, 1914 The Restoration and Eighteenth Century (1660-1789) Donald Frederic Bond, 2004 Cultural Readings of Restoration and Eighteenth-Century English Theater Deborah Payne Fisk, J. Douglas Canfield, 2010-12-01 Ranging in approach from feminist to historicist the eleven essays in this collection share the culturalist premise that the drama of late Stuart and early Georgian England helped to constitute the dominant ideology of the period The contributors varied approaches allow for the reconsideration of libertinism the politics of sexual desire and other classic issues as well as such newer concerns as the social construction of the first English actresses empiricism as an emergent epistemological discourse cultural anxiety about novelty and repetition and shifting tropes of inherent worth By reading well known works in unexpected ways and focusing on less frequently studied dramatists from Sedley Motteux Pix and Behn to Manley Trotter and Shadwell the contributors also test the limits of the canon In addition they suggest that earlier critical perceptions perhaps even more than the innate worth of the plays determined the shape of the canon These essays present a different image of Restoration and eighteenth century theater one that reveals how the drama was a site as important for the negotiation of cultural meaning as were novels and verse satires
