William L. Craig

Resurrection And The New Testament:

Resurrection in the New Testament Jan Lambrecht, 2002 Resurrection in the New Testament is a Festschrift offered to J Lambrecht on the occasion of his seventy fifth birthday Among the many scholarly interests of Professor Lambrecht the theme of the resurrection seemed best suited to honour his academic achievement The 27 contributions cover many of the books of the New Testament The first two articles in this volume discuss influences on the New Testament treatment of resurrection from the Greco Roman Dieter Zeller and Jewish Daniel J Harrington backgrounds H J de Jonge considers visionary experiences of the Old Testament as an interpretive clue for understanding New Testament references to appearances The articles by Martin Rese Benoit Standaert Otfried Hofius and Gergely Juhasz deal with interpretive questions that range through several books of the New Testament and to varying degrees again bring into discussion previously debated issues From this point with the exception of the final two the articles appear in canonical order Adelbert Denaux and Wim J C Weren treat issues in Matthew John Gillman in Luke Acts Maarten J J Menken and Thomas Soding in John John J Kilgallen and Florence Morgan Gillman in Acts Veronica Koperski Margaret E Thrall and Johan S Vos in the Pauline letters in general Morna D Hooker and Eduard Lohse in Romans Joel Delobel and Peter J Tomson in 1 Corinthians Frank J Matera in 2 Corinthians John Reumann in Philippians Raymond F Collins in the Pastoral Epistles and Jacques Schlosser in 1 Peter Joseph Verheyden discusses the witness of Mary Magdalene and the Women at the tomb in the extra canonical Gospel of Peter Finally Barbara Baert contributes a discussion on how the Resurrection was portrayed in visual art during the Middle Ages with striking illustrative examples Life in the Face of Death Richard N. Longenecker, 1998-08-19 This book brings into focus the resurrection message of the New Testament The chapters demonstrate how the resurrection both provides the basis for joyful living now despite the shadow of death and undergirds the Christian belief in a future after death

Resurrection and the New Testament Christopher Francis Evans, 1970 The Resurrection in the New Testament Clayton Raymond Bowen, 1911 The Resurrection of Jesus Christ in New Testament Theology John Frederick Jansen, 1980 Crucifixion-Resurrection Edwyn C. Hoskyns, Francis N. Davey, 2004-10-05 Crucifixion Resurrection is the posthumous work of one of the great theological partnerships Sir Edwyn Hoskyns the pioneer of biblical theology in England and Noel Davey his student in whom he found the ideal literary collaborator It was conceived as the theological sequel to their first joint work The Riddle of the New Testament whose influence on generations of students has been incalculable Crucifixion Resurrection is concerned with the theology and ethics of the New Testament It offers a detailed exposition of the various New Testament interpretations of Christ's death penetrating to the heart of the message Christianity has to offer the world and plumbing spiritual depths which the Church rarely sounds today Present New Testament scholarship may have a more extensive technical equipment but does not necessarily come to better theological conclusions indeed the authentic Christian humanism of Hoskyns and Davey may speak to our time even more forcibly than to their own Crucifixion

Resurrection has been edited by Gordon S Wakefield who completed the manuscript with the help of lectures left by Noel Davey Wakefield has also provided a substantial biographical account of the two authors Assessing the New Testament Evidence for the Historicity of the Resurrection of Jesus William L. Matera,2015 At the heart of the Christian message stands the proclamation of the resurrection the good news that God raised Jesus from the dead In Resurrection The Origin and Goal of the Christian Life Frank Matera explains why the resurrection was so important to the early church and why it remains important for Christians today Beginning with the gospels then moving to the Acts of the Apostles the Pauline Epistles and concluding with Hebrews 1 Peter 1 John and the book of Revelation Matera provides a comprehensive overview of how the different writings of the New Testament proclaimed the resurrection of Jesus Christ Written in a clear and accessible manner Matera presents readers with a way to understand the central message of the New Testament and of Christian faith God raised Jesus from the dead Building on this message he shows that the resurrection of Jesus enables and empowers believers to live in the world today and provides them with the assurance that God will raise them from the dead as well

The Reality of the Resurrection Stefan Alkier,2013-10 In The Reality of the Resurrection Stefan Alkier bridges the chasm between history and theology Through a patient historical canonical and hermeneutical study Alkier demonstrates that the resurrection of Jesus is inextricably bound to the general eschatological resurrection of the dead Jesus resurrection is no isolated miracle but is instead the crucial disclosure of the nature of reality the identity of God and the destiny of human beings Interpretation of Jesus resurrection is thus necessarily and unavoidably both historical and theological Alkier accomplishes three tasks Through a descriptive exegetical survey of New Testament rhetoric he locates the resurrection of the Crucified One within a distinct narrative world Alkier then employs the semiotics of C S Peirce to develop a creative epistemology that avoids propositional literalism and modernist reductionism Alkier finally outlines how resurrection impacts Christian praxis The Reality of the Resurrection witnesses to that which Paul names as of first importance not only for the early Christian communities but also for the shaping of our communities today
