Final Judgement and the Dead in Medieval Jewish Thought Susan Weissman, 2020-07-23 Through a detailed analysis of ghost tales in the Ashkenazi pietistic work Sefer asidim Susan Weissman documents a major transformation in Jewish attitudes and practices regarding the dead and the afterlife that took place between the rabbinic period and medieval times She reveals that a huge influx of Germano Christian beliefs customs and fears relating to the dead and the afterlife seeped into medieval Ashkenazi society among both elite and popular groups In matters of sin penance and posthumous punishment the infiltration of Christian notions was so strong as to effect a radical departure in Pietist thinking from rabbinic thought and to spur outright contradiction of talmudic principles regarding the realm of the hereafter Although it is primarily a study of the culture of a medieval Jewish enclave this book demonstrates how seminal beliefs of medieval

Life Hereafter Paul Crittenden, 2020-10-24 In this book Paul Crittenden offers a critical guide to the problematic origins of biblical teaching about the afterlife and the way in which it was subsequently developed by Church authorities and theologians Origen Augustine and Thomas Aquinas in particular In the post Reformation era the focus falls on the challenges set by modern secularism The tradition encompasses a body of interconnected themes an apocalyptic war in which the Kingdom of God triumphs over Satan s powers of darkness salvation in Christ the immortality of the soul and finally the resurrection of the dead and the last judgment ratifying an afterlife of eternal bliss for the morally good and punishment in hell for wrongdoers The critique questions these beliefs on evidential ethical and philosophical grounds The argument overall is that what lies beyond death is beyond knowledge The one fundamental truth that can be distilled from the once compelling body of Christian eschatological belief for believers and unbelievers alike is the importance of living ethically

The Naked State of Human Being Luis Ivan Martinez-Toledo, 2016-04-21 This book explains the image of nakedness gymnos taken by Paul in the Corinthian correspondence to refer to the state of human being during death Through an academic approach but simple language the author explains the biblical monist understanding of human being He takes the biblical experience of death and resurrection to point out his arguments This book uncovers the ancient problem of the continuation of personal identity from life prior to death on to resurrection It also provides a fresh biblical approach from an anthropological and biblical perspective to the problem of what being human really is Those who enjoy traveling through the Bible with an open mind and warm heart will find in this book a good experience

Calvin James L. Codling, 2010-06-09 This study examines the influence of John Calvin in ethics eschatology and education as well as those influences that affected him It examines his writings to determine if his vision made him an innovator The research searched for reforms in the areas of ethics curriculum understanding of the teaching office and universal education It also looked at philosophy economics and labor A belief in the after life and end times was an ethical motivation for Calvin and education was a means by which the people that he worked with and wrote to could understand how they should live and why they should live like that Thus there is an important connection among ethics eschatology and education All people were to work to their potential at their job because in doing their job they would honor God Teachers were especially important Those who taught would affect the quality of education Calvin worked to provide teacher training and support He believed that all occupations could be a special calling from God and education was a means to prepare the young person for his or her calling Schools existed in Geneva before Calvin arrived in 1536 however they did not function in the way that Calvin would have liked Calvin provided the elementary students with a needed text when he prepared a catechism The students had written material that they could read and study and a systematic presentation of the basic doctrines of the Christian faith Calvin also wanted more appropriate facilities in which the students could learn Although his organization of the schools improved the atmosphere for learning the building of the Academy was his dream and became his major educational achievement in the city of Geneva Because 16th century students needed to be prepared for the new world there was a need for curriculum change The students were required to read many of the prominent Greek and Roman authors in the ancient languages but the student learned theology Hebrew poetry dialectic and rhetoric physics and mathematics as well Calvin wished to graduate a well rounded scholar who could take his or her place in society In this way the citizens of Geneva and all those of the Reformed belief would be better prepared for life on earth and the after life
