Rethinking Anti-racisms Floya Anthias, Cathie Lloyd, 2002 This collection seeks to rethink anti racism both in light of social changes and also of new theoretical debates about citizenship multiculturalism hybridity diaspora and social movements As well as chapters on theoretical interventions Rethinking Anti Racisms has substantive chapters covering issues such as anti deportation campaigns anti fascism education the Southall Black Sisters the contradictory use of ethnicity as a way of tackling racism

Rethinking Anti-Discriminatory and Anti-Oppressive Theories for Social Work Practice Christine Cocker, Trish Hafford-Letchfield, 2014-07-23 For years anti discriminatory and anti oppressive practice have been embedded in the social work landscape Thinking beyond the mainstream approaches this book critically examines some of the core concepts and issues in social work providing fresh perspectives and opportunities for educators students and practitioners of social work

Anti-racism in European Football Christos Kassimeris, 2009-01-01 Anti Racism in European Football Fair Play for All challenges the issue of racism in European football identifies the causes of the problem and seeks its remedy

Re-configuring Anti-racism Yin Paradies, 2018-04-19 In our interconnected world of increasing racial ethnic and religious diversity racism is an enduring phenomenon with a range of pernicious consequences for individuals communities and societies Despite considerable scholarly attention to race and racism there has been relatively little focus on anti racism defined as the theory and practice of addressing racism counteracting its detrimental effects or envisaging its possible alternatives This edited collection explores the re configuration of anti racism in order to better combat racism in modern neo liberal societies Should anti racism focus on tolerance harmony inclusion equality participation recognition acknowledgement indifference and or justice What is the role of everyday race labour the potentials and pitfalls of post raciality and the potential of alter racism via humour viscosity embodiment and affective atmospheres The eight chapters forming this collection bring together scholars from cultural studies geography philosophy political science race relations and sociology to debate key epistemologies practices and contradictions pertaining to anti racism as a global endeavour This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Antiracism John Solomos, 2024-11-18 While there has been a wealth of research and conversation about the role of racism in shaping our social political and economic structures antiracism its highly publicized counterpart has been very little studied discussed or debated Veteran race scholar John Solomos argues in this slim intervention that we urgently need to re focus research and activist agendas to address this gap in knowledge The core questions addressed in the book include what does antiracism mean in the contemporary environment How do states political institutions and civil society define and practise antiracism What is the role of alliances across race class and gender in shaping possible futures beyond racism Moving beyond the valuable work which has already uncovered the ways in which race and racism are made and re made these questions cut to how to develop meaningful political and policy initiatives framed by antiracist ideas and values If we hope to make sense of the evolution of contemporary racisms in the world around us in order to tackle them head on antiracism needs to be better understood

Who Is Antiracist? George Yancey, Hayoung Oh, 2024-12-20 This book proposes an index to measure survey respondents level of agreement with antiracist principles as defined in popular literature It then observes the characteristics and beliefs of those with high levels of agreement and concludes that the movement runs the risk of becoming too partisan to appeal to new audiences

Exploring the Ambivalence of Liquid Racism Argiris Archakis, Villy Tsakona, 2024-02-15 The ongoing migration crisis in European countries 2015 to date has fostered different stances and practices within European nation states ranging from xenophobia to solidarity In this context two contradictory discourses seem to coexist the national racist discourse and the humanitarian antiracist one This volume brings together studies investigating diverse semiotic strategies through which liquid racism emerges which consists of ambiguities and contradictory interpretations due to the fact that racist views infiltrate discourse intended as antiracist The volume includes critical and pragmatic analyses of texts coming from various sources such as news articles parliamentary discourse political cartoons video clips advertising campaigns based on personal stories and jokes It is an outcome of the research project TRACE Tracing Racism in Anti raCist discourseE A critical approach to European public speech on the migrant and refugee crisis HFRI FM17 42 HFRI 2019 2022 Hellenic Foundation for Research and Innovation

Rethinking Roma Ian Law, Martin Kovats, 2018-02-06 This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of the emergence development and implications of the Roma political phenomenon in contemporary Europe It also challenges the conventional epistemological basis to political claims of distinct Roma people and argues that the contemporary politics of Roma is better understood as the public application of Roma identity In recent times a new word has entered the political lexicon across Europe and beyond Roma Thirty years ago it would have been hard to encounter the public use of the word outside of a small number of academics and activists In the second decade of the new millennium Roma has become a dynamic political identity championed by hundreds of organisations thousands of activists and applied to millions of people across Europe and beyond Roma has become an agenda item for local and national authorities as well as being taken up by the European Union and other international organisations In challenging the conventional epistemology this book examines the principal interests and processes that are constructing Roma as a public political identity encompassing highly differentiated groups of people This book brings together critical race theory and theories of ethnic mobilisation to provide a new critical framework for understanding Roma identity history and transnational politics It will be of particular interest to students and academics within the fields of global racialization and ethnicity studies
