Rethinking Europe Social Theory And The Implications Of Europeanization:

Rethinking Europe Gerard Delanty, Chris Rumford, 2005 Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13

This book provides an unconventional account of post 1989 education reform in Romania By drawing on policy documentation interviews with key players qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe The book argues that the education system s structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self depiction by ultimately serving a nation building agenda It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post 1989 era The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan matching post war patterns of post national affiliations on a worldwide level Europe and Asia beyond East and West Gerard Delanty, 2006-10-03 This major new book tackles key questions on Europe in the context of shifting parameters of East and West The contributors sociologists anthropologists philosophers and historians show from a variety of different perspectives that the conventional equation of Europe with the West must be questioned Featuring four thematically organized chapters the book looks at a post Western world Asia in Europe encounters in history between Europe and Asia otherness in Europe and Asia Exploring new expressions of European self understanding in a way that challenges recent ideological notions of the clash of civilizations this outstanding work draws on recent scholarship that shows how Europe and Asia were mutually linked in history and in contemporary perspective It argues that as a result of current developments and the changing geopolitical context both Europe and Asia have much in common and that it is possible to speak of cosmopolitan links rather than clashes This book will be of great value to students and researchers in the fields of sociology European politics and history and cultural theory Democratising the EU from Below? Ulrike Liebert, Alexander Gattig, 2016-05-23 For the European Union of the 21st century the search for sustainable prosperity and stability includes the challenge of reconciling democratic ideals and practices with the construction of a European constitutional order From the 2001 Laeken Summit to the 2009 Lisbon Treaty and beyond EU leaders have repeatedly set out to bring citizens closer to EU governance by making it more democratic and effective yet several national ratification referendums have shown that publics are divided about whether and why to endorse or veto complex EU reform packages imposed from the top down Despite these limitations people do effectively engage in the making of a European polity By initiating national court proceedings active citizens are promoting fundamental European rights in Member States practices As party members they contribute to shaping mass media communication about and national publics understanding of European political alternatives As civil society activists citizens help build social networks for contesting certain EU reforms or advocating others Last but not least as voters in national and European elections they choose between competing party

visions and national parliamentary stances regarding the role of democratic citizenship This original contribution to the debate about democratic citizenship vis vis the challenges of economic globalization and European political integration presents critical explorations of different fields of direct representative participatory and deliberative democratic citizenship practices that affect the transformation of Europe Routledge Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies Gerard Delanty, 2012-05-23 Pt 1 Cosmopolitan theory and approaches pt 2 Cosmopolitan cultures pt 3 Cosmopolitics pt 4 World varieties of cosmopolitanism Globalisation and Citizenship Wayne Hudson, Steven Slaughter, 2007-04-11 This wide ranging volume explores the impact of globalization upon citizenship with a special focus on the transnational challenges that globalization poses While there is much debate over the concept globalization implies at least two distinct phenomena First it suggests that political economic and social activities are becoming increasingly inter regional or intercontinental in scope Secondly it suggests that there has been an intensification of levels of interaction and interconnectedness between states and societies Citizenship as one of the foundational concepts of the modern liberal democratic states provides the normative framework within which globalization debates may be understood and evaluated It also examines how different concepts theories and practices of citizenship are evolving in response to globalization Central questions explored in this text are How does globalization challenge traditional conceptions of citizenship in specific respects How is globalization creating new citizenships or new civil society spaces How is transnational citizenship developing and what problems are associated with it in specific areas Discussing the theoretical and practical prospects for new forms of liberal republican and cosmopolitan citizenship Globalisation and Citizenship will appeal to students and scholars in the fields of international relations globalization sociology and political science European External Action Veit Bachmann, 2017-02-24 European External Action provides a critical assessment of the practice of EU diplomacy in a key site of Africa European relations and the global development industry the Kenyan capital of Nairobi It analyses how the EU positions itself through its newly established diplomatic corps the European External Action Service EEAS and how it is perceived as a collective geopolitical actor by its external cooperation partners Going beyond existing studies on EU policy making in Brussels and African European relations more generally this book explores in a novel way the conduct of external relations and perceptions of the EU abroad Based on institutional ethnography within the EU Delegation in Nairobi and research affiliation with the University of Nairobi as well as interviews with leading individuals of Kenyan European interaction it analyses the practices processes and perceptions through which EU diplomacy is enacted and realised in a strategic node of global North South relations In light of the EU s claim as a key partner for developing countries and its ambition to be a major player in global politics European External Action thereby speaks not only to wider debates on the EU s role as a global and development actor but also provides new insights in the internal dynamics and the making of external agency in and through EU diplomacy

Transforming Europe Through Crises Didem Buhari, Christian Kaunert, Seckin Baris Gulmez, 2022-11-28 How many

Europe is a critical question that led to several attempts to analyse European crises and transformations globally. This book builds upon the argument that Europe cannot be reduced to a singular dynamic identity or vision but rather provides a four fold taxonomy: Thin, Thick, Parochial and Global Europe. The book contributors aim to respond to the emerging necessity to incorporate both the parochial dynamics unmaking Europe and the globalist dynamics decentering Europe into the analysis of European crises and transformations in diverse sectors ranging from security and foreign policy to the rule of law and democracy. Accordingly, this book is unpacking Europe in a time of severe crises facing the EU such as Brexit, the Syrian refugee crisis, Catalan secessionism, the rise of far right and terrorism which have accelerated the resurgence of formerly marginalized and repressed dynamics as influential trends in national, regional and global politics. It reveals an ongoing hegemonic struggle over the representation of Europe among many Europes involving two separate integrationist models of regionalization or Europe making and two distinct dynamics that have sought to fragment and de-centre the European Union through nationalism and globalism respectively. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of European Politics and Society. Spaces of Europeanisation in the Balkans Ana Pajvančić-Cizelj, 2025-09-18. This book tackles the spatial dimension of Europeanization in the Balkans by focusing on cities, inter-urban networks and urban epistemic communities. Exploring the participation of urban actors from the Balkans in 18 European inter-urban networks, it employs a new mixed method framework to show how such participation continuously reshapes Balkan cities' urban trajectories with contradictory and variegated consequences. Against the backdrop of the existing state and conflict-centred literature on failures of European integration in the region, the author offers a fresh perspective on Europeanization as it unfolds through direct inter-city cooperation. This volume will be of interest to both scholars of urban studies and Southeast European Studies as well as anyone interested in the Europeanization of the Balkans and its cities. Routledge

International Handbook of Contemporary Social and Political Theory Gerard Delanty, Stephen P. Turner, 2011-03-23. The Handbook will address a range of issues that have emerged out of recent social and political theory. It will focus on key themes as opposed to schools of thought or major theorists. Each chapter is an emerging cutting edge topic that is of interest both to social theory and to political theory. Most topics will have a clear and substantive focus on social or political problems.

Adult Education Policy and the European Union: Theoretical and Methodological Perspectives, 2014-01-01. FREELY AVAILABLE ONLINE AS OPEN ACCESS BOOK. The European Union is now a key player in making lifelong learning and adult education policy; this is the first book to explore a range of theoretical and methodological perspectives researchers can use to investigate its role. Chapters by leading experts and younger scholars from across Europe and beyond cover the evolution of EU policies, the role of policy actors in what is often seen as the black box of EU policy making and the contribution state theory can make to understanding the EU and its relations with Europe's nations. They consider what theories of governmentality drawing on the work of Foucault can contribute. And they demonstrate how particular methodological approaches such as policy trails and the contribution the sociology of law can make Contributors include both specialists in adult education and scholars exploring how work from other disciplines can contribute to this field This is the first book in a new series from the European Society for Research on the Education of Adults and draws on work within its Network on Policy Studies in Adult Education

Impacts of European Territorial Policies in the Baltic States Garri Raagmaa, Dominic Stead, 2017-10-02 Urban and regional development in the Baltic States and other Central and Eastern European countries has experienced rapid changes since their re independence at the beginning of the 1990s Meanwhile urban and regional planning institutions and organizational cultures in the Baltic States have only changed rather incrementally despite various national and European pressures for reform As a consequence the effects of European cohesion and structural policy measures have been quite modest and the ability of the planning systems in the Baltic states to manage contemporary trends in urban and regional development has become increasingly limited This book focuses on these issues and tensions of spatial planning and development in the Baltic States and their distinctiveness compared to other European countries It provides an overview of the historical and cultural context of spatial development a discussion of the processes of Europeanization of spatial planning in the specific context of the Baltic States and an analysis of whether these processes may be leading to policy convergence in the region This book was published as a special issue of European Planning Studies

Democracy, Federalism, the European Revolution, and Global Governance Andrea Bosco, 2020-06-10 The European Union is facing today the greatest crisis since its creation Brexit could mean not only the reversal of its steady enlargement from 6 to 28 member states but also the beginning of an inexorable decline leading to its disintegration However few today seem to recollect that it was precisely the British who were the first to promulgate the political culture which inspired the European Union s construction democracy and federalism and the first who tried to realise in June 1940 a European federation on the basis of an Anglo French union This volume traces the fundamental stages of the European unification process placing it in relation to the wider process of world economic and political integration In particular it analyses the historical significance of the European Revolution which is identified in the overcoming of the nation state namely the modern political formula which institutionalised the political division of mankind and the birth of the first truly international state The universal historical significance of the European Revolution lies in its exportability as for the other great European revolutions and therefore its potential as progressively extensible to all the states of the planet Europe was indeed the first region of the world where the barriers between national states fell and a post national political identity emerged complementary to national political identities It is in fact in the context of the European Union that democracy beyond the borders of the nation state has first been realized constituting a guiding principle for global governance

Mobile Europe Ettore Recchi, 2015-03-09 With a particular focus on their integration paths political participation and identifications this book draws on large cross national surveys of this specific population carried out between 2004 and 2012 as well as in depth interviews and aggregate statistical data from a plethora of sources
