Rethinking Evangelism A Theological Approach By Johnson Ben Campbell:

Libertarian Evangelism Stephen K. Pickard, 1999-06-01 Has the church abdicated its responsibility for and privilege of spreading the gospel Has this baptismal birthright been forgotten or denied out of ignorance poor example or even misinformation Stephen Pickard argues that the church is called to be a community of the evangel and thus a community that seeks to embody the glad tidings of God in all of its life He addresses two issues the relationship of evangelism to systematic theology and the relationship of evangelism to the church In the case of the former he calls for a recovery of the complementary nature of theology and evangelism the theory and practice of the gospel discussing what this might involve and how it may benefit the church's evangelistic task This evangelistic task is then developed further in terms of the dynamics of communication Regarding evangelism and its relation to the church Pickard contends that the locus for evangelism has to be the Christian community its life of worship and discipleship in the world But the church must be reconceived missiologically in terms of the Great Commission and as a community for the praise of God

The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism

Rethinking Evangelism Ben Campbell Johnson, 1987

Understanding Evangelism J. D. Payne, 2025-09-30 When seeking to understand evangelism it can be difficult to know where to begin due to the wealth of written material available on the topic This one stop textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to evangelism from an evangelical perspective It draws from the diverse and vast literature on the topic to help readers share the gospel at home and throughout the world Understanding Evangelism emerges from the author's experiences as a pastor missionary evangelist and professor of evangelism and from his expertise as a scholar in the field The book provides the necessary biblical knowledge cultural awareness and practical insights for every Christ follower to participate in the privilege of partnering with the Spirit in the world The first part of the book covers contemporary definitions of evangelism the global status of world evangelization and personal motives and ethics for evangelism The second part addresses its biblical and theological foundations while the third part offers a historical overview The fourth part focuses on cultural contexts and effective communication of the gospel The book concludes with contemporary issues that offer practical guidance in the ministry of evangelism Pedagogical tools including case studies sidebars figures and reflection questions help students retain information

Pastoral Spirituality Ben Campbell Johnson, 1988-01-01 Is the pastor a performer manager entertainer therapist or bureaucrat While modern pastors are often associated with roles like these Ben Campbell Johnson examines ministry and all its functions from a spiritual perspective and helps pastors see themselves as individuals called by God With exercises designed to help them reflect on their experiences he helps ministers recapture the essence of their calling      Invitation to Evangelism Timothy K. Beougher, 2021-08-24 Essential guidance for a lifestyle of sharing God's good news with a lost world What exactly does it mean to evangelize in a Christian sense And how is such evangelizing supposed to be done Longtime pastor evangelist and professor of evangelism Timothy K Beougher answers these questions and more from theological historical and practical perspectives Beougher demonstrates God's goodness in evangelism through relatable anecdotes Bible teaching and encouraging instruction Invitation to Evangelism welcomes believers into the experience of stepping out in faith of behalf of people God loves Most Christians know that they should be sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with nonbelievers and most also know they aren't witnessing very well or even at all They need help internalizing the content of gospel proclamation and identifying the best way to go about making evangelism a natural part of their lives Invitation to Evangelism guides readers through the essential issues of the gospel message evangelism methods and witnessing models so they are ready and excited to move out in faith as everyday evangelists Beougher's biblical theological historical and practical teaching revolves around following essential aspects of being an evangelist Having compassion as the motivation for evangelism Understanding the good news of Jesus Christ Seeing lost people as persons God loves Relying on the power of the Holy Spirit Paving the way for new believers to share their faith eagerly with others      The Evangelistic Love of God & Neighbor Bishop Scott J. Jones, 2010-08-01 There are it seems as many definitions of the term evangelism as there are people doing the defining For some it means proclaiming the gospel to those who have not heard it To others it means making disciples of Jesus Christ To others it means working for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God For still others it has principally to do with building vibrant healthy congregations Underlying this confusion is a fundamental inability to locate the practice of evangelism within one's overall theological convictions We will never understand the part that proclamation disciple making kingdom building and church growth play in evangelism until we first ask a more important question What does evangelism have to do with who God is What is it we know about God that makes evangelism a central part of what it means to be Christian In this comprehensive theology of evangelism Scott J Jones proposes to ground the practice of evangelism in an understanding of God's love for the world specifically as seen in the incarnation of God in Christ In Jesus God took on all of what it means to be human Because of this evangelism must be a ministry to the whole person The typical distinctions between soul winning social action and church growth evaporate individual conversion and acts of mercy are part of the same ministry of bringing persons more fully into the reign of a loving God      Discerning God's Will Ben Campbell Johnson, 1990-01-01 Popular author Ben Campbell Johnson discusses how the will of God relies on the depths of the human psyche He addresses in specific terms how one may use intuition imagination and memory to ascertain the leading of God's will Johnson claims that once God's will is sensed one must trust that God will continue to give guidance For each chapter a series of reflection exercises is provided along with a brief guide to the process of discernment Missional Church Daniel L. Guder,1998-02-09 What would a theology of the Church look like that took seriously the fact that North America is now itself a mission field This question lies at the foundation of this volume written by an ecumenical team of six noted missiologists Lois Barrett Inagrace T Dietterich Darrell L Guder George R Hunsberger Alan J Roxburgh and Craig Van Gelder The result of a three year research project undertaken by The Gospel and Our Culture Network this book issues a firm challenge for the church to recover its missional call right here in North America while also offering the tools to help it do so The authors examine North America's secular culture and the church's loss of dominance in today's society They then present a biblically based theology that takes seriously the church's missional vocation and draw out the consequences of this theology for the structure and institutions of the church The Continuing Conversion of the Church Darrell L. Guder,2000-03-20 Western society is now a very different very difficult mission field In such a situation the mission of evangelism cannot succeed with an attitude of business as usual This volume builds a theology of evangelism that has its focus on the church itself Darrell Guder shows that the church's missionary calling requires that the theology and practice of evangelism be fundamentally rethought and redirected focused on the continuing evangelization of the church so that it can carry out its witness faithfully in today's world In Part 1 Guder explores how under the influence of reductionism and individualism the church has historically moved away from a biblical theology of evangelism Part 2 presents contemporary challenges to the church's evangelical ministry especially those challenges that illustrate the church's need for continuing conversion Part 3 discusses what a truly missional theology would mean for the church including sweeping changes in its institutional structures and practices Written for teachers church leaders and students of evangelism this volume is vital reading for everyone engaged in mission work Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches Robert Benedetto,Donald K. McKim,2023-10-15 As its name implies the Reformed tradition grew out of the 16th century Protestant Reformation The Reformed churches consider themselves to be the Catholic Church reformed The movement originated in the reform efforts of Huldrych Zwingli 1484 1531 of Zurich and John Calvin 1509 1564 of Geneva Although the Reformed movement was dependent upon many Protestant leaders it was Calvin's tireless work as a writer preacher teacher and social and ecclesiastical reformer that provided a substantial body of literature and an ethos from which the Reformed tradition grew Today the Reformed churches are a multicultural multiethnic and multinational phenomenon Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 1 000 cross referenced entries on leaders personalities events facts movements and beliefs of the Reformed churches This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about reformed churches Speaking of God Ben Campbell Johnson,1991-01-01 Many mainline churches today have members both laity and clergy who find it a problem to speak face to face about God This creative book offers a theological foundation practical suggestions and a positive model for sharing faith Ben Campbell Johnson combines evangelism and spiritual guidance in order to provide a fresh image and a new style of faith sharing He gives a model of spiritual direction that offers a positive attractive way of doing face to face evangelical work Preaching Through Luke James C. Goodloe IV, 2014-01-22 Luke wrote this Gospel so that you Theophilus may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught i e catechesis 1 4 It proceeds with a barrage of questions The first comes from Zechariah How shall I know 1 18 This is a question of knowledge The angel Gabriel answers that we shall know by the word of God 1 19 The second comes from Mary How will this be 1 34 This is a question of agency of how the Son of God can become human Gabriel answers that it will be by the power of God 1 35 The third comes from Elizabeth Why me 1 43 Why should the gospel of Jesus Christ come to her Mary answers that it has to do with God s choice election mercy and salvation 1 47 55 The fourth has to do with John What then will this child be 1 66 Zechariah answers that he will be a prophet 1 76 79 John is not the Christ but he will go before the Christ Thus begins the catechism according to Luke a series of questions in order that we may have certainty concerning the things we have been taught Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God s people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit s transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God s people In other words God s people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel To Pray God's Will Ben Campbell Johnson, 1987-01-01 Looking upon Christian life as a spiritual journey Ben Campbell Johnson discusses the importance of prayer for those who want to continue their progress toward God He shows that the life of prayer involves all the human faculties reason imagination emotion and will As ways of deepening knowledge and love of God he considers meditation and contemplation and gives helpful suggestions for their practice He shows how a deeper awareness of God has social implications and leads to a vision of a transformed world Johnson discusses his own need for a guide on the spiritual journey illustrating how such a companion can help others He emphasizes the importance of keeping a journal and gives practical help in getting started with it Faithful Witnesses Richard Stoll Armstrong, 1987-01-01 Living the Christian Life Robert Homer Ramey, Ben Campbell Johnson, 1992-01-01 Real life situations in today s world constantly challenge people and the authors respond to these challenges by drawing upon the Reformed tradition to provide guidance for spiritual development Includes practical suggestions lesson plans and exercises and recommendations for encouraging spiritual growth Evangelism Among

African American Presbyterians Marsha Snulligan Haney, 2007-05-23 As Presbyterians Lutherans Methodists Disciples of Christ and other predominantly European centered Christian denominations of North America seek to respond as a faith community to the increasingly dynamic ethnic and cultural diversity within our society this book offers a sobering yet valuable perspective By understanding the ministry of Christian evangelism as a construct that speaks of the power of divine transformation personal and communal and the embrace of a way of life this work argues for a multi variant approach that values the philosophical aspects of cultural differences which are effective and faithful models of Christian evangelism An analysis of key missiological concepts such as mission histories ethno theologies worldview culture ethnic cohesion and contextualization is appropriated to illuminate the theological voices and evangelical practices of a specific people or ethnicity shaped by a journey of spiritual faith While the numerical significance of self identified African American Presbyterians may appear small their synergistic encounter of human identity and religious faith historical experience in the church and the impact of their evangelical presence provide an excellent case study for discerning the twenty first century challenges of evangelism This thorough study of history theology organizational structures methods and techniques will serve as a valuable tool in evaluating the impact of the faith journey of African American Presbyterians and its challenges for today and the future     Journal of Ecumenical Studies ,1987     The Gospel Connection Michael Marshall, 1990 Sequel to The gospel conspiracy in the Episcopal Church
