International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity

Routledge Revivals: The Challenge of Islam (2005) Douglas Pratt, 2016-10-04 First published in 2005 this book addresses the challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter and attempts to enable outsiders to understand the religion of Islam The author offers distinctive perspectives that compliment much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the west The book is divided into three parts Part I constitutes an introduction to Islam Part II delves into aspects of the wider encounter with Islam and Part III explores issues in regard to the prospect of engaging in dialogue with Islam The author argues that in the post 9 11 world the imperative to understand and engage with Islam is urgent and intends this work to assist the reader in doing so Faith and Freedom

David Neville, Philip Matthews, 2003 Australian Christians like Christians in many societies live in a pluralistic culture This makes the issues of faith freedom and their interrelationship all the more critical In a pluralist context Christian faith and freedom must be expressed and embodied in a coherent rather than discordant way The authors of these reflections on key ethical concerns represent the Anabaptist Anglican Baptist Lutheran Methodist Presbyterian Roman Catholic and Uniting Church traditions yet there is a harmony within this plurality of theological and ecclesiological voices Contributors include John Howard Yoder Charles Birch Stanley Hauerwas and Thorwald Lorenzen Wisdom for Life Michael Andrew

Kelly, Mark A. O'Brien, 2005 This volume draws on scholars from a variety of theological disciplines scripture history systematic theology The essays are designed to encourage readers to become more critically reflective as they engage with biblical texts and contemporary concerns God Down Under Winifred Wing Han Lamb, 2003 The papers in this volume of essays arose out of a lively conversation involving theologians religious leaders biblical scholars historians philosophers ethicists youth workers poets and welfare activists in Canberra in 2000 The Relationship of Philosophy to Religion Today Paolo Diego Bubbio, Philip Andrew Quadrio, 2011-01-18 The Relationship of Philosophy to Religion Today is a collection of texts authored by philosophers with an interest in contemporary philosophy of religion its merits and its limitations The collection has been stimulated by such questions as What ought philosophy of religion be and How ought philosophy relate to religion today In pursuing such questions the editors have asked the contributors to offer their insights and reflections on issues that they see as important to contemporary philosophy of religion with the goal of producing a collection of texts offering the reader a variety of perspectives without privileging any particular philosophical religious or irreligious orientation The book covers such themes as the relationship between religion and modernity faith in keeping with reason contemplation the merits and limitations of the atheism and the relationship between philosophy religion and politics

Christianity, Modernity and Culture John Stenhouse, G. A. Wood, 2005 For much of the twentieth century New Zealand historians like most Western scholars largely took it for granted that as modernity waxed religion would wane Secularization the fading into insignificance of religion would distinguish the modern era from previous ages Until the 1980s only a handful of scholars around the world raised serious empirical and theoretical questions about a Grand Theory that had become central to the self understanding of the social sciences and of the modern world Heated debates since then and the unmistakable resurgence of world religions have raised fundamental questions about the empirical and theoretical adequacy of secularization theory and especially about how far it applies outside Europe This volume revisits New Zealand history when secularization is no longer taken for granted as the Only Big Story that illuminates the country's social and cultural history Contributors explore how New Zealanders' diverse religious and spiritual traditions have shaped practical everyday concerns in politics racial and ethnic relations science the environment family life gender relations and other domains
