Rethinking Development International Reading Association, 1975 Globalization Gernot Kohler, Emilio José Chaves, 2003 The majority of people around the world are experiencing oppressive and destructive forces which manifest themselves in starvation income polarisation joblessness stress violence and so on What is the nature of these forces If we call them globalisation can there be good globalisation as well as bad globalisation Is this a new phenomenon or just a continuation of history as it has always been This book brings together a wide range of expertise addressing these problems from a world systems perspective

Democracy and National Identity in Thailand Michael Kelly Connors, 2003-09-02 This book seeks to illuminate how Thai elites have used democracy as an instrument for order and discipline Drawing on interviews numerous Thai language sources and critical theory the author reveals a remarkable adaptation of the idea of democracy in the Thai context Connors shows how elites have drawn on Western political theory to design projects to create modern citizens He argues that it is possible to see the idea and practice of elite liberal democracy in Thailand and elsewhere as a key ideological resource in the project of securing hegemony over undisciplined populations In this perspective the ideas of civil society civic virtue social capital and democracy itself are all part of the weaponry deployed in an effort to create good citizens who act as guardians of the elite defined common good

From People's War to People's Rule Timothy J. Lomperis, 2000-11-09 Timothy Lomperis persuasively argues the ironic point that the lessons of American involvement in Vietnam are not to be found in any analysis of the war by itself Rather he proposes a comparison of the Vietnam experience with seven other cases of Western intervention in communist insurgencies during the Cold War era China Indochina Greece the Philippines Malaya Cambodia and Laos Lomperis maintains that popular insurgencies are manifestations of crises in political legitimacy which occur as a result of the societal stresses caused by modernization Therefore he argues any intervention in a people s war will succeed or fail depending on how it affects this crisis The unifying theme in the cases Lomperis discusses is the power of land reform and electoral democracy to cement political legitimacy and therefore deflect revolutionary movements Applying this theory to the ongoing Sendero Luminoso insurgency in Peru Lomperis makes a qualified prediction of that conflict s outcome He concludes that a global trend toward democratization has produced a new era of people s rule Social Change and Planning , Power, Protest and Participation Subrata K. Mitra,2021-09-05 This book first published in 1992 examines the attitudes of local elites the hinge between Indian state and rural society towards protest and participation in development illuminating arguments about the nature of the state as well as the development process It looks at the role of local elites in India both as the representatives of the state and of the rest of rural society and explains their importance in the country s development The book deals with the elites contribution to the credibility of the state and examines the strategies through which they manipulate the allocation of resources and influence the pace and direction of social change It contrasts the rural elites in two areas one more economically advanced than the other The elites in the first area were shown to be capable of combining institutional participation with radical protest whilst in the other they tended to rely on state channels to achieve reform The author concludes that despite the different settings both groups were informed active and responsive to political conditions This contrasts with the conventional view that local elites of the dominant castes oppress the lower ones by obstructing reforms for reasons of self interest Over-stating the Arab State Nazih N. Ayubi,1996-12-31 The author s objective within this book is to place the Arab world within a theoretical and comparative framework that avoids both orientalist and fundamentalist insistence on the utter peculiarity and uniqueness of the region The book focuses in detail on eight Arab countries Dar Al Islam--the Mediterranean, the World System and the Wider Europe Peter Herrmann,Arno Tausch,2005 With the process of a wider Europe EU Commission President Romano Prodi s ring of friends that extends from Marrakech in Morocco to St Petersburg in Russia gathering speed the growing rift between Europe and America also is about how to deal politically with the countries of the Mediterranean Muslim world The house of Islam Dar al Islam was pivotal to the European path to the Renaissance and to the re discovery of classic Greek philosophy The Mediterranean policy of the European Union aims at a positive and co operative relationship with the region A successful integration of the Mediterranean South would have tremendous and positive repercussions for regional and world peace World wide leading experts from the field of world systems analysis economics integration theory political science theology and area studies agnostics Christians Jews and Muslims alike discuss the issue with European decision makers The outcome is an interdisciplinary evaluation of this projected export of peace co operation dialogue and stability in the framework of world centre periphery relationships Against Islamophobia Arno Tausch,2007 In this book the author presents optimistic socio liberal conclusions about Islam in the world system Countering some alarmist voices in the West neither migration nor Muslim culture are to be blamed for the contemporary crisis but the very nature of unequal capitalist accumulation and dependency that is at the core of the world capitalist system For one the analysis is based on current thinking on Kondratiev waves of world political development inherent in recent work by IIASA and the NATO Institute for Advanced Studies Analyses are also presented on the framework of the debate on cross national determinants of human well being in the world system While the author is cautiously optimistic about a socio liberal non interventionist policy alternative he has come to the conclusion that present patterns of global governance modeled around the neo liberal Washington Consensus and American hyperpower are doomed for failure A new socio liberal global consensus on global migration global order and global governance could emerge instead

The City on the Hill? Arno Tausch,2007 Development Theory Jan Nederveen Pieterse,2009-09-18 This exciting book is a tour de force spanning a broad range of approaches to development It does not stop at critique as so many previous books on these issues have done but offers a unique perspective on future possibilities and the shape of things to come It should be essential reading on all development studies courses Andrea Cornwall Institute of Development Studies University of Sussex Praise for the previous edition This marvellous book should be read by every social scientist interested in development studies Keith Griffin University of California Riverside This is the second edition of this successful book Written by one of the leading authorities in the field it Situates students in the expanding field of development theory Provides an unrivalled guide to the strengths and weaknesses of competing theoretical approaches Explains key concepts Examines the shifts in theory Offers an agenda for the future Jan Nederveen brings together a huge range of experience and knowledge about the relationship between the economically advanced and the emerging developing nations

Routledge Library Editions: World Empires Various,2021-07-09 The 16 volumes in this set originally published between 1919 and 1998 draw together research by leading academics in the area of World Empires and provide an examination of related key issues The books examine French Colonialism the German Empire and the Ottoman Empire as well as the effect European colonialism had in Africa and Asia This set will be of particular interest to students of world history

The Dissolution of the Colonial Empires Franz Ansprenger, 2018-05-01 First published in 1989 On the eve of the First World War almost 72 million square kilometres of territory and more than 560 million people were under colonial rule By 1980 the European colonial empires had disappeared from the map Concentrating in particular on the British Commonwealth and the French colonial empire the author shows how economic and political changes in the mother countries the awakening national consciousness of the African and Asian peoples and the effects of two World Wars had all compelled Europe to decolonize He argues that although a satisfactory new order in world politics and the global economy has not been achieved in the process the dissolution of the empires came about with remarkably little bloodshed thereby laying a solid foundation for the future The author concludes by looking at the legacy of the decolonized world in the late 1980s He examines the last bastion of European colonial domination South Africa and discusses the emerging new North South relations

The Decolonial Turn in Media Studies in Africa and the Global South Last Moyo, 2020-09-09 This book develops a nuanced decolonial critique that calls for the decolonization of media and communication studies in Africa and the Global South Last Moyo argues that the academic project in African Media Studies and other non Western regions continues to be shaped by Western modernity's histories of imperialism colonialism and the ideologies of Eurocentrism and neoliberalism While Africa and the Global South dismantled the physical empire of colonialism after independence the metaphysical empire of epistemic and academic colonialism is still intact and entrenched in the postcolonial university's academic programmes like media and communication studies To address these problems Moyo argues for the development of a Southern theory that is not only premised on the decolonization imperative but also informed by the cultures geographies and histories of the Global South The author recasts media studies within a radical cultural and epistemic turn that locates future projects of theory building within a decolonial multiculturalism that is informed by trans cultural and trans epistemic dialogue between Southern and Northern epistemologies
