Rethinking Development Putting An End To Poverty:

Rethinking Development Henri Bartoli, 2000 If major prospects of progress are to be opened up for human beings and if the struggle against multidimensional poverty is to be successfully waged throughout the world the current programs of action are not sufficient nor is a reliance on globalization As the United Nations Development Programme points out globalization which is subject to the pitiless markets threatens solidarity which is the invisible heart of human development Rather according to Henri Bartoli in his hard hitting new book a new paradigm must be defined and new strategies must be proposed Rules institutions and procedures must be invented which will strengthen the governance and governability of the economy at global regional and local levels a radical renewal of economic thinking on which all efforts to rationalize are based Henri Bartoli is emeritus professor of economics at University of Paris I Panth on Sorbonne and international vice president of the European Society for Culture Copublished with UNESCO Rethinking Development Henri Bartoli, 2000

The Preferential Option for the Poor beyond Theology Daniel G. Groody, Gustavo A. Gutiérrez, 2016-10-15 Since the 1973 publication of Gustavo Gutiérrez's groundbreaking work A Theology of Liberation liberation theology's central premise of the preferential option for the poor has become one of the most important yet controversial theological themes of the twentieth century As the situation for many of the world's poor worsens it becomes ever more important to ensure that the option for the poor remains not only a vibrant theological concept but also a practical framework for living out the gift and challenge of Christian faith The Preferential Option for the Poor beyond Theology draws on a diverse group of contributors to explore how disciplines as varied as law economics politics the environment science liberal arts film and education can help us understand putting a commitment to the option for the poor into practice The central focus of the book revolves around the question How can one live a Christian life in a world of destitution The contributors address the theological concept of the option for the poor as well as the ways it can shape our social economic political educational and environmental approaches to poverty Their creative examples serve as an inspiration to all those who are seeking to put their talents at the service of human need and the building of a more just and humane world Proceedings from the International Conference on Advances in Engineering and Technology (AET2006) Jackson Mwakali, 2006-10-19 Proceedings from the International Conference on Advances in Engineering and Technology AET2006 Sustainable Development Policy and Administration Gedeon M. Mudacumura, Desta Mebratu, M. Shamsul Haque, 2017-09-25 Sustainable Development Policy and Administration provides a learning resource describing the major issues that are critical to understanding the multiple dimensions of sustainable development The overall theme of each contributed chapter in this book is the urgent need to promote global sustainability while adding insights into the challenges facing the current and future generations This volume brings together diverse contributions that cover the multiple facets of development resulting in a rich reference for students development managers and others interested in this emerging field Beauty in African Thought Angela Roothaan, Bolaji

Bateye, Mahmoud Masaeli, Louise Müller, 2023-03-20 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Beauty in African Thought A Critique of the Western Idea of Development investigates how the concept of beauty in African philosophy and related qualitative social sciences may contribute to a richer intercultural exchange on the idea of development While working within frameworks created in post colonial and arguably neo colonial times African thinkers have reacted against the mainstream view that restricts the meaning and scope of good development to economic growth and western style education These thinkers have worked toward a critical self understanding of the potentials inherent in cultural spiritual and political traditions since pre colonial times Edited by Bolaji Bateye Mahmoud Masaeli Louise Müller and Angela Roothaan this collection explores branches of thought from wisdom or oral traditions to political thought and philosophy of culture This book is urgent reading material for any policy maker scholar or student wishing to attend to the voices of Africanist thinkers who search for alternative approaches to global questions of development in a time of climate change and increasing socio economic inequality

Sport for Development and Peace Simon Darnell, 2012-03-15 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com The role of sport in development initiatives has grown dramatically over the last five years now finding a place in the UN's millennium development goals In Sport and Development for Peace Simon Darnell outlines the most recent sociological research on the role of sport in development initiatives The book analyses the relationship between sport and international development and looks at what this reveals about socio political economy It addresses a gap in the literature by focusing on issues of politics power and culture particularly looking at volunteer experience mega sporting events and sporting celebrity in the context of development Darnell questions the belief that sport can offer a solution to enduring development issues Drawing on the latest empirical research the book is a thorough and timely analysis of the social and political implications of tying sport to development

consumer culture and provide a critical scholarly resource on consumption and consumerism

Globalization and Organization Gili S. Drori, John W. Meyer, Hokyu Hwang, 2006-05-18 All around the world societies are experiencing an explosion of organizations and organizing community clubs religious groups social movements as well as schools hospitals businesses and government agencies increasingly take the form of complex and formal organization Why Why is global society recast in this format and why so fiercely This book explores various dimensions of the trends of expansion formalization and standardization of organizing worldwide by exploring such organizational legacies as accounting business management corporate social responsibility and performance benchmarks Featuring contributions from prominent academics the book argues that these processes can be attributed to globalization and to its specific tendencies of universalism rationalization and rise of the modern notion of the strongly bounded and purposive social actor An application of institutional arguments to global issues the book will be of interest to academics and researchers of Organization Studies Sociology Political Science and Geography

Communicative Sustainability Thomas Bearth, Rose Marie Beck, Reinald Döbel, 2014 The failure to understand communicative practices and preferences of local communities is a frequent reason why development fails to produce expected results Drawing on field research from settings in Indonesia Uganda Namibia and Ivory Coast this book addresses local viewpoints and gender concepts the procedures of deliberation negotiation and appropriation and the clashes of underlying language ideologies and language based social and conceptual projections It is argued that communicative factors are not reducible to economic ones but need independent attention in development planning and are ultimately decisive for outcomes The book also includes a CD with video sampling Series Swiss Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 4

Language and Politics in Africa John Obiero Ogone, Daniel Ochieng Orwenjo, 2020-05-15 Language and Politics in Africa is a fine collection of both empirically and theoretically based articles from across the African continent and beyond but all focusing on the twin issues of Language and Politics in post colonial African countries The authors offer critical perspectives on contemporary theoretical empirical and policy issues related to language and how such issues manifest themselves at the inevitable interface with politics in a number of African countries Coming at a time when most African countries are still grappling with language policy and planning issues while others are increasingly having to contend with the political outcomes of linguistically and ethnically heterogeneous nation states the present volume is a must read for scholars and students who are interested on the twin issues of language and politics since it represents one of the first attempts at documenting how language and politics affect each other in a number of African countries The volume is divided into two sections dealing with the politics of language and the language of politics in African countries

Business, Globalization and the Common Good Henri Claude de Bettignies, François Lépineux, 2009 Globalization and information technology are driving the world into a new era Is it the responsibility of business to pursue the common good and more precisely to participate in the construction of the global common good This book brings together contributions from various disciplines written by scholars who are at the forefront of this debate It provides multiple insights into a tripartite relationship business globalization and the common good It helps explain why the business sphere will probably not be in a position to ignore the common good much longer and why this latter concept widely ignored in today s management realm is likely to become part of tomorrow s corporate policies and practices in the global context Finally this work opens up a plethora of avenues for future research calling for the development of transdisciplinary approaches and for the elaboration of a research program embracing theoretical empirical and spiritual perspectives to tackle this complex issue Catalogue Unesco Publishing,2004 The Age of Development Jimmy Dabhi,2006 In Indian context Transformation of India as a Knowledge Superpower Krishnaswamy Venkatasubramanian,2002 International Labour Documentation International Labour Organization. Bureau of Library and Information Services,2000 Preventing Illegal Immigration Claude-Valentin Marie,Council of Europe. Directorate of Social and Health Affairs,2004-01-01 Illegal immigration has been near the top of the political agendas of the member states of the Council of Europe for almost two decades They are worried about the scale of the problem and frightened that it might exacerbate existing social tensions This report which was discussed at the 7th conference of European Ministers responsible for Migration Affairs in Helsinki in September 2002 surveys the problems and offers some recommendations on future policy After defining illegal immigration it discusses the organised traffic in human beings and the measures to control and deter settlement It then examines the particular problems of the enlargement of the EU and Community policy before looking at the underlying demographic and economic trends and their effect on the labour market The recommendations focus on a desire for a transparent system which harmonises asylum and immigration policy and allows a positive regulation of labour migration Economic and Political Weekly ,2002-07
