Rethinking Pastoral Care Una M. Collins, Jean McNiff, 1999 This book looks at how teachers can attempt to give good quality pastoral care whether as a form tutor in the first instance or in a managerial role further along in their development

Rethinking Pastoral Care Charles Martin, Sr., 2020-09-30 Rethinking Pastoral Care ushers the reader into consideration of the pastoral care ministry in the context of the African American church The racial context of the African American church is experiencing a change that affects the method and development of ministry in the church The issue of concern involves the mass of individuals in the African American church who are involved in biracial relationships or are themselves of biracial heterogeneity Does the African American church offer a ministry of pastoral care designed to meet the needs of a racially diverse group of people What is the design of an approach to pastoral care suitable for a racially diverse family or individual in the church These questions and others guide the discussion on this vital ministry in the African American and multi cultural church The reader will find helpful information for ministry in any racially diverse context This book examines the racially changing context in the American church and community This book guides the reader in thoughtful reflection of the traditional approach of pastoral care a reevaluation of its methods challenge the reader to rethink his or her approach to pastoral care in the midst of the racially changing context Rethinking Pastoral Care with African Americans Charles C. Martin, 2000 Listening Ministry Susan K. Hedahl, This book presents a unique blend of theological reflection on listening new and tested research on listening as it relates to church leadership and suggested forms of listening education and skills assessment in a continual effort to locate and understand listening as the heart of effective and faithful ministry Prophetic Witness in World Christianities Annemie Dillen, Anne Vandenhoeck, 2011 Prophets have a reputation of changing for the better the relationship between people and God Christianity has a long history of prophets who have directed the faithful towards more justice and righteousness What can Christians learn from prophets for daily life for contemporary theology and for pastoral care This book looks at prophetic action from a biblical pastoral and ethical perspective The contributions from both pastoral theologians and pastors from around the globe make this study a unique exercise in maintaining the prophetic perspective in theological reflection and pastoral practice Series International Practical Theology Vol 13 When All Else Fails Wayne L. Menking, 2013-09-05 The condition of stuck is a condition well known by pastoral caregivers and leaders In When All Else Fails Wayne Menking argues that the way out of stuckness is not through the acquisition of faddish techniques but through a deep rethinking of our pastoral vocation and what our pastoral work is to be about Pastoral care and leadership are not indistinguishable just as priestly work can never be separated from prophetic work They are always one and the same Pastoral care and leadership then are not about helping people relieve their anxiety through the offering of palliative comfort but rather helping people to engage the powers that have hold of their life so as to leave what is old for what is new In this engagement the caregiver will always encounter powers against which niceness and unconditional love will not work Using biblical images and narratives that depict God as a deeply empathic and compassionate God yet one who is never adaptively sympathetic Menking asserts that pastoral caregivers and leaders must shed their niceness and adaptivity so as to employ their God given power if they are to help people effectively leave what is old for what is new

Pastoral Care in Context John Patton, 2005-01-01 An expert in the field of pastoral care John Patton demonstrates that pastoral care is a ministry of the church He focuses on the community of faith as an authorizer and source of care and upon the relationship between the pastor and a caring community Patton identifies and compares three paradigms of pastoral care the classical the clinical pastoral and the communal contextual This third paradigm emphasizes the caring community and the various contexts for care rather than focusing on pastoral care as the work of the ordained pastor

Robertson, 2023-03-01 The COVID 19 pandemic accelerated the digital revolution faster than anyone expected In a few weeks faith communities around the world were thrust into developing fully digital ministries some doing it well and others struggling along the way However this moment of crisis opened the opportunity for all faith communities to reach unprecedented numbers of people and truly become ministries without walls Yet many churches have failed to fully incorporate a digital vision into their long term plan for ministry and have largely reverted to in person programs and services because of a lack of direction on how to build high quality and sustainable digital ministries Building Your Digital Sanctuary is an introductory guide for pastors and communications teams on how to lay the foundation of an impactful and sustainable digital sanctuary alongside your in person ministries Drawing on the wisdom of some of digital ministry experts this practical guide will provide the inspiration and insight churches need to minister in the emerging digital age

Soft Shepherd or Almighty Pastor Annemie Dillen, 2015-03-26 In Soft Shepherd or Almighty Pastor contributors seek to go beyond the taboo on power within pastoral contexts They not only discuss fundamental theological and philosophical questions about power but also develop ways to prevent power abuse in pastoral context Power is considered as omnipresent and is analyzed in its positive and negative aspects Not only the classical associations of power over or domination are discussed in relation to ecclesial and pastoral situations but also forms of power linked to Rethinking Outdoor, Experiential and Informal Education Tony Jeffs, Jon Ord, 2017-09-14 This book seeks to bring together the two disciplines of informal and outdoor education and challenges readers to think differently about outdoor and adventure education It develops core ideas and thinking about informal education within outdoor settings and explores how its principles and practice can enhance outdoor education A wide range of contributors look in detail at the concept of change in the outdoors whilst also considering the ways in which this expanding field might exploit opportunities offered to young people and adults to engage in reflective informal education It encourages outdoor educators to experience their immediate surroundings in new and innovative ways and grasp the challenge of promoting a sustainable lifestyle Offering a fresh perspective on shifting the outdoor education agenda from that of skills acquisition and narrow learning to the social and political as well as aesthetic and philosophical opportunities embodied within the outdoor experience this book will be valuable reading for those studying or working in the field of outdoor education

Social inequality and interreligious learning Alexander Unser ,2019 Interreligious learning is viewed as a key educational task today Increasing religious plurality in our societies and associated risks of societal tensions and conflicts necessitate that students deal at school with other religions their belief systems and the social reality of those who believe in them Although several international studies have shown that some categories of students are at risk to be disadvantaged at school because of social inequality this problem is currently not considered in theories of interreligious learning Therefore the present study investigates whether or not categories of students are disadvantaged in interreligious learning In addition to theological and pedagogical insights about the problem of social inequality this book presents an empirically validated action theoretical model which helps to understand why some students have better or worse opportunities in interreligious learning The action theoretical model further proposes strategies to address unequal learning conditions in interreligious learning

Prophecy and Politics in South African Pentecostalism Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, 2023-12-28 This book is an interdisciplinary study of the relationship between prophecy and politics in South African Pentecostalism The role and the power of prophecy in enhancing the presence of politicians in the church square are unpacked through historical examples as well as case studies of contemporary prophets Solomon Kgatle argues that the influence of prophecy in politics has the potential to weaken the prophetic voice of the church in general and the Pentecostal movement in particular He proposes a Pentecostal political theology of prophecy This theology is developed by taking into cognizance the theoretical and theological frameworks of prophetic imagination and pneumatological imagination In addition this theology seeks a balance between prophecy and power and prophecy and sovereignty

Action Research Jean McNiff, 2002-01-22 Since the first edition of this established text was published in 1988 action research has gained ground as a popular method amongst educational researchers and in particular for practising teachers doing higher level courses In this new edition Jean McNiff provides updates on methodological discussions and includes new sections of case study material and information on supporting action research The book raises issues about how action research is theorised whether it is seen as a spectator discipline or as a real life practice and how practitioners position themselves within the debate It discusses the importance for educators of understanding their own work and showing how their educative influence can lead to the development of good orders in formal and informal learning settings and in the wider community This second edition comes at a time when after years of debate over what counts as action research it is now considered an acceptable and useful part of mainstream research practice

Action Research in Organisations Jean McNiff, Jack Whitehead, 2002-01-04 The current orthodoxy is that knowledge is the most powerful resource for organisational success So how can managers develop the appropriate knowledge base to make their organisations grow The answer lies in action research Action research is increasingly perceived and used as a powerful methodology to promote professional awareness and development However there are very few texts that demonstrate how this can be utilised to promote management and organisational improvement or that emphasise the reflective nature of improving professionalism Action Research in Organisations fills this gap Aimed at both practising managers and university students alike key features of this title include the location of management and organisational theory within a framework examination of the principles and practice of action research real world examples and case studies of people attempting to improve their own situations through action research
