Sociological Life Course Research Matthias Wingens,2022-08-04 This introductory book provides an insight into sociological life course research and informs about its theoretical assumptions analytical concepts and main results Sociological life course research like biographical research has developed into an independent and fruitful field of research since the end of the 1960s It is true that half a century earlier in their famous study of The Polish Peasant in Europe and America 1918 20 Thomas and Znaniecki had already used life records to examine the connection between social change social structures and the life histories of individuals However such a research perspective was supplanted by other methodological conceptual approaches to empirical social research for over fifty years It was not until the 1960s that sociological interest in life course and biographical theoretical issues reawakened Today life course research is considered one of the most important conceptual innovations in sociology in recent decades The content The life course as a social construction What is life course research The life course as an institution Collective life courses generations cohorts and social change Structures of the life course Life course research a conceptual perspective Life course research quo vadis The author Prof Dr Matthias Wingens teaches sociology at the University of Bremen Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences BIGSSS      The Labour Market and Older Workers John Blackwell,Mahrez Okba,Bernard Casey,1995 The population in most OECD countries is ageing Will there be enough working age people to support the growing proportion of the population which is above the standard retirement age This question is all the more troubling given the increasing number of workers below the standard retirement age who have been leaving the labour force This volume discusses the labour market for older workers in ten OECD countries Australia Belgium France Germany Italy Japan the Netherlands Sweden the United Kingdom and the United States A companion volume No 16 the transition from work to retirement usefully complements the information      Bulletin on Aging ,1986      U.S. Aging Policy Interest Groups David Dirck Van Tassel,Jimmy Meyer,1992-04-30 This reference book defines the work of major organizations in the United States concerned with public policies that affect 30 million elderly Americans today In depth analyses of the strategies programs and publications of eighty three national non profit and non partisan groups give an overview of citizen work on behalf of the aging and the aged A brief history of organizational development and a listing of pertinent national legislation provides important background information Directories of other important organizations a selected bibliography a full index and cross references make this volume easy for students professionals and citizen activists to use Entries are arranged alphabetically each entry contains sections on the origin and development of the group its organization and funding policy concerns and tactics electoral activity and publications and sources for further information This volume joins a series of references that deal with the formation of public policy among different interest groups in the United States      Age and Employment ,1993 Part one looks at the status of older workers in four EC countries Part two presents the results of a 1992 survey of policies and practices concerning the employment of older workers in 17 organizations in the UK Index of Conference Proceedings, 1993 Untapped Resources Kalyani Mehta, 2005 A paradoxical outcome of modernisation and improved mortality rates in Asia is the emergence of an ageing population particularly the women Older women in Asia having assumed the subservient role in society are not well placed to fend for themselves in a society that threatens to relegate them further down the social ladder This book comprises papers on the conditions and concerns of women in societies across Asia highlighting specific problems and proposals that need to be looked at urgently Resources in Education, 1997 International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Branch, 1991 Haematologica (Rome, Italy), 1999 Aging in Rural Settings Raymond T. Coward, John A. Krout, 1998 This text provides the critical dimensions of growing old in rural environments Prominent researchers explore issues related to life conditions diversity services and public policies for rural elders A comprehensive overview of the field this volume addresses the major contemporary themes that dominate rural living today Special attention is given to populations such as women African Americans the oldest old and the poor generally considered at greater risk of poor health social isolation and economic vulnerability The Ageing of Asian Populations United Nations. Department for Economic and Social Information and Policy Analysis, 1994 Work Across the Lifespan Boris Baltes, Cort W. Rudolph, Hannes Zacher, 2019-01-08 Work Across the Lifespan coalesces theoretical and empirical perspectives on aging and work This volume examines a collection of human development theories that explain trajectories of change including patterns of growth maintenance and decline across the adult lifespan At its core the lifespan perspective assumes a focus on aging as a continuous process of intraindividual change and goal based self regulation In this text the lifespan perspective serves as a lens for examining the complex relationship between aging and work Integrating research from the fields of developmental psychology as well as industrial work and organizational psychology this authoritative reference brings together the collective thinking of researchers who study work careers organizations and aging
