Secrets Of The Card Sharps:

Secrets of the Card Sharps Gerard Majax, 1977-05 Secrets of the Card Sharps Gerard Majax, E. W. Egan, 1977-01-01 Sharps and Flats John Nevil Maskelyne, 2022-11-21

In Sharps and Flats John Nevil Maskelyne delves into the intricate world of deception specifically focusing on the art of magic and its intersection with sleight of hand and misdirection. Written in a clear engaging style that combines both wit and a scholarly approach, Maskelyne enhances the discourse on performance magic within the context of late Victorian society. The book not only serves as a manual for aspiring magicians but also critiques the societal fascination with illusion, challenging readers to discern the fine line between deception and skillful entertainment.

John Nevil Maskelyne, a prominent magician and inventor of the late 19th century, crafted Sharps and Flats drawing upon his extensive experience in the field. His upbringing in a family of showmen and his later collaborations with fellow magicians laid a strong foundation for his understanding of the nuances involved in performance art. Maskelyne's insights into the psychology of audiences, honed by years of public performances, are evident throughout the text, revealing the mind behind the magic.

Highly recommended for both enthusiasts of magic and scholars of performance art, Sharps and Flats provides a rich exploration of stagecraft and illusion. Readers will appreciate Maskelyne's blend of technical instruction and philosophical musings, making it a seminal work that transcends mere entertainment, enriching our understanding of human perception and creativity.

An Open Secret Chris Enss, 2023-05-01

The discovery of gold in the southern Black Hills in 1874 set off one of the great gold rushes in America. In 1876 miners moved into the northern Black Hills. That's where they came across a gulch full of dead trees and a creek full of gold and Deadwood was born. Practically overnight the tiny gold camp boomed into a town that played by its own rules and attracted outlaws, gamblers and gunslingers along with the gold seekers. Deadwood was comprised mostly of single men. In the beginning the ratio of men to women was as high as 8 to 1. The lack of affordable housing, the hostile environment, the high cost of travel and the expense of living in Deadwood prevented many men from bringing their wives, girlfriends and families to the growing town. Hordes of prostitutes and madams came to Deadwood to capitalize on the lack of women. By the mid 1880s there were more than a hundred brothels in the mining community. One of the most notorious cat houses in Deadwood was owned and operated by Al Swearengen. Swearengen was an entertainment entrepreneur who opened a house of ill repute shortly after he arrived in town in the spring of 1876. Initially known as The Gem, the brothel was host to several well known soiled doves of the Old West from Eleanora Dumont to Kitty LeRoy. Among the many madams who ran other cat houses in and around Deadwood were Poker Alice Tubbs, Mert O'Hara and Gertrude Bell. The names of some of the most popular brothels in Deadwood Gulch were the Shy Ann Room, Fern's Place, The Cozy Room, the Beige Door and the Shasta Room. After more than a hundred years of continual operation, the brothels in Deadwood were forced to close in 1980. In the summer of 2020 the Beige Door reopened for business. This time as a museum. The Deadwood Historic Preservation Commission, the Main Street

Initiative Committee and Deadwood History Inc DHI developed the idea of opening the only brothel tour in the Black Hills The Brothel Deadwood has had a steady flow of visitors since the tour opened The book An Open Secret The Story of Deadwood's Most Notorious Bordellos focuses on infamous cat houses like the Beige Door those individuals who managed the businesses their employees their well known clientele the various crimes committed at the locations and their ultimate demise
