Section 1983 Litigation In A Nutshell:

Section 1983 Litigation in a Nutshell Michael G. Collins, 2024 Coverage includes the statute's modern revival in Monroe v Pape, municipal liability, individual officer and sovereign immunity, excessive force, litigation choice of law, state and federal court jurisdiction, remedies and attorney's fees. There are also chapters on federal officer liability and the relationship between habeas corpus and section 1983. A helpful tool for practitioners, students, judges and their clerks or anyone wishing to get up to speed on this complex ever-changing topic. Publisher: Constitutional Remedies Michael Wells, Thomas A. Eaton, 2002-10-30 Understanding the impact of constitutional rights in the real world depends on understanding the law of constitutional remedies for their violation. Integrating the history, doctrine and policy of constitutional remedy, Wells and Eaton explain how people go about trying to obtain redress for violations of their constitutional rights. Diverse issues arise when persons seek to bring a lawsuit against governments, officials or private individuals for violation of their constitutional rights. Among them are whether the injury ought to be accorded constitutional status at all or instead should be treated as a routine wrong no different in principle from a traffic accident. If the case warrants constitutional status, the next issue is whether or not suit may be brought against the officer who committed the wrong or his government employer and so on. On each of these and other issues, the authors guide the reader through the complex body of doctrine, the lively case law debates and the scholarly literature over the appropriate mix of policies and the means by which to achieve them. The Law of Journalism and Mass Communication Robert Trager, Susan Dente Ross, Amy Reynolds, 2015-10-16 The Law of Journalism and Mass Communication is the media law text your students will want to read. Esteemed authors Robert Trager, Susan Dente Ross and Amy Reynolds tailor this text to the needs of future journalists and media professionals. They provide a current and comprehensive survey of media law and its effects on mass communication, complete with real world landmark court rulings in context, scenarios from significant cases, cutting edge research, photographs and feature boxes that offer snapshots of media law in practice to spark classroom discussion and encourage critical thinking. This thoroughly revised Fifth Edition includes a sharp focus on how the law applies to newsgathering and dissemination in the digital age. It offers new social media law boxes, new case excerpts and new features to keep students abreast of the latest developments in the law and its application. Criminal Procedure Matthew Lippman, 2015-12-08 This contemporary, comprehensive case-driven textbook from award-winning teacher Matthew Lippman covers the constitutional foundation of criminal procedure and includes numerous cases selected for their appeal to today's students. Organized around the challenge of striking a balance between rights and liberties, Criminal Procedure Third Edition emphasizes diversity and its impact on how laws are enforced. Built in learning aids including You Decide scenarios, Legal Equations and Criminal Procedure in the News features engage students and help them master key concepts. Fully updated throughout, the Third Edition includes today's most recent legal developments and decisions. Global Labor and Employment Law for the Practicing Lawyer Andrew P. Morriss, Samuel

Estreicher,2010-01-01 In recognition of the growing importance of global labour and employment law the Center for Labor and Employment Law at New York University School of Law dedicated its 61st Annual Conference on Labor to an in depth examination of issues arising in this area This volume of the proceedings of the 2008 conference contains papers presented at that meeting all here updated to reflect recent developments as well as additional contributions from other practitioners and academics with extensive knowledge and experience in the field Experts from both the practicing bar and academia twenty seven in all use their unique strengths to address issues worthy of concern in each juridical realm An unusual feature of this volume in the series is its in depth attention to comparative law in the field with exploration of developments in China France and New Zealand as well as in European Union law As always this annual conference captures valuable insights and syntheses of central labour and employment law issues and will be of great value to practitioners and academics in the field

Search and Seizure Martha Bridegam,2009 Provides divergent views on the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution Police Misconduct in Brooklyn Brian A. Maule,2017-11-03 This Brief explores police misconduct through the lens of a 5 year study of civil liability cases against the New York Police Department in Kings County Brooklyn New York The confluence of police misconduct and civil liability is an issue of growing concern for many communities throughout the United States One measure of the severity of these concerns is the increase in the number of lawsuits alleging police misconduct and the civil liability resulting from these lawsuits Using Brooklyn New York as a case study the author of this Brief uses lawsuits that resulted in a settlement or jury award over a five year period as its measure of police misconduct Police misconduct has many tangible and intangible consequences for a community such as violations of the law police brutality social consequences and long term public trust of the police On a very practical level as the author demonstrates the up front financial costs of prevention training and support to curb police misconduct are less expensive than the costs of civil liability payments for lawsuits This perspective creates a strong argument for policymakers for enhancing police training and police misconduct prevention programs This work will be of interest to researchers in police studies as well sociology and public policy Searching the Law, 3d Edition Frank Bae,Edward Bander,Francis Doyle,Joel Fishman,Paul Richert,2021-12-13 Civil Liability in Criminal Justice Darrell L.
