Die Afrikaanse literatuur sedert sestig Theunis Theodorus Cloete, 1980      The Cinema of Apartheid Keyan Tomaselli, 2013-12-13 This study analyses the historical development of South African cinema up to the book's original publication in 1988. It describes the films and comments on their relationship to South African realities addressing all aspects of the industry focusing on domestic production but also discussing international film companies who use South Africa as a location. It explores tensions between English language and Afrikaans language films and between films made for blacks and films made for whites. Going behind the scenes the author looks at the financial infrastructure, the marketing strategies and the work habits of the film industry. He concludes with a discussion of independent filmmaking, the obstacles facing South Africans who want to make films with artistic and political integrity and the possibilities of progress in the future. Includes comprehensive bibliography and filmography listing all feature films made in South Africa between 1910 and 1985 together with documentary films by South Africans, non South Africans and exiles about the country      Hat Afrikaanse Skoolwoordeboek, 2009      South African Language Rights Monitor 2011 / Suid-Afrikaanse Taalregtemonitor 2011 Johan Lubbe, Theodorus du Plessis, 2016-01-05 The SALRM 2011 provides a rich source of information on a range of language related subjects. A prominent issue remains the changing of street and place names including the Pretoria Tshwane and Louis Trichardt. Makhado's language in education remains a thorny issue as medium of instruction at school and tertiary level and the proposal that passing an African language should be a requirement in order to obtain a tertiary degree in South Africa. In terms of language legislation the draft version of the National Language Act was proposed. The language of record in courts also received attention in the media      A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards. Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems, plays and prose works in five literary traditions: Khoisan, Nguni, Sotho, Afrikaans, English and Indian. The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi, Marais and Campbell to Butler, Serote and Krog; theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda; and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee. The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa: notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka's Zulu kingdom, the Colenso crisis, industrialisation, the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899, 1914 and 1939, and the dissolution of apartheid society. In Heywood's study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world      A Century of South African Theatre Loren Kruger, 2019-11-28 Theatre is not part of our vocabulary. Siphosiphiso Sepamla's provocation in 1981

the year of famous anti apartheid play Woza Albert prompts the response yes indeed it is A Century of South African Theatre demonstrates the impact of theatre and other performances pageants concerts sketches workshops and performance art over the last hundred years Its coverage includes African responses to pro British pageants celebrating white Union in 1910 such as the Emancipation Centenary of the abolition of British colonial slavery in 1934 organized by Griffiths Motsieloa and HIE Dhlomo through anti apartheid testimonial theatre by Athol Fugard Maishe Maponya Gcina Mhlophe and many others right up to the present dramatization of state capture inequality and state violence in today s unevenly democratic society where government has promised much but delivered little Building on Loren Kruger s personal observations of forty years as well as her published research A Century of South African Theatre provides theoretical coordinates from institution to public sphere to syncretism in performance in order to highlight South Africa s changing engagement with the world from the days of Empire through the apartheid era to the multi lateral and multi lingual networks of the 21st century The final chapters use the Constitution s injunction to improve wellbeing as a prompt to examine the dramaturgy of new problems especially AIDS and domestic violence as well as the better known performances in and around the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Kruger critically evaluates internationally known theatre makers including the signature collaborations between animator designer William Kentridge and Handspring Puppet Company and highlights the local and transnational impact of major post apartheid companies such as Magnet Theatre

South African Theatre as/and Intervention, 2021-11-22 One of the most striking features of cultural life in South Africa has been the extent to which one area of cultural practice theatre has more than any other testified to the present condition of the country now in transition between its colonial past and a decolonized future But in what sense and how far does the critical force of theatre in South Africa as a mode of intervention continue In the immediate post election moment theatre seemed to be pursuing an escapist nostalgic route relieved of its historical burden of protest and opposition But as the contributors to this volume show new voices have been emerging and a more complex politics of the theatre involving feminist and gay initiatives physical theatre festival theatre and theatre for education has become apparent Both new and familiar players in South African theatre studies from around the world here respond to or anticipate the altered conditions of the country while exploring the notion that theatre continues to intervene This broad focus enables a wide and stimulating range of approaches contributors examine strategies of intervention among audiences theatres established and fledgling writers canonical and new texts traditional and innovative critical perspectives The book concludes with four recent interviews with influential practitioners about the meaning and future of theatre in South Africa Athol Fugard Fatima Dike Reza de Wet and Janet Suzman
