Development and Faith Katherine Marshall, Marisa Bronwyn Van Saanen, 2007 Publisher's description The faith and development nexus is both a promising new focus for secular development agencies and a historic reality for centuries world faiths and individuals inspired by their faith have played many roles in social change and social welfare Secular development agencies have largely operated in parallel to the world of faith motivated development The World Bank began in the late 1990s to explore ways in which faith and development are connected The issue was not and is not about religion but about the recognition that some of the best experts on development are faith leaders living and working in poor communities where strong ties and moral authority give them unique experience and insight The World Bank's goal is to act as a catalyst and convenor bringing together development practitioners to find common ground understand one another's efforts and explore differences Development and Faith explores and highlights promising partnerships in the world between secular and faith development entities It recounts the evolving history of relationships between faith and secular development institutions It focuses on the Millennium Development Goals as a common framework for action and an opportunity for new forms of collaboration and partnership

Faith based organisations FBOs have long been recognised as having an advantage in delivering programs and interventions amongst communities of the same faith However many FBOs today work across a variety of contexts including with local partners and communities of different faiths Likewise secular NGOs and donors are increasingly partnering with faith based organisations to work in highly religious communities Development Across Faith Boundaries explores the dynamics of activities by local or international FBOs that cross faith boundaries whether with their partners donors or recipient communities The book investigates the dynamics of cross faith partnerships in a range of development contexts from India Cambodia and Myanmar to Melanesia Bosnia Ethiopia and Afghanistan The book demonstrates how far FBOs extend their activities beyond their own faith communities and how far NGOs partner with religious actors It also considers the impacts of these cross faith partnerships including their work on conflict and sectarian or ethnic tension in the relevant communities This book is an invaluable guide for graduates researchers and students with an interest in development and religious studies as well as practitioners within the aid sector

Capacity Expansion and Development Barrington A. Mullings,2021-05-20

Capacity expansion and development amongst established and emerging leaders in Christian communities is never a feat that anyone accomplishes within a lifetime Evolving challenges among human communities require God s Servants to increase in skills acquisition expand the vital knowledge required for effective warfare operations so as to achieve greater outcomes in spiritual ministries These are some of the essential values that Barrington Mullings identifies in this timely and provocative work and calls those who occupy the ranks and files of leadership within the Church of Jesus Christ to pursue not merely as required qualifications for ordination but as critical means for affecting substantive outcomes in biblical spiritual ministries for the glory of God
