Segonzac Provence:

Early 20th Century French Graphics University of Virginia. Art Museum, 1989 Knight-Monks of Vichy France John Hellman, 1993-03-09 In The Knight Monks of Vichy France John Hellman describes the founding operation transformation and demise of the school details the institution's ideological and political struggles with other segments of French society and deals with the remarkable rise of Uriage ideas and alumni in postwar France By focusing on the social philosophical and psychological concepts propounded by the staff of the school Hellman has produced the first study that shows the cole Nationale des Cadres d'Uriage to have been an original educational and group experience which inspired French youth from very different backgrounds to abandon the liberal democratic tradition for a new political and social vision Drawing on a variety of sources including interviews newly available archival material Vichy publications correspondence and diary entries Hellman contributes to the current lively debate concerning the phenomenon of collaboration and the response of the French population to fascism and to the occupation during the Second World War This book will be of particular interest to readers concerned with the intellectual and political life of modern France modern religious thought and experience fascism and the Vichy regime changes in France in the prewar and postwar periods and the third way political option in contemporary Europe

Picturing Evolution and Extinction Fae Brauer, 2015-10-05 With the increasing loss of biological diversity in this Sixth Age of Mass Extinction it is timely to show that devolutionary paranoia is not new but rather stretches back to the time of Charles Darwin It is also an opportune moment to show how human driven extinction as designated by the term Anthropocene has long been acknowledged The halcyon days of European industrial progress colonial expansion and scientific revolution trumpeted from the Great Exhibition of 1851 until the Dresden International Hygiene Exhibition of 1930 were constantly marred by fears of rampant degeneration depopulation national decline environmental devastation and racial extinction This is demonstrated by the discourses of catastrophism charted in this book that percolated across Europe in response to the theories of Darwin and Jean Baptiste Lamarck as well as Marcellin Berthelot Camille Flammarion Ernst Haeckel Louis Landouzy Félix Le Dantec Cesare Lombroso Thomas Huxley Benedict Augustin Morel Louis Pasteur Lisé Reclus Rudolf Steiner and Wilhelm Wundt among others This book presents pioneering explorations of the interrelationship between these discourses and modern visual cultures and the ways in which the picturing of evolution and extinction by artists as diverse as Roger Broders Albert Besnard Fernand Cormon Hélène Dufau mile Gall František Kupka Pablo Picasso Carles Mani y Roig Sophie Taeuber and Vasili Vatagin betrayed anxieties subliminally festering over degeneration alongside latent hopes of regeneration Following Darwin's concept of evolution as Janus faced the dialectical interplay of evolution and extinction and degeneration and regeneration is explored in modern visual cultures in Australia America Britain France Germany Russia Spain and Switzerland at significant spatio-temporal junctures between 1860 and 1930 By unravelling the picturing of the dread of alcoholism cholera dysentery tuberculosis typhoid and rabies alongside phobias of animalism criminality hysteria impotency and ecological disaster each chapter makes an original contribution to this new field of scholarship By locating these discourses and visual cultures within the golden age of Neo Lamarckism they also reveal how regeneration was pictured as the Janus face of degeneration able to facilitate evolution through the inheritance of beneficial characteristics in propitious environments In striking such an uplifting note amidst the dissonant cacophony of catastrophism this book reveals why the art and science of Transformism proved so appealing in France as elsewhere and why visual cultures of regeneration became as dominant in the twentieth century as the picturing of degeneration had been in the nineteenth century It also illuminates the paradoxical inversion that occurred in the twentieth century when devolution became equivalent to evolution for many Modernists Hence whilst this book opens with the picturing of indigenous people in Australia and North America as doomed races by the first publication of Darwin's On The Origin of Species it closes with the quest by 1930 for a regenerative suntan as dark as the skin of those indigenous people

The Painted Panorama William Slatery Lieberman, Bernard Comment, 2000-03 In the first half of the 20th century Paris was the undisputed centre of the art world This book showcases 115 works from that period chosen for an exhibition at New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art

Art in France, 1900-1940 Christopher Green, 2000-01-01 This study sets developments within the frameworks both of their unstable social political and intellectual world and of the official and independent institutions of art

Bloomsbury and France Mary Ann Caws, Sarah Bird Wright, 1999-12-02 Bloomsbury on the Mediterranean is how Vanessa Bell described France in a letter to her sister Virginia Woolf Remarking on the vivifying effect of Cassis Woolf herself said I will take my mind out of its iron cage and let it swim Complete heaven I think it Yet until now there has never been a book that focused on the profound influence of France on the Bloomsbury group In Bloomsbury and France Art and Friends Mary Ann Caws and Sarah Bird Wright reveal the crucial importance of the Bloomsbury group's frequent sojourns to France the artists and writers they met there and the liberating effect of the country itself Drawing upon many previously unpublished letters memoirs and photographs the book illuminates the artistic development of Virginia and Leonard Woolf Clive Bell David Garnett E M Forster Lytton Strachey Dora Carrington and others The authors cover all aspects of the Bloomsbury experience in France from the specific influence of French painting on the work of Roger Fry Duncan Grant and Vanessa Bell to the heady atmosphere of the medieval Cistercian Abbaye de Pontigny the celebrated meeting place of French intellectuals where Lytton Strachey Julian Bell and Charles Maugham mingled with writers and critics to the relationships between the Bloomsbury group and Henri Matisse Pablo Picasso Gertrude Stein Andre Gide Jean Marchand and many others Caws and Wright argue that Bloomsbury would have been very different without France that France was their anti England a culture in which their eccentricities and aesthetic experiments could flower This remarkable study offers a rich new perspective on perhaps the most creative group of artists and friends in the 20th century

Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition

Artists in Nazi-Occupied France Werner Lange,2018-11-01 From 1940 to 1944 Werner Lange served as a Lieutenant of the Propagandastaffel the German propaganda service in Paris overseeing visual artists still living in France His was a privileged position and he enjoyed the cultural life of Paris even during the occupation years From the Champs Elys es Head Quarters the Nazi administration oversaw the artistic and intellectual life of occupied France This fascinating memoir includes Lange s encounters with renowned artists like Pablo Picasso Kees Van Dongen Aristide Maillol Gertrude Stein and Jean Cocteau After sitting untouched for decades this volume was discovered by Victor Loupan and released in France in 2015 Now this fascinating firsthand account of wartime Paris is published in English for the first time No other memoir of this period provides such intimate and detailed accounts of the day to day lives of artists during the Occupation Sales Parke-Bernet Galleries,1943 LOMA ,1970 Twentieth-century European Painting Ann-Marie Cutul,1980 Vichy France Robert O. Paxton,2015-02-18 Uncompromising often startling meticulously documented this book is an account of the government and the governed of colaborationist France Basing his work on captured German archives and contemporary materials rather than on self serving postwar memoirs or war trial testimony Professor Paxton maps out the complex nature of the ill famed Vichy government showing that it in fact enjoyed mass participation The majority of the Frenchmen in 1940 feared social disorder as the worse imaginable evil and rallied to support the State thereby bringing about the betrayal of the Nation as a whole Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1970 Réalités ,1962 "Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956?971 " Rosemary O'Neill,2017-07-05 The Riviera in the 1950s and 1960s was culturally rich with modernist icons such as Matisse and Picasso in residence but also a burgeoning tourist culture that established the C d Azur as a center of indigenous artists associated with Nouveau R isme Fluxus and Supports Surfaces emerged under the mantle of the Ecole de Nice Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications generated during the period from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives this study integrates material published in monographic studies of individuals and art movements to offer the first in depth study of this important movement in twentieth century art The author situates the work of the Ecole de Nice within the broader social currents that are so important in contextualizing this phenomenon within this internal region of France and underscores why this work was so significant at this historical moment within the context of the broader European art scene and contemporary American art with which it shared affinities Despite their stylistic differences and associations with groups that are generally considered distinct O'Neill discloses that these artists shared conceptual affinities theatrical modes of presentation based on appropriation use of the ready made and a determination to counter style driven painting associated with the postwar Ecole de Paris Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956-1971 suggests that the emergence of an Ecole de Nice internally eroded the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and that these artists fostered a model of aesthetic pluralism that remained locally distinct yet fully engaged with international vanguard trends of the 1960s

Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 Rosemary O'Neill, 2012 Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956-1971 offers the first in depth study of the Ecole de Nice The author shows how artists indigenous to the region challenged the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and growing internationalism in the arts
