Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington Washington (State),Richard A. Ballinger,1897 Federal Register ,2012-11 Independent Agencies in the United States Marshall J. Breger,Gary J. Edles,2015 It is essential for anyone involved in law politics and government as well as students of the governmental process to comprehend the workings of the federal independent regulatory agencies of the United States Occasionally referred to as the headless fourth branch of government these agencies do not fit neatly within any of the three constitutional branches Their members are appointed for terms that typically exceed those of the President and they cannot be removed from office in the absence of some sort of malfeasance or misconduct They wield enormous power over the private sector and they have foreign analogues In Independent Agencies in the United States Marshall Breger and Gary Edles provide a full length study of the structure and workings of federal independent regulatory agencies in the US This book focuses on traditional multi member agencies that have a significant impact on the American economy such as the Securities and Exchange Commission the Federal Communications Commission the National Labor Relations Commission and the Federal Trade Commission This work recognizes that the changing kaleidoscope of modern life has led Congress to create idiosyncratic administrative structures consisting of independent agencies squarely within the Executive Branch including government corporations and government

sponsored enterprises to establish a new construct of independence to meet the changing needs of the administrative state In the process Breger and Edles analyze the general conflict between political accountability and agency independence This book also compares US with EU and certain UK independent agencies to offer a unique comparative perspective Included is a first of its kind appendix describing the powers and procedures of the more than 35 independent US federal agencies with each supplemented by a selective bibliography of pertinent materials Report from the Select Committee of the House of Lords, Appointed to Inquire Into the Operation of the Act 3 & 4 Will., C. 85, for the Better Government of Her Majesty's Indian Territories Great Britain.
