Sex Stereotyping In Advertising:

Sex Stereotyping in Advertising Alice E. Courtney, Thomas W. Whipple, 1983      Current Research on Gender Issues in Advertising Yorgos Zotos, Stacy Grau, Charles R. Taylor, 2018-12-14 Gender stereotypes are general beliefs about sex linked traits and roles psychological characteristics and behaviors all of which contribute towards describing women and men Gender role stereotyping in advertising has been a critical topic since the 1970s and there is a long lasting debate between advertisers and sociologists about the role and the social nature of advertising Although changing role structures in the family and the labor force have brought significant variation in both male and female roles it has been noted that there is a cultural lag in advertising where men and women were for a long period of time depicted in more traditional roles This book extends the research on gender stereotypes in advertising over the past 20 years highlighting key themes such as attitude towards sex and nudity in advertising women in decorative roles the changing roles of women and men in advertising and the viewpoints of those advertising professionals who design campaigns This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Advertising      Advertising and Popular Culture Sammy Richard Danna, 1992 Subliminal perception debunked senior citizen advertising comes of age Mona Lisa goes commercial and male ad image changes are questioned These and a host of other insightful informative essays comprise this volume Numerous advertising and marketing scholars united to bring the reader some of their most instructive stimulating and entertaining works Advertising today more than ever is a field filled with change challenge and controversy For about a decade the Popular Culture Association's Advertising Area has proved to be a forum for a variety of topics that highlight advertising's impact on culture and society This volume stems from a proposal to collect into a book some of the papers presented at PCA Conferences in the Advertising Area from 1985-1989 Authors represent a variety of interests and research areas While original plans did not call for any specific topic divisions in this volume the articles do present variety though somewhat loosely categorized In general these categories fall under the broad umbrella of popular culture studies Besides the familiar historical and critical presentations articles of controversy and interest are included such as the one on subliminal advertising Some of these articles attempt to debunk previously written pieces and serve as a stepping stone to much further discussion All in all you will find something to amuse amaze inform and stimulate in this volume of advertising variety and versatility BOOK JACKET      Canadian Perspectives on Sex Stereotyping in Advertising Alice E. Courtney, Thomas W. Whipple, Canada. Advisory Council on the Status of Women, 1978      Stereotypes and Stereotyping C. Neil Macrae, Charles Stangor, Miles Hewstone, 1996-03-01 Following a broad overview that defines stereotypes the book addresses how they are formed and developed in chapters that cover the social psychology of stereotypes the impact of physical appearance on their formation and methods of assessing their accuracy Internationally renowned authors consider the function and use of stereotypes exploring their complex interrelationship with linguistic biases prejudice and discrimination and intergroup and interpersonal perception Chapters then discuss how stereotypes can be undermined detailing social psychological interventions to improve intergroup relations and examining ways that individual targets of stereotyping might motivate others to change A concluding chapter takes a historical view of stereotype research tracing the evolution of the field and evaluating current theories and methodologies
